.....Ayer's Cathartic Pills are the best medicine that can be employed to correct irregularities of the stomach and bowels. Gentle, yet thorough, in their action, they cure constipation, stimulate the digestive organs and the appetite, and cleanse, build up, and strengthen the system.

.....Those who pretend to know say that this is to be an exceptionally good fruit year. The continued cold weather has prevented the permature budding of the trees, which is claimed to be a good indication. The same holds good with reference to the small fruits, an abundant crop of which is also promised.

.....When wheat will "hide a rabbit at the first of May," the farmers feel well assured of a good crop. Instead of hiding a rabbit the most of them this spring will hardly hide a sparrow, and but very few have any confidence of realizing more than half a crop. The warm weather of last week however produced a wonderful change for the better, with the most of fields.

.....The "constantly tired-out" feeling so often experienced is the result of impoverished blood, and consequent enfeebled vitality. Ayer's Sarsaparilla feeds and enriches the blood, increases the appetite, and promotes digestion of the food, and the assimilation of its strengthening qualities. The system being thus invigorated, the feeling rapidly changes to a grateful sense of strength and energy.

.....The Cambridge Chronicle says: "A human head, with nothing but two inches of neck attached, was on exhibition in Cambridge several days last week. The head was an incessant talker, and so it was easy to see that it was a feminine head, if it had not had the frizzles and bangs that distinguish the sex. The head is called "Rhoda, the Southern mystery," and the many persons who viewed it for ten cents each, couldn't believe their eyes when they saw the strange object.

.....Strange gentlemen frequently come into our office and request to see our exchanges from some town which they name, saying they desire to see what kind of a place it is. They judge of a town by the advertisements of its business men. It is becoming more and more evident that nothing pays so well as judicious newspaper advertising. A truthful and neat advertisement will bring custom. Wanamaker & Brown understands this, and they use nearly all the papers within a radius of a hundred miles.

.....It is estimated that the Williams murder trial will cost Somerset county $5,000. The expenses of the jury alone were $100 per day. Over 100 witnesses were summoned. Within a year there have been two murder trials, which together cost the county $6,000. This makes $11,000 in all as the result of the killing of three people. Two of the defendants were penniless, and the present defendant pays taxes on les than $500 worth of property. The result of these trials has been to increase the tax-rate from 15 cents to 20 cents per $100.

A Father in Israel Fallen.

In the issue of the Union last week we announced the illness of Wm. Andrew, one amongst the oldest citizens of this county. On Friday morning last, he closed his eyes to the sense of earth, having attained to the ripe old age of 84 years. His sickness though protracted and his afflictions painful, he bore them with true christian heroism. His testimony to the consolation which the gospel affords was clear, positive and cheering to his relatives and friends gathered around his death bed. Even when passing the gates of death he could triumph in the hope the felicity of the great beyond. A few hours before his death, he called his daughter to his bed side and inquired of her the meaning of this great gathering of horsemen and carriages that surrounded his home, remarking, "something wonderful was to take place." Like Elijah, he had caught a glimpse of the horsemen and chariots on the hills beyond the river and while the spirit trembling on the confines of time, beheld the wonderful and the spiritual on the other side.

He was born about the beginning of the present century. He had seen the rise and prosperity of his country. He had lived through three generations. His children and his grandchildren and his great-grandchildren had grown up around him. He sought not worldly honors or fame. He was an unpretending citizen, a kind father, a good and peaceful citizen and loved and respected for his real worth and his exemplary christian character. His virtues were those that shine most brightly in the immediate circle of his own home and neighborhood. He was converted and joined the M. E. Church at Concord in 1818 and had been a member of that society for 67 years. He was appointed a class leader in 1827 and continued to act in that capacity until the time of his death, performing this duty for 58 years. Think of it gentle reader—a consistent member of the church for 67 years and a class leader for 58 years. Long years of patient labor and all through these years of toil and trial, with an eye of faith looking earnestly for the reward, and now that he has passed away, no doubt he has been welcomed to a better land and commended as a "good and faithful servant."

