☞The Orphan's Court for Caroline county, will meet Thursday, April 9th.

County and Peninsula.

.....For a good cigar go to Trazzares.

.....The early garden catches the late frosts.

.....The hen's are ready for the hatching season.

.....Coal oil 12 cents per gallon at Trazzares.

.....Song of the garden seed—"put me in my little bed."

.....It is never smart to be vulgar, nor honorable to wicked.

.....The Ridgely debating society has adjourned until next fall.

.....The Murray—Steele case cost Queen Anne's county $1,223.15.

.....The trees are showing the effect of the warm weather in their swelling buds.

.....Note the change of schedule of the Chester River Steamboat in another column.

.....Some of our farmers have started their plows—the best practical indication of Spring.

.....Farmers are plowing for oats and corn. They say the land is in good condition for working.

.....Seine hauling is now in full blast in the upper part of Chester river, and is said to be paying.

.....J. A. Trazzare has just received a large stock of Queensware which he is selling very cheap for cash.

.....Messrs. George M. Russum and Henry R. Lewis have formed a co-partnership for the practice of law.

.....Drew's Yeast Powder is the purest, cheapest, strongest made. Sold by all country merchants. [m19-4w.

.....Boarding a railroad train and demanding money at the pistol's point is an unprofitable business in Cecil county.

.....The smell of burning rubbish now permeates the air, as the people are cleaning up their gardens preparatory to sowing their little seeds.

.....The Howard B. Ensign is nearly completed and will be put on the Choptank route about the 10th of May, and will run alternate days with the Ida.

.....It now begins to look as though spring was upon us and that fair weather will be the order of the day for some time to come, with the exception of "April showers."

.....Carpets, after the dust has been beaten out, may be brightened by scattering upon them corn meal mixed with salt, and then sweeping it off; mix salt and meal in equal proportions.

.....The first shad of the season was caught just above this town by Mr. Kinsey on Friday last, and sold for 75 cents. Herrings are scarce and high, and the prospects now are that it will be another failure.

.....John Cannon, whose arm was so terribly lacerated by being caught in the saw at Frank Redden's saw-mill Denton Bridge on Wednesday is improving, but it will be some time before he is able to resume work.

.....Some neat work in the way of sign painting can be seen on the front of this office. These gentlemen are well skilled in the art of both house and sign painting. McElhenie & Watts are the gentlemen alluded to.

.....It would seem that Gentle Spring has come and hung up her wraps. Glad to see you, dear, fickle old Gentle Spring. Take an easy chair and make yourself comfortable. We didn't know but you were lost, strayed or stolen.

.....Mr. Jacob Ghinger's wife met with a painful accident on Thursday last, in attempting to catch a fallling window, missing the sash and thrusting her hand through one of the glass, cutting her terribly. The patient is now doing well.

.....The ladies of this town deserve great credit for beautifully decorating the pulpit of the M. E. Church last Sabbath (Easter Sunday) and our minister in charge, Rev. T. O. Ayers, preached an able sermon suitable for the occasion.

.....Mr. Wm. E. Dunnock, of Baltimore city, has purchased Wm. A. Stewart's stock of goods in this place, took charge on Friday last, and any one wanting anything in his line will find him a very clever and accommodating young man.

..... The steamer George Law, of the Chester River Company, was sold on Tuesday of last week to G. W. Baur and others at Washington for $12.000. This company have in contemplation the building of an elegant side-wheel steamer, a companion to the Emma A. Ford.

.....Hon. Jacob Tome, of Port Deposit, has kept a record for the past 52 years of the closing of the Susquehanna by ice, as well as the date of opening, and he says that the river has been ice-blocked for a later period this season than in any year since 1833, the 23d of March being the latest day of opening that came under his notice.

.....Hall's Hair Renewer renws, cleanses, brightens, and invigorates the hair, and restores faded or gray hair to its youthful color and lustre. People with gray hair prefer to use the Renewer, rather than proclaim to the world, through their bleached locks, that they are becoming aged, and passing on to decay.

