County and Peninsula.

······Dull—the matrimonial market.

······The season of the "sweet girl" is upon us.

······Strawberries promise to turn out well this season.

······Harvest will be late this year, as wheat is backward in heading out.

······The price of sugar is steadily advancing now that preserving season draweth nigh.

······A fourth of July celebration will be held at Wesley's Chapel for the benefit of the library fund.

······The public schools of this county closed on Friday last, and now the small boy is allowed to roam.

······Lime is a good disinfectant. It is also cheaper than doctor bills and funeral expenses. Use it freely.

······Easton jail has eighteen prisoners. Fourteen of them are awaiting trial under grand jury presentments.

······The new steamer Joppa, of the Maryland Steamboat company, made her first trip to this place yesterday.

······The wheat is full of sap now, and one close, foggy morning, followed by a hot sun, would blast thousands of bushels of it.

······The price of wool this season, like everything else the farmer grows, is exceedingly low. Growing wool at 20 cts. a pound does not pay the farmer.

······It is rumored that the Heptasophs will make their annual excursion some time during this month to Cambridge, and not to Oxford, as in the past.

······There will be a camp-meeting at Oakland again this summer commencing between July 20th and August 10th, no definite time yet being decided upon.

······This is the season when the amateur agriculturist is spending twenty-five dollars on a garden that will yield him four dollars and seventy-five cents' worth of vegetables.

······Strawberries were in our market on Saturday last and started at 15 cents per quart. Next week the market will be glutted and they will not command such high prices.

······"Bull-frogging" is now a favorite pastime with the sportsmen. A large number of them have been killed by our sportsmen during the past week. They are now numbered among the delicacies, especially in the cities.

······The red-lipped strawberry will be on hand in a few days, and the redder and more luscious and big he is the more certain he is to be on top, (like the politician), trying to apologize for his poor relations who are hid at the bottom.

······Capt. Wood, with his ferry boat, arrived in Cambridge last week, and travel has commenced between Cambridge and Talbot county. Surely this will be a great convenience to the citizens of Dorchester and Talbot counties.

······An Elkton gentleman picked up a neat little tin box on the street a few days ago, and upon opening it, instead of finding snuff inside of it as he expected, he found it packed full of good, lively, able-bodied potato bugs. He says they are the first of the season.

······The Ladies Mite Society will hold a strawberry and ice cream festival on the Court House square on Tuesday afternoon and night of next week. The festival will also be continued on Wednesday evening. If the weather should be inclement it will be held in the Masonic Hall.

······The "Stumblers," a base ball club which was organized in this town a short time ago are now ready to receive challenges from any club in or out of the county. They expect to play a match game at this place with the "Careless" club of Hillsborough on Saturday afternoon next.

······Some sneak thief forced an entrance through the back window of John T. Commegys ice-cream, confectionery, dry goods, notion and general variety store one night last week, and took therefrom a half-box of his best "wag-tail" cigars, and other valuables too numerous to mention.

······A white man who gave his name as John Meredith and said he hailed from Caroline county, was arrested at Buck Neck, Kent county, Md., last week charged with forcing an entrance in Jas. Shuster's store through a window and taking off a lot of tobacco and four or five dollars in money.

······The newspaper field seems to be pretty well crowded in Talbot and Cecil counties. In the former county seven and in the latter six weeklies are trying to maintain existence. There are only five in Caroline, and one of them is for sale. Hold on brother; "there's a better day a coming."

······Two freight trains collided on the Delaware railroad on Tuesday morning last near Middletown killing an engineer and wounding several others on the train. The cause is said to be carelessness on the part of a telegraph operator. We did not receive our mail until 10 o'clock P. M., owing to the accident.

······Mosquitoes in this section are as thick and as hungry for blood as the Democrats are for office. Some persons say that when they are so bad in May they are not so likely to be so troublesome during the summer. But the politician's race is not of so short a duration. We may expect to be infested with them until after the 3d of November.

······Delaware has a small town called Hollandsville, and a correspondent of the Harrington Enterprise who hails from that little village, says "it is situated about five miles from Felton, about five miles from Harrington, and in fact five miles from everywhere." We suppose that correspondent locates the little city very well, as we have been told that some portions of that little state was made up of just such places; small towns situated "five miles on the other side of nowhere, where nobody lived and dogs barked at strangers." They also added, that "briars grow so thick in some places that it is impossible for a person get his finger into them up to the first joint."

······Edwin H. Reynolds, of Cecil county, has a carp pond containing about three thousand of these fish. He feeds them on canned corn, and says he can make more out of corn in this way than by feeding it to hogs. He last year sold $223 worth of fish, and his stock is larger now than it was then. Has any of our friends who have been experimenting in carp raising ever realized one cent?

