In the name of God amen I Moses Maccubbin Son of Moses, being at present dangerous ill, tho of sound and disposing mind and memory, thanks be to the Almighty for the same, do for the benefit of my loving Companion and dear Children & the settlement of my worldly affairs, make ordain publish and declare this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and utterly annulling all Wills & devises heretofore made by me in manner & form as follows. Imprimis I will and direct that my just Debts, which are very few in number and of trifling amount, be on legal probate made of them, by those to whom I am indebted, honestly discharged by my Executors, and all those that may be owing my Estate, make immediate payment. Item I give and devise unto my loving Companion Sarah Maccubbin the use of all my Estate, for and during life, that is, if the said Sarah Maccubbin shoud not marry and in case of her marriage I will and direct that what ever property may then appear in her possession, to remain under the care and direction of Mr William Hammond one of my Executors and to be by him applied to the benefit of my Children till each shall arrive to the Age of twenty one or the Girls to the day of marriage, then it is my wish and desire & I will and direct that the said William Hammond do pay each at the different periods their dividend. And I further will and direct, that every demand against my Estate before payment made, meet the approbation of each of my Executors and should any difference ensue between the Executors, that an appeal be immediately made to the Commissary & his Opinion, made in writing, to be final & should the Commissary refuse to act that application be made to the Orphans Court immediately on their meeting. And Lastly I hereby constitute and appoint my dear beloved Wife Sarah Maccubbin and Mr William Hammond Executors of this, my last Will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand affixed my Seal this eight day of February seventeen hundred and ninety three —