.....Nothing upon God's green cushioned foot stool was intended to mourn. If the world were intended for a house of mourning every flower would be painted black; every bird would be a crow or blackbird; everybody would be born a negro—the ocean would be one vast inkpot—a black vail would be drawn over the face of Heaven and an everlasting string of crape hung around the borders of creation.

.....Walter Harmon whose bakery and dwelling were recently destroyed by fire in Centreville is preparing to rebuild. This new building will be placed under contract in a few days.

.....By lack of open air exercise, and the want of sufficient care in the matter of diet, the whole physical mechanism often becomes impaired during the winter. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the proper remedy to take in the spring of the year to purify the blood, invigorate the system, excite the liver to action, and restore the health, tone and vigor.

Sad Accident.

Pennell Cooper, a worthy young man, residing in Tuckahoe Neck, met with very severe accident on Tuesday last while on his way to town. He met a team on the road, near the residence of Geo. W. Spurry, when his horses became unmanageable, and he in attempting to stop his team allowed them to get the advantage of him, when he was knocked down and run over by two wheels breaking one of his legs just below the knee. He was taken up by a passer by and brought to town, when Dr. W. H. Downes rendered medical assistance and the patient is now doing well.

Burrsville Circuit.

Rev. Geo. W. Bowman, preacher in charge of Burrsville M. E. Circuit has made the following appointments for the next three Sundays, April 12th, 19th, and 26th, 1885:

April 12th.—Bloomery 10 o'clock, A. M., Central 3 P. M.

April 19th.—Wesley 10 o'clock, A. M., Sheppards 3 P. M., Central 7:30, P. M.

April 26th.—Concord 10 o'clock, A. M., Bloomery 3 P. M., Thawleys 7:30 P. M.

Mercantile Change.

Mr. Wm. A. Stewart, of this town, has sold out his store to a Mr. W. E. Dunnock, of Baltimore, who proposes to continue the business at the same stand. Mr. Dunnock has been associated with the well-known Dry Goods and Notion House of Daniel Miller & Co., for a number of years past, and is thoroughly posted in the dry goods business. He proposes to make that branch of his business a specialty and as he can buy at inside figures, he will sell accordingly. We bespeak for him a successful career among the people of Caroline.

Advice to Farmers.

The time for planting spring crops is now upon our farmers, and there is no one thing that deserves their careful attention more than the selection and planting of the very best varieties of produce that they can get. It is not wisdom to plant over and over again the same kinds of potatoes, cabbages, peas, beans and even corn. Farmers should endeavor, also, to manure their crops heavily, as labor spent in that direction is always remunerative. There is both pleasure and profit in raising the best and largest of the crops, but in farming, as in everything else, toil is the price of excellence.

A Woman Burned to Death.

A colored woman named Horner residing within the limits of Federalsburg, was burning the grass off an old orchard, preparatory to cultivating it on Friday last, when her clothing took fire and she was so badly burned before assistance could reach her that she was relieved of her suffering at 9 o'clock the night following. Sheriff Stevens happened along at the time and saw the woman run across the road just ahead of him with her clothing all on fire, and she screaming at the top of her voice. He says it was the most pitiable affair he ever beheld. The neighbors rushed to her rescue but not until her clothing was all burned off and she burned almost to a crisp.

That Progressive Editor.

We have thought that we would pass that meddlesome, self-conceited editor of the Greensborough Free Press by unnoticed, as we have always considered him a "small potato," and not more than one in a hill, but he continues to pick at us, and boasts of that wonderfull little sheet being the leading newspaper of the county. Only a week or so ago he published an article saying a subscriber writes that "he could not do without his paper." We should judge that this subscriber never saw a newspaper before, and we have our doubts whether he can read at all or not, to reach such a conclusion as this. We wonder if he is not a native of old Virginia. We would advise this shallow-brained editor to attend to his own paper and he will have enough to do, as from present appearances it looks as though it needed a little more "brains" and a little less "cheek."