······The Governor has appointed A. A. Christian, editor the Free Press, Justice of the Peace for Greensborough district. The brother says "the office was unsought." It is a rare occurrence nowadays for an office to hunt a man, and the people of Greensborough district may now expect to get justice. Justice is law, but law is not always justice; but when you combine the two, an editor and a justice of the peace, you may expect fair-dealing, as editors always deal justly by everybody. A good appointment.

······Rumor has it that one of our hungry postoffice seekers who is confident that he is the man to carry off the prize in securing the postmastership at this place, is amusing himself by hanging up a lot of guano bags in an outbilding and standing off a distance of about six feet, uses corn cobs to represent letters. It is said he can hit a bag nine times out of ten, but when he receives the appointment, and his nerves become steady, he will get a "ringer every time."

Quarterly Meeting.

The first quarterly conference of the M. E. Church for the new circuit, known as Burrsville circuit, was held at Concord on Saturday last. The preachers salary was fixed at $600. The action of the conference in reference to a division of the circuit was discussed and the conclusion arrived at was to continue as at present until the meeting of the next annual conference, when the whole subject will be submitted to that body for a satisfactory adjustment.

Change of Schedule.

In our advertising columns to-day will be found the summer schedule of the Chester River Steamboat company. The steamer Emma A. Ford will leave Chestertown daily, except Sunday, at 6:30 A. M., stopping at Gray's Inn, Queenstown and arrive in Baltimore at 11:40 A. M. Returning, leave Baltimore daily at 2:30 P. M., making all stops for Chestertown.

The Corsica will leave Crumpton every Tuesday and Thursday at 3 P. M., and on Saturday at 12 noon for Baltimore. Returning leaves Baltimore at 11 P. M. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

How to Make Coffee.

The Cook, a publication in the interest of cooking and hygiene, says of making coffee: "There is no duty more important than that of teaching Americans to make coffee. Evangelists ought to go up and down the land awakening men and women to the enormity of boiling coffee. Every coffee-pot without a strainer should be publicly smashed, and the offense of boiling coffee should ostracise the offender. With the trifling exception of women, coffee is the best gift that man has received. To treat this gift with insult and contempt by boiling it is an outrage as ungrateful as it is brutal."

A Handsome Book.

We have just received from the Pennsylvania Railroad company its summer excursion book for the season of 1885. It is a handsome octavo volume of nearly two hundred pages, with abundant illustrations of a high order of merit and three excellent maps. What it does not tell about excursion routes is harly worth knowing. It describes all the summer points of interest, tells how to reach them, names the hotels, and gives the railroad rates of fare. It also combines trips and parts of trips with a success that the ordinary excursionist could never attain. Everybody who intends to make a trip this summer will profit by a perusal of this excellent work.

A Marylander in Africa.

A letter has been received at Easton from Mr. William P. Dodson, son of Mr. Leonidas Dodson, of the Easton National Bank, who accompanied the expedition fitted out in New York by Bishop Taylor to explore the interior of Africa and christianize the natives. The party reached St. Paul de Loando, on the west coast, on March 19, and were hospitably entertained by the government officials. The health of the party is good, though several were threatened with fever. At night they are summoned to their couches by the call of the bugle. The Portuguese language is being mastered, after which a push will be made into the interior. An excursion has been made 300 miles into the country for the purpose of purchasing 2,000 acres of land, to supply the colony with food. Oranges, bananas, cocoa-nuts and sweet potatoes grow in great abundance.

Fine Crops.

Mr. Saulsbury Hobbs. a practical farmer of great experience and sound judgment, visited a few of his brother farmers last week at Federalsburg and gives us the result of his observations. He reports a crop of clover now growing on a field of Mr. Wm. S. Goslin's, seeded in March of last year, 28 inches in height and a field well set in clover, seeded on corn land in July last, which measures 22 inches in height. This crop may be regarded as the best crop of clover ever grown in this county, considering the time it was sown, the backwardness of the season and other circumstances in connection with its growth. It is the result of a liberal application of Orchilla Guano.

Mr. Ed. E. Goslin has a mammoth crop of wheat of the Fults variety, growing on a 20 acre field, (fallow land) a portion of which measures full 5 feet in height. The entire field will average 4 feet, and gives promise of an abundant yield. The same gentleman has also a 12 acre field of the same variety on fallow land, which will average 3½ feet. The estimated yield on the two fields is put at over 1,300 bushels.

Mr. Ed. E. Goslin's land was fertilized from a formula prepared by his own direction and must be of superior quality to all others that are put upon the market. It gives us pleasure to note these improvements in the growth of these crops, and if there be other farmers in the county who can compete with these crops we would be pleased to hear from them.

