In the name of God amen —

I Joseph Selby of Anne Arundel County of the State of Maryland being sick and Weak in Body, but of sound Mind and Memory and being Desirous to settle my Worldly affairs, do therefore make and publish this my last Will and Testament in Manner and form following, that is to say.

Imprimis, I commit my Soul into the hands of Almighty God, and my Body to the Earth to be Decently Buried at the Discretion of my Executrix herein after named, and, after my Debts and Funeral Charges are paid, I Devise and bequeath as follows —

I Give and Bequeath unto my loving Wife Ann Selby all the houshold furniture belonging to the House in which I now Reside, and after an Equal Devision of the Lot of Ground on which I now live, I devise such part as may fall to my share to my said Wife Ann Selby during her life, and in case my Wife should be Delivered of a Child of my Body Begotten, after her Death, I devise my said part of the Lot of Ground on which I live to it and its Heirs forever, — And if it should so happen that my Wife should not be Delivered of such Child, as aforesaid, then, and in such Case, it is my Will and pleasure, that my said Wife may make such Devise of my Estate as may seem best in her Judgment, —

And lastly, I do hereby Constitute and appoint my Dear Wife Ann Selby to be sole Executrix of this my last Will and Testament, revoking and Annulling all former Wills by me heretofore made; Ratifying and Confirming this And none other to be my last Will & Testament. In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand And affixed my Seal this 26th day of Septr Anno Domini 1790 —

Signed, Sealed, published and declared by Joseph Selby the above named Testator, as and for his last Will and Testament, in the presence of Us, who at his Request, and in his presence have subscribed our Names as Witnesses thereto —