The last funeral rites were performed on Sunday last at the Concord church, and all that is mortal of this pious man of God, were deposited in their last resting place in that quiet country church yard. Rev. Jas. H. Rich, at the request of the deceased, preached the funeral sermon from the text, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so to them also that are fallen asleep in Jesus will God bring with him." A vast concourse of people assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to the departed. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity and still as many more were unable to gain admittance. It was perhaps the largest assemblage of people ever gathered together in this county on a similar occasion. Thus has passed away one of the old fathers in Israel, one of the brightest lights of Methodism in these latter days.

Send It In.

Will our friends throughout the county be kind enough to furnish us with any local matter of interest in their immediate neighborhood. Let us know who has been unfortunate enough to "shuffle off this mortal coil," and betaken themselves to another and untried world; also any who have been so fortunate as just to commence life, in real sensible, good earnest, by taking to themselves a rib, (bless the Lord for the ribs,) and starting out in life for some good, honest, sensible purpose. Let us know all about your crops, your wheat, corn, oats, potatoes, barley, fruit, vegetables, and indeed, everything else that will show to the world what we can do, and what we are doing. If a house should burn down, a horse run off, or anything happen that is out of the regular order of things, make a note of it and tell us about it. We want to know, and so do others. Don't be backward but let us hear from you, even if it is in Homœpathic doses, of a little at a time and often.

Mabley & Carew.

Prominent in business character, as well as in business location in Baltimore is the firm of Mabley & Carew to whose advertisement we ask the attention of our readers. Rarely indeed in a city where competition in the ready-made clothing business is unusually close, has so attractive a stock been displayed as this firm now offers their customers. Many persons believe that only inferior grades of clothing can be purchased ready-made. They will change their opinion if they will take the trouble to examine the stock of Mabley & Carew. The fact is that you can find in the sales room of this firm, many lines of fashionable clothing in every respect fully up to the best merchant tailors standard. Not only so, but at a much lower cost. Call at the corner of Light and Baltimore and examine their stock. You will be convinced of the truth of this assertion.

The New Tailor.

Mr. C. C. Seymore, Merchant Tailor, announces to the citizens of Denton and vicinity that he will remove to this place and be ready for business on Saturday next, 9th inst. His advertisement will appear in this paper next week.

Self-Experience.

We publish the following for the benefit of some of our young readers, who perhaps have undergone the patter of the shingle, and know the effects better than we can tell them:

Dame Martha had an erring son,
Who often went to shows;
She sought in vain to change his ways
By well-placed slipper blows.
One day he staid her upraised hand,
And thought to gain a chance
To save at least a little time,
And eke his Sunday pants.
"You should not blame me when I go
"To theaters," said he,
"Since 'tis yourself who takes me most Unto the Mattie knee."

Millions of Mackerel.

FISH AT TEN CENTS A HUNDRED—FISHERMEN NOT HAPPY.

The Philadelphia Times of Wednesday last speaks as follows of the great abundance of fresh mackerel:

Persons who eat fresh mackerel were treated yesterday to an abundance of these little fish at figures within the reach of the poorest classes. Fishing schooners began to arrive at this port on Saturday laden with mackerel, and yesterday morning fifteen vessels were lying at the wharves, all fresh from Chincoteague Shoals. The schooners averaged one hundred and fifty barrels and each barrel contained about four hundred and fifty mackerel, making in all nearly one million of these fish. They were sold on the streets in some neighborhoods at a cent apiece by the hucksters, who bought them at the wharves as low as ten cents a hundred. The captains of the fishing schooners were mad and they stood in groups along the wharves discussing their ill-luck in language seasoned with sailor's oaths.

Remedy for Cabbage Worms.

