Thursday, April 2, 1885.

☞The Orphan's Court for Caroline county, will meet Tuesday, April 7th.

County and Peninsula.

……Beautiful spring has come at last.

……The black snake will soon begin to crawl.

……Milford, Del., is to be lighted by electricity.

……Even the spring poet has been frozen over this year.

……Messrs. Jump & Todd's law card in another column.

……A pavement is being put down in front of the new Town Hall.

……The Circuit Court for this county commences on Monday next.

……Some of the farmers of Worcester county, yet have corn in the field not husked.

……Wheat presents a sickly appearance, but on examination the roots seem to be all right.

……It will soon be time to renew or secure a license, as you will see by consulting our advertising columns.

……Drew's Yeast Powder is the purest, cheapest, strongest made. Sold by all country merchants. [m19-4w.

……Hillsborough circuit has been divided and now its citizens can enjoy a sermon every Sunday morning and evening.

"Man wants but little here below!"
The statement causes mirth;
It might have been in earlier times,
But now he wants the earth.

……Wiggins or Higgins—are the two names now rivaling in public notoriety. May the one give us good weather;—the other has given us a premature political squall.

……Mrs. Dr. T. J. Smithers fell while skating at the Easton Skating Rink on Tuesday of last week, dislocated a wrist joint and broke some of the smaller bones of the wrist.

……"If solid happiness we prize," says the poet Cotton, "within our breast this jewel lies," but if we have a cold there, the happiness can only be secured by using Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

……Read spectacle advertisement in another column of Samuel Amdursky. He will enable you to see very clearly by the aid of his 'specks that he is selling goods at extremely low prices.

……Don't forget the Apron Bazaar to be held by the ladies(Our Guild) in the town hall next Tuesday and Wednesday, during the day and evening. There will be a lunch each day at 12 o'clock.

……The thieves who picked the pockets of Shadrach Raughley, of Harrington, Del., while he was in Philadelphia last winter, have been sentenced to four years and a half in the Eastern Penitentiary.

……The broom factory on Third street in this town was commenced on Friday morning last. The building is to be 20x40 feet, and the second story will be occupied by Wilson & Roe as a cabinet shop.

……The "local option" question is again before the Delaware legislature. Peach brandy is too much of a staple over in Delaware for the temperance question to take much of a grip on public sentiment.

……Next week being court week will afford some of our subscribers who are in arrears an opportunity to pay up their indebtedness. We hope they will not forget us, as it takes money to run a newspaper.

……At the Ridgely debating society on Friday night it was decided that money has more influence over man than woman. The next question for discussion is, "Resolved, that England is justifiable in her war against Elmahdi."

……On Easter day, services will be held at sunrise, and at 10.30 A. M. in Christ Church, at 3 P. M. at Boonsboro school-house, and at 7.30 P. M. in Christ Church. The offerings at the Easter services will be devoted to the Rectory.

……There was a man of our town and he was wondrous wise. He jumped into a bramble bush and scratched out both his eyes. And when he saw his eyes were out, with all his might and main. He bought a bottle of Salvation Oil, and rubbed them in again.

……A gentleman of Smyrna, Del., has kept a diary of the last two springs, and says there has been three days during the March just passed that the thermometer has not registered freezing weather, while during March of last spring there were but three days that it froze at all.

……The Easton Gazette, the leading newspaper in Talbot county, and one of the oldest papers in the State, is offered at private sale, and if not sold before the 28th of April, it will be offered at public sale on that day. Ill-health is given as the reason for Mr. Councell's retirement.

……Rev. T. O. Ayers, our new minister, did not arrive on Wednesday last, as stated in our last issue, the steamer failing to get into Secretary Creek on account of ice, but he arrived here on Friday, and preached able sermons to large congregations on Sunday morning and evening.

……George Fountain, a colored man of Milford, Del., is a happy possessor of a hen that recently laid seven eggs in these days says the News—three one day and two on each of the other days. This old hen was so crowded with orders for eggs that she neglected to put shells on some of them.

……How are we ever going to get through our spring and summer's work? We are all run down, tired out before it begins." So say many a farmer's family. We answer, go to your druggist and pay five dollars for six bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This is just the medicine you need, and will pay compound interest on the investment.

……That slight cold you think so little of may prove the forerunner of a complaint that may be fatal. Avoid this result by taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, the best of known remedies for colds, coughs, catarrhs, bronchitis, incipient consumption, and all other throat and lung diseases.

……Parents had better look after their offspring a little. With all the care that can be taken and all the counsel that may be given, people grow up wicked enough; but when children are left almost entirely to themselves, the results are terrible. Sunday schools are good in their way, but they can't take the place of paternal government.

……Rev. Geo. W. Bowman, pastor in charge of Burrsville circuit, arrived last week and preached at Wesley's on Sunday morning, at Central in the afternoon and at Thawley's at night. On Sunday next he will preach at Concord at 10:30 A. M., and at Chestnut Grove at 3 P. M. Rev. Jas. H. Rich will preach at Bloomery at 10:30 A. M., and at Thawley's at 3 P. M.

Rev. T. O. Ayers' Firt Sermon.