The Peach Crop.

THE YIELD ESTIMATED AT FIVE MILLION BASKETS—THE LARGEST IN TEN YEARS.

The Philadelphia Press publishes despatches from the peach-growing centers of Delaware and Maryland, giving estimates of the expected shipments. The indications are that the yield will be the largest in ten years, if it does not surpass the big crop of 1875 From Kent county, Del., the most moderate estimates reached 1,500,000 baskets, while the more sanguine think it will exceed 2,000,000. New Castle county is expected to ship from 600,000 to 700,000 baskets, and in Sussex county the trees are so full that the crop is expected to be equal to that of 1875. The reports from Maryland are equally promising. Cecil county will probably ship 140,000 baskets, Dorchester 20,000, and Wicomico 50,000. There are six other Maryland counties in the peach-growing belt from which there are no returns, though the crop is said to be very promising. In the estimates allowance is made for the June fall, which, if amounting to one-third, will improve the quality of the balance of the crop.

To Build Up a Town.

An exchange very truthfully remarks: "An excellent way to build up a town is to say it is a 'dead' place, and that nothing can succeed in it. And then when somebody does agitate an improvement, do all you can to belittle it, and discourage others from favoring it. If this don't do it, ask four or five times the value of any land you may own and keep some old lots unimproved in the business part of the town, hoping somebody else will improve the town, and thus increase the value of your eye-sore of a lot."

This paragraph could be very well applied to Denton, especially the lower portion referring to "asking four or five times the value of land," for there are parties here who own a few feet of sandy land and want as much for a few feet of it as a poor man is able to invest in a house; hence a man in moderate circumstances is compelled to rent all his days.

Then and Now.

He called me Popsey, Sweet and Pet
When we began our married life,
His guiding star, his loved Annette,
His hope, his joy, his darling wife.

These fond endearments are all o'er,
And though his heart, no doubt is true,
I hear those pretty names no more,
For now he calls me "Say there, you!"

Dots for the Union.

If it were not a matter of grave thought it would be amusing to hear the high-flown talk about our semi-Democratic institutions. It sounds well to hear about the stability of self-government and the evenhanded justice of our courts, but beneath the surface lies the rot which is eating at the foundations of state, church, and our social fabric. Plutocracy is gnawing away at the vitals in safety, unsuspected by the unthinking, ambitious crowd who suck at the teat of the popular fallacy, or depend upon the opinions of those whom they unwisely or willingly think their superiors; and these superiors are invariably those who have or hold money or estates. A man may be thoroughly honest, upright in all his affairs, truthful even to bluntness; his intelligence may be of a superior order, but if it is not backed up by the idol of the people—cash—he must keep a back seat in all that which makes life pleasant, or he must carve out a line of action by which he can have pleasure within himself or out of his own humble surroundings.

This is fact; there is no belief about it. The evidence that can be brought to bear to sustain the assertion is beyond dispute. Men in position hood-wink the unthinking, and the unthinking render homage to the Plutocrat. You may raise a hue and cry of fairness at the ballot box; of purity in religion; honor and truth in social life; yet in all three the cash box is the most potent factor. In the distribution of places of honor, trust, profit, or social standing, a big cash account rules the roast. It may be said that all this is mere assertion; maybe it is. Maybe it is mere assertion to say that Plutocracy has caused the downfall of every nation that now only lives in history; yet when you go down to the real issues of their fall, it was caused by the power which the wealthy classes exercised, assisted by their allies, the professional classes who unscrupulously used their talents to advance the interests of their so-called clients, hood-wink the masses and step by step destroy all power but their own.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a highly concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla, and other blood-purifying roots, combined with Iodide of Potossium and Iron. Its control over scrofulous diseases is unequalled by any other medicine.

Backache, stitches in the side, inflation and soreness of the bowels, are symptoms of a disordered state of the digestive and assimilative organs, which can be promptly and thoroughly corrected by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. As dinner pills, and as aids to digestion, they have no equal. They cure constipation.

HALL'S
Vegetable Sicilian

was the first preparation perfectly adapted to cure diseases of the scalp, and the first successful restorer of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty. It has had many imitators, but none have so fully met all the requirements needful for the proper treatment of the hair and scalp. HALL'S HAIR RENEWER has steadily grown in favor, and spread its fame and usefulness to every quarter of the globe. Its unparalleled success can be attributed to but one cause: the entire fulfilment of its promises.

The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote countries, where they had never made an effort for its introduction.

The use for a short time of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER wonderfully improves the personal appearance. It cleanses the scalp from all impurities, cures all humors, fever, and dryness, and thus prevents baldness. It stimulates the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not transient, like those of alcoholic preparations, but remain a long time, which makes its use a matter of economy.