The Farmer's Home Journal says: "Prof. Riley announces the discovery of a remedy for the cabbage worm which is easily applied and, he says, has proved entirely satisfactory with Mr. Erwin, of New York, who first discovered it. It is simply ice-cold water applied at mid-day directly to the worms by pouring or sprinkling on them. The insects curl up and roll off dead, and the cabbages are revived by the cooling application. Of course it is best used in the heat of the day. In case ice water is not at hand he says very cold spring water will do pretty well. When we think of the effect on our own persons a plunge into an ice bath has in a July day we will not wonder the tender little larva of the Pieris rapæ should dump himself into direct eternity when cruelly treated to a cupful of this "cold pizen." Cabbage growers should certainly give this simple remedy a trial, and then report results.

What a Baptist Minister Says.

G. Holstein;—I have been afflicted for a long time with liver complaint and constipation. I have tried many remedies and several doctors, but they all failed. ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

Isaiah N. Eaton, Isaac H. Eaton, Curtis V. Eaton, James Mitchell and Milah A., his wife, Hollie Sargent, Annie V., his wife, Litha Jane Eaton, Venie Foote by Isaiah N. Eaton, her next friend, plaintiffs, vs.

Kesiah F. Riley, John Lare, and Samuel Gourley, defendants.

THE OBJECT OF THIS SUIT is to procure a decree to set aside and cancel a certain alleged deed and bill of sale from Ezekiel Eaton to the said Kesiah F. Riley, dated each on the 17th day of May, 1884, conveying certain real estate and personal property of which the said Ezekiel Eaton was seized, and possessed described in the bill of complaint filed in this cause, and also a certain alleged deed from Kesiah F. Riley to the said Samuel Gourley, dated 23d day of August, 1884, for the same real estate, and that an account may be taken of the rents, issues and profits arising from said land described in said deeds, received by the said Kesiah F. Riley and the said Samuel Gourley respectively since the death of said Ezekiel Eaton, and that they may be decreed to pay the same unto the plaintiff.

The bill states that a certain Ezekiel Eaton was in his lifetime possessed of a certain real estate situate in the 5th Election District of Caroline county, Maryland, containing one hundred and thirty-seven acres of land, more or less, and of a large and valuable personal property; that being so thereof seized and possessed and sick in body and weak and feeble in mind and intellect, on the 17th day of May, 1884, was induced by the artful persuasion, management and undue influence of Kesiah F. Riley to execute a deed of all his said real estate and a bill of sale of all his said personal property to the said Kesiah F. Riley upon false, fraudulent and fictitious considerations and the sum of ten dollars.

That said deed and bill of sale never were delivered to the said Kesiah F. Riley; that Ezekiel Eaton departed this life on or about January 25th, 1884, leaving Isaiah N. Eaton, Isaac H. Eaton, Curtis V. Eaton, Milah A. Mitchell, wife of James Mitchell, Anna V. Sargent, wife of Hollie Sargent, Litha Jane Eaton, his children, and Venie Foote, a child of Mary E. Foote, a deceased daughter of said Ezekiel Eaton, his heirs at law. That since the death of said Ezekiel Eaton, the said Kesiah F. Riley undertook to convey said real estate to one Samuel Gourley upon a pretended, false and fictitious consideration.

That the plaintiff are informed and believe that the said John Lare claims to have purchased the said personal property from said Kesiah F. Riley, which claim is false and is asserted for the purpose of aiding and abetting said Kesiah F. Riley in cheating and defrauding the plaintiff.

The bill prays that the said deed and bill of sale aforesaid may be set aside and cancelled and for further and other relief.

It is therefore ordered that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Caroline county, Maryland, once a week for four successive weeks, three months before the 19th day of August, 1885, give notice to the said absent defendant, Samuel Gourley, of the substance and object of this bill, and warn him to appear in this Honorable Court in person or by solicitor on or before the 25th day of August, 1885, to answer the premises and show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