Rev. T. O. Ayers, the newly appointed minister for Denton circuit, preached his first sermon to a good congregation in this place on Sunday morning last. At the evening service his congregation was large, the seating capacity of the church being pretty well filled. Both sermons were well delivered; the points of his sermons well defined; his illustrations clear and vivid. He is a man of evident piety and his congregations are well pleased with his efforts.

The Jesse James Train Robbers.

The trial of the youthful train robbers in the Jesse James style, Wm. Trainor and Leon Griffith, who were arrested on the central division of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad last January began at Elktou on Tuesday of last week and concluded on Thursday. Each was required to answer to two indictments—the larceny of a gold watch and chain from Geo. O. Garey, editor of the North East Star, and one dollar from Wm. Albourg, a colored student at Lincoln University. Trainor was convicted on both indictments, but Griffith was acquitted, it being proved that he was of unsound mind. Trainor was sentenced to eight years imprisonment in the penitentiary by Judge Wickes.

Wheat for Stock.

English farmers who have to purchase large amounts of corn, oil cake, cotton-seed meal and other foods for their stock are seriously considering the advisibility of feeding instead of selling their wheat. At present prices it is the cheapest food they can use. A ton of wheat is only $3 higher than a ton of corn, while its feeding value is considerably more. Colorado farmers are also feeding wheat. The price of wheat in the Denver market is about 64 cents per bushel of 60 pounds. As Colorado has to import a great deal of grain for feeding, the home-grown wheat at present prices makes the cheapest food for stock obtainable. Wheat makes splendid food for any kind of stock and its cheapness may cause it to be very much used for that purpose.

About the Peaches.

Randolph Peters, the well-known Delaware nurseryman and fruit grower, whose experience in the business adds great value to his opinion on any matter pertaining to fruits, told a reporter of a Wilmington paper a few days ago that he had examined many peach trees within the past few days and had found but few of the buds killed. He said: "You can find dead buds any year on some trees, and this year is no exception to the rule. I have examined many trees, and from what I have seen indications point to a splendid crop. This weather will not injure the buds. To the contrary, it will bring about good results. It is the late frost that kills the peach buds in this State and not the severe weather at this season of the year. In my opinion we have nothing to fear up to this date. What the next few weeks may bring forth is another question."

His New Faith.

Rev. John E. Smith, who has severed his connection with the Wilmington Conference to join the Swedenborgians, it is stated will take charge of a church in Maine. An exchange thus speaks of Swedenborg, a scientific and religious enthusiast, who lived during the early part of the eighteenth century:

"Swedenborg was an author of considerable prominence in his day, and published many volumes of a scientific character. He claimed that he was permitted to converse with spirits and angels and behold the wonders of the spiritual world. The general features of his theology, however, are contained in his "True Christian Religion," in which he teaches that God is one in essence and person and has been revealed to men as the Lord Jesus Christ. In the Lord is a trinity, not of persons but of principles, and it is those principles spoken of in the Scriptures as Father, Son and Holy Ghost. The Father is the divine love, the Son the divine wisdom and the Holy Ghost the divine operation or energy acting upon the universe. The chief points that Swedenborg insists on in religion are faith in the Lord and the avoidance of evils as sins against Him. Upon every thing else, such as outward worship, prayer and meditation and works of eleemosynary charity, he lays but little stress. The essence of charity is love to the neighbor and occupation in some useful employment. The Word, he says, is the divine truth itself, written to reveal the Lord to man and to serve as a medium of conjugation, between earth and heaven."

Strikes are Occurring

All over the country, but if you have a cough or cold the best thing you can do is to strike for the drug stores of George & Redden, Denton, Md., or Hugh Duffey, Hillsborough, Md.

Pass the Butter.

Pass the butter gently, Mabel,
Shove it lightly through the air;
In the corner of the dish, love,
You will find a nut-brown hair.
What fond mem'ries it awakens
Of the day ere we were wed,
When upon my fine coat-collar
Oft was laid your little head.
Longingly I stroked those tresses,
In the happy days gone by;
Now I strike them every meal-time
In the butter or the pie.

She is Keeping Her Promise.

Twenty years ago there lived in Baltimore city a robust, handsome young lady, the daughter of a poor man, and a rich young bachelor of peculiar habits of thought and manner. An attachment sprang up between them, but the bachelor was reticent and non-committal. Finally, they reached an understanding that they were to marry upon the well-understood terms that she was to have charge of the estate and use it as she pleased for the benefit of both and the family so long as it lasted, after which she agreed to provide for him and the children without his help or any anxiety to him. The estate has been consumed in living, a number of children are to be fed and clothed, and she is doing it womanfully, while he walks the streets wellclad, smoking his pipe and telling anecdotes, from sun to sun, day by day, week by week, month by month and year by year. He is contented and she is dutiful, remembering her contract and working conscientiously and laboriously to the fulfilment of her promise.

A $20.00 Bible Reward.

The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their Monthly for April, among which is the following:

We will give $20.00 to the person telling us in what book and chapter the shortest verse is to be found in the New Testament Scriptures (not the Revised edition,) by April 10th, 1885. Should two or more correct answers be received, the REWARD will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner April 15th, 1885. Persons trying for the reward must send 20 cents in silver or postal notes, (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the Monthly for May, in which the name and address of the winner of the reward and the correct answer will be published, and in which several more valuable rewards will be offered. Address RUTLEDGE PUBLISHING COMPANY, Easton Pennsylvania.
