American Union

Thursday Morning, March 26 1885.

☞The Orphan's Court for Caroline county, will meet Tuesday, April 7th.

County and Peninsula.

.....The net that only big fish get into—the cabinet.

.....Winter is loth to leave the peach blossoming districts.

.....Bishop Wayman will preach in the A. M. E. Church, this town, on Thursday, (this evening) at 7:30. P. M.

.....Drew's Yeast Powder is the purest, cheapest, strongest made. Sold by all country merchants. [m19-4w.

.....Does any of our oldest inhabitants remember of the Choptank ever being frozen over solid before on the 21st of March?

.....The new steamer, "Howard B. Ensign," being built at Wilmington for the Maryland Steamboat Company will be ready to launch in three or four weeks.

.....The Queenstown News has been enlarged to a six column paper, and has put in a cylinder press, and is very much improved in many respects. Success to the brother.

.....The latest mathematical question runs as follows: "Two girls met three other girls and all kissed—of course. How many kisses were exchanged?" Do you give it up.

.....The recent cold spell has prevented our fishermen from seine hauling for several days past. Before the change of weather some were catching about one hundred herring per day.

.....The Stewards of Burrsville circuit are requested to meet at Henry T. Nuttle's store at Andersontown, on Saturday next, at 2 o'clock, P. M. By order of recording steward of the circuit.

.....A new play is about to be produced entitled "what shall he do with it;" well, if "it" is a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, he'd better take a spoonful three times a day until he gets rid of his cough or cold.

.....At the last meeting of the debating society at Ridgely on Friday night it was decided that the Peninsula should not be one State. The next question for discussion is, "Resolved, that woman has more influence over man than money.

.....A continual dropping on a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike." No wonder, poor souls, they are such slaves to headache. One twenty-five cents spent for a bottle of Salvation Oil will restore harmony in the household.

.....If you are suffering from a sense of extreme weariness, try one bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It will cost you but one dollar, and will do you incalculable good. It will do away with that tired feeling, and give you new life and energy.

.....Have you a cough? Sleepless nights need no longer trouble you. The use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, before retiring, will soothe the cough to quiet, allay the inflammation, and allow the needed repose. It will, moreover, speedily heal the pulmonary organs, and give you health.

.....Gov. McLane of this state, was appointed by the President on Monday, and confirmed by the Senate as Minister to France. This appointment leaves the International chair of Maryland vacant, which will be filled by Hon. Henry Lloyd, of Dorchester, the speaker of the Senate, until the meeting of the next Legislature.

.....The celebrated Ellis family gave a highly entertaining concert in the town hall in this place on Thursday night last, and the proceeds netted up $61.50. The music from the tuned sleigh bells was very fine, and the entire programme was well rendered. Their skill in using the various sets of bells is simply wondrous.

.....An exchange says: "Liquor is shipped from Baltimore under various names; sometimes marked sea foam, extract of malt, hard-tack, horse shoes and spike nails. Sometimes a keg or half barrel of whiskey is sent in a hogshead of crockery. Lemon syrup and turpentine are the favorite brands, but 'sewing machies' is a new wrinkle."

.....Mr. Joseph E. Elliott, for some years past an enterprising and extensive merchant of Centreville, on Wednesday gave way under the pressure and made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. Mr. Wm. Dever was appointed trustee. The assets of the concern are supposed to be about $25,000. The liabilities are as yet unknown, but supposed to be about $40,000, mostly secured.

.....Protracted services were brought to a close in the M. E. Church in this place on Sunday night last. At the close of the meeting, Rev. A. D. Davis, the retiring minister of this circuit, proposed a general handshaking, which was at once engaged in, and there were very few dry eyes in the house. Mr. Galloway left for his home in Wilmington on Tuesday, and Mr. Davis left for his new field of labor on Wednesday.

.....Joel Cahall, residing on she old Luther Diggins farm, two and one-half miles from Henderson, this county, met with a serious loss on Saturday morning last, by the burning of his dwelling house and a greater part of his household goods. Neighbors went to his assistance, but it was too late, as the flames had gained too much headway. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been from sparks falling from the chimney to the roof, the roof being old and easily fired.

.....The Rev. E. P. Aldred, lately the pastor of the M. E. Church, Chestertown, who was suspended from the conference upon grave charges, made his appearance at the Snow Hill conference, and a committee of fifteen was appointed to investigate the charges. Mr. Aldred finally, however, resigned from the conference and refused to stand trial. It is currently reported that Mr. Aldred has confessed his guilt, but whether or not the report is correct we have not learned.

Our New Minister Arrived.

Rev. T. O. Ayers, the new minister for Denton circuit, arrived in town yesterday, and was received at the parsonage by a number of his congregation, who gave him a hearty welcome. A good dinner was provided for the pastor and his family, and several hours spent in social conversation.

What's In a Name!

If-Christ-had-not-died-for-thee-thouhadst-been-damned. Dobbins was the name of a man in England in the days of the Roundheads, but Dorchester County, Md., presents two names almost as odd. The owners of the names still live near Cambridge, on the Choptank. They are "Julia Jane Augusta Dominica Rustis Ro Bo Bustis Jack" and John Henry Land Runner Run-out-and-Surveyor Bandana Beaver Dam Rendesvous God Bless Busticue."

Denton Circuit Divided.