Circuit Court.

Court called at twelve o'clock Monday, Judge Stump on the bench. Judge Wickes arrived on Tuesday.

The grand jury was sworn in as follows: Wm. C. Satterfield, foreman, Geo. W. Collison, Tilghman Nuttle, Samuel H. Fluharty, G. Lacy Stevens, Jas. W. Harris, Perry D. Taylor, N. Horsey, of R., Wm. Pennington, Wm. G. Horsey, Jas. L. Bullock, Nathan J. Corkran, Wm. J. Blackiston, Burton W. Parker, H. C. Culbreth, Capt. Thomas Eaton, Wellington Heather, Jas. A. Noble, Andrew Clark, J. Wesley Thawley, Jacob A. Heller, Martin A. Allaband, R. M. Messick. Jno. R. Wyatt was appointed bailiff.

We were unable to get the proceedings of the cases disposed of in this issue, but so far there has been no cases of much importance to the general reader.

Strikes are Occurring

All over the country, but if you have a cough or cold the best thing you can do is to strike for the drug stores of George & Redden, Denton, Md., or Hugh Duffey, Hillsborough, Md.

Sale of a Newspaper.

The Easton Gazette, one of the oldest newspapers of Eastern Maryland, and for the past quarter of a century conducted by Mr. Wm. H. Councill, has been sold to Prof. Wilson M. Tyler, at present Principal of a Seminary at Easton, N. Y. Mr. Councill the retiring editor has been compelled to dispose of his establishment on account of failing health. He has labored for many years for the Republican cause and has fought many a hard battle in support of the principles he has held sacred to the cause of freedom, and now that he retires from the arena of politics, carries with him the respect and good wishes of both political parties. The new editor will not take charge of the establishment until July next. He is a graduate from this office, and under the new management, the paper will lose none of its former usefulness.

In Memoriam.

A subscriber requests us to re-publish the deaths of three beautiful young ladies, all named "Katie," and all formerly of this town and vicinity, who have died suddenly within the last nine months:

KATIE S. MILLER,

departed this life July 11th, 1884, after a short illness, in this town, aged 20 years, 7 months and 4 days. Farewell, dear Katie, we lay you to rest, safe in the arms of Jesus. It almost breaks our hearts to give thee up, but thou art safe from this world's trials and temptations, and God knows best and He takes thee for one of His bright stars in heaven.

KATIE S. DUKES,

died at her father's residence, near town, on November 19th, 1884, after a short illness, aged 19 years, 11 months and 13 days. Yes, Katie is safe in the arms of Jesus, and we must humbly submit to His will. What a world of meaning is sometimes contained in that one little word gone, never again to respond to our call on earth.

KATIE R. NICHOLSON, breathed her last in Baltimore city, on March 19th, 1885, after a short illness, in the 19th year of her age. We did love thee, Katie, while on earth, and thou wast taken without a moment's warning, but we will try to say with all our heart that "what God sends is good."

A FRIEND.

Nearly Every Case

Of consumption can be traced to a neglected cold that finally became seated in the lungs, when by a timely use of a few doses of DuLac's "Swiss Balsam" the danger could have been averted. This remedy will afford relief in every instance. Contains no morphine or opium. Price 25 and 75 cts. Sold by George & Redden, Denton, Md., Hugh Duffey, Hillsborough, Md.

Deaths.

GRIFFIN.—On Friday of last week, Maud, daughter of Samuel H. and Annie Griffin, aged about 2 years and 5 months.

AYER'S Hair Vigor

restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the VIGOR is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

MR. C. P. BRICHER writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. BOWES, proprietor of the McArthur (Ohio) Enquirer, says: "AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The VIGOR is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction."

MR. ANGUS FAIRBAIRN, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1880: "Ever since my hair began to give silvery evidence of the change which fleeting time procureth, I have used AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, orators, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

MRS. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from 18 Elm St., Charlestown, Mass., April 14, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly used but one bottle of the VIGOR, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

We have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. It needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its value.