At the recent conference of the M. E. Church, Denton circuit was divided. Denton circuit will hereafter consist of Denton, Potter's Landing and Harris' Chapel, Rev. T. O. Ayers, pastor. The new circuit is to consist of the appointments of Concord, Bloomery, Hickmantown, Burrsville, Sheppard's Chapel and Central. The new circuit will be known as Burrsville circuit, and the Rev. Mr. Bowman, of the New Jersey conference, is the minister in charge, with Rev. James H. Rich as assistant.

Death of a Lovely Young Lady.

The relatives and numerous friends of Miss Kate R., daughter of Mrs. Margret E., and the late William G. Nicholson, are called upon to mourn her sad and untimely death. This estimable young lady breathed her last on the evening of Thursday last, at the family residence, No. 108 Edmondson avenue, after a brief illness of a few days. She had not reached the 21st year of her age, and was noted for gentleness of disposition, commendable amiability and rare beauty of person. Her illness was congestion of the lungs, superinduced by a cold, contracted under peculiar circumstances. On the evening of Thursday, the 12th, Miss Kate attended an entertainment, musical and literary, in the parlor of the Grace M. E. Church, Lafayette Square. During the exercises snow fell rapidly, and many present had gone without overshoes. In the short walk from the church to her home, she contracted a severe cold, from which she never rallied. All that tender nursing and skilled medical attendance could do, was done, but her earthly career had been decreed at an end, and at 8.45 on the evening of Thursday, she passed from the scenes of this world to realms celestial.—Baltimorean.

Slander Suit Against a Minister.

Rev. Jas. McK. Brewington, who until the last session of the Wilmington Conference of the M. E. Church held at Snow Hill, was the junior minister of the Princess Anne circuit, brought an action of slander on Friday in the Circuit Court of Somerset County against his senior, the minister in charge, Rev. W. E. Tompkinson. The circumstances which gave rise to the suit, as near as can be ascertained, are as follows: During Messrs. Tompkinson and Brewington's pastoral services on this circuit togther Mr. Tompkinson preferred certain criminal charges against Mr. Brewington. The friends of the latter from among his church membership took up his defense, acquitted him of the charges, vindicated his character, and brought counter charges against Tompkinson for lying and other imprudent conduct unbecoming a minister. The conference, cleared Mr. Tompkinson of the serious part of the charge, lying, and assigned him another appointment. Mr. Brewington, on the contrary, failed to pass the examination for admission to the conference. This failure he attributes to the talk which had been going on about him, and he therefore seeks damages and vindication in a court of different jurisdiction. The case has excited much sensation there, where the nature of the old fued is understood. Messrs. Crisfield, Page and Dashiell are counsel for Brewington.

A $20.00 Bible Reward.

The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their Monthly for April, among which is the following:

We will give $20.00 to the person telling us in what book and chapter the shortest verse is to be found in the New Testament Scriptures (not the Revised edition,) by April 10th, 1885. Should two or more correct answers be received, the REWARD will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner April 15th, 1885. Persons trying for the reward must send 20 cents in silver or postal notes, (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the Monthly for May, in which the name and address of the winner of the reward and the correct answer will be published, and in which several more valuable rewards will be offered. Address RUTLEDGE PUBLISHING COMPANY, Easton Pennsylvania.

A dry goods firm in Cohoes had conclusive evidence one day recently that advertising pays. They advertised that they would sell three yards of silk for one cent. Did any one see the advertisement? The question was satisfactorily answered before the day was over, and it cannot be said that people do not read advertisements. So great was the throng which packed the store to secure the great bargain in silk that half frantic women climbed on the counters, others screamed and a few fainted, and the jam was so great that a force of police was detailed to clear the store.

The Lover's Soliloquy.

An exchange says, much has been said, and much has been written on the subject of kissing, but we prefer the following:

Cream and peaches once a week,
Kiss your girl on the right hand cheek;
Apples green and apples dried,
Kiss her on the other side.

That evinces wretched taste;
Take your girl about the waist,
Lift her on her pink toe tips
And print it squarely on her lips.

Seize the maiden in your arms,
Blushing with her tempting charms;
And it would, we think, be snugger
Oft to kiss and tightly hug her.

Take your girl in warm embrace,
Heart to heart and face to face,
Eye to eye and nose to nose,
Flippy flop and away it goes.

What's the use of all this rhyme;
Take your girl at any time,
Squeeze her till the blushes come,
Shut your eyes—yum! yum!! yum!!!

For the Union.

The Court House.

MR. EDITOR:—Will some of your better informed readers please explain the necessity of building a new Court House or remodeling the old one?

That is as well located, as well arranged, as substantially built, out of as good materials, with as large a "Clerk's Office," with six as good fire-places, with as good a fire-proof roof as can be found on this shore.

At a time when wages is high and produce low, with no schools for three months in the year for the want of money to pay the teachers.

When the property in this county is so shamefully assessed above its value, taxed $1.10 on the one hundred dollars; with $20,000 unpaid bonds against us, and $20,000 more wanted to build a new court house which the people don't want.

If this is done, some will sell out and leave the county to rid themselves of an onerous tax against which no assiduity can forwarn or wisdom can protect.

G. Holdstein:—I deem it a privilege to recommend your valuable medicine—"Aromanna. I have been troubled many years with liver and lung disease. One year ago I was taken with ague and fever. I tried other remedies, but nothing helped me until I obtained your "Aromanna." I commenced its use and it completely broke up the chills, leaving me with good health. Would not be willing to be without it in the house.

AYER'S
Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attacks as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me.

HORACE FAIRBROTHER."

Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,

MRS. EMMA GEDNEY."

159 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried. A. J. CRANE."

Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN."

Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles F. BRAGDON."

Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and in all always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.
