☞The Orphan's Court for Caroline county, will meet Tuesday, June 23d.

A MASS CONVENTION.

In order that all persons may have an opportunity to act in concert in devising ways and means to do away with bribery at elections hereafter in Caroline, a mass convention will be held at the Court House in Denton, on at 10 o'clock A. M., to which every one who loves free speech, a free ballot, and the free chosen representatives of a free people, are invited to be present.

J. W. BRYANT, THOS. MELVIN, URIE TOWNSEND, WM. H. DOWNES, JAS. E. HIGNUTT, JAS. I. LEDNUM, CHAS. W. BYRN, J. H. EMERSON, AND MANY OTHERS.

County and Peninsula.

.....A delicacy—new potatoes.

.....The ice-dealers' harvest has begun.

.....Strawberries are on their "last legs."

.....Refreshing—ice cream to cool the sultry evenings.

.....There will be no campmeeting held at Chestnut Grove this year.

.....In a few weeks the melon-colic days will have the boy on a bender.

.....The way to make business good is to put all the money in circulation.

.....Denton is in need of a good barber. There is a living for the right kind of a man.

.....Peach crop estimates are being very much reduced as the season advances and the June shedding continues.

.....Boys, beware of the strawberry festival when it moveth in your midst for the end thereof is an emty pocket.

.....The time fixed for holding Wye Camp is Tuesday, the 4th of August. It will close Friday, the 14th of August.

.....The man who expects to get through the world on the ashes of his ancestors is to be pitied more than praised.

.....For Sale—two good New Home Sewing machines can be bought cheap. For particulars apply at THIS OFFICE.

.....Mr. Enoch Pratt and family, Gen. Ensign and several friends, of Baltimore, took a pleasure trip on the Joppa to Denton last Wednesday.

.....George T. Melvin has sold his interest in the Denton Journal to Elon S. Hobbs, of Federalsburg. We have not learned the price paid.

.....Have you paid your subscription? If not, now is the time to assist the paper. A dollar is a small matter to you, but considerable to us.

.....Time is an equalizer. In the fall the candidate "stumps" his district, and now the barefoot boy "stumps" his toes. Both resort to "stumps."

.....The dry weather is cutting the berry crop short. They are small and sell low. They are retailing for 5 cents a quart in town, the best bringing 8 cts.

.....It is said that the free use of good ripe fruit in spring time will stave off a doctor's bill. If that is so let the fruit be eaten by all means. There is plenty of it.

.....Mr. Wm. F. Walson has exhibited in Centreville a quantity of strawberries of the Monarch variety. The berries were so large that sixteen of them weighed a pound.

.....The congregation of Hickmantown M. E. church will hold a festival on Saturday, June 20, at 2 o'clock P. M. at the church. Proceeds to go toward paying the debts now standing against the church.

.....The Middletown Transcript says "We have added five hundred new subscribers to our list this week. This is a lie but it belongs to the business, and an editor doesn't have to exert himself any more to tell a big lie than a little one."

.....At the festival held in the town hall by the Ladies Aid Society of this town on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of last week about $53.00 was realized. People complain of hard times but there is always a little surplus money left for festivals, entertainments, excursions, etc.

.....A number of new subscribers this week. Evidently the people know how to appreciate a good paper. We aim to give all the news and those of our readers, especially out of town, who hear of any items of news in or about their neighborhood would confer a favor by sending us information of the same.

.....Another new paper is started in Caroline—making six in all. It is a six column-folio, published by E. S. Turpin of Greensborough, is issued monthly and called "The Druggist." Mr. Turpin avoids bad subscription bills by furnishing his paper gratis. On these terms he ought to soon have a good subscription list if his paper is anything at all.

.....Wheat in this county has improved very much, and the prospect now on many farms is that the crop will be a fair one. On many farms it still shows badly, and this will pull the average down low. The time from blossoming to harvest, if wheat properly matures, is said to be four weeks. This will make the crop not only late, but very irregular in ripening.

.....Experienced lumbermen have always held that timber cut in the spring was not durable for building purposes. Recent scientific investigations sustain this belief. It is shown the richer the wood is in phosphoric acid and potassium the more likely it is to rot and mould. Wood cut in the Spring contains eight times as much of the former and five times as much of the latter as when cut in the Winter.

.....The Greensborough Free Press is responsible for the following paragraph: "M. S. Mutchler, Esq., States Attorney for Caroline county, is an applicant for Territorial Judgeship. Mr. Mutchler's credentials are now on file at Washington and embrace autograph letters from a host of prominent Marylanders, including nearly all the Peninsula editors. With that sort of backing he ought to make a favorable impression upon the administration and we hope soon to have the pleasure of writing it 'Judge Mutchler.'"

.....The Greensborough Free Press, Denton Journal, Caroline Democrat and Federalsburg Courier are requested to copy the call of the anti-bribery men convention which is to be held at the Court House in Denton on Tuesday, July 21st, and are further requested to send bills to Duplex, Marque, X, and many others.

Camp at Concord.

At a meeting of the official members of the Burrsville M. E. circuit, held at Concord on Thursday last, it was decided to hold a camp-meeting at the latter place, beginning on Friday, August 7th, and continuing ten days. It was also decided to hold a meeting at Concord on Saturday, June 20th, to elect managers, appoint committees and to stake out tent sites, etc.

A Mashed Nose a Blessing.

The Wicomico Record of last week says: "We hear that the colored minister who got his nose mashed in the accident near the depot on the N. Y., P. & N. railroad last week, has been paid $30 as a soothing application to the puffed up member. We are afraid it is a bad precedence. We know lots of fellows who would have their noses mashed for less than $30, and make money out of it, too. In fact, this is about the first mashed nose we ever knew to be a blessing, unless it is the blessing a fellow gets from his wife when he carries one of the adornments home.

Expresses His Views.

Mr. Robert D. Bradley, of Baltimore, recently one of the U. S. inspectors of steam vessels, made a brief stop in Cambridge last week while on his way to Baltimore. Mr. Bradley is an uncompromising republican, and was ousted from office a few weeks ago by the Cleveland administration to make room for one of the "faithful" of the other side. He favors the displacement of every republican office-holder, just as in 1889 he will advocate the turning out of every democrat in office, high and low. The republican party, he says, has merely stepped out for a short season of rest, and four years hence will be called back to power by the largest popular majority ever rolled up for any party in this country. He is a staunch temperance man, but denounced the prohibition movement as a democratic trick to divide the republican vote, so that they will reap the benefits, as was the result last fall.

Lost, Strayed, or Stolen.

About three weeks ago a young german, calling himself a barber, tramped into our town, and having a large quantity of cheek, and tongue enough to run two sets of jaws, managed to gain the confidence of some of our citizens who took pity on him and secured a room in the new town hall, loaned him a barber chair and other things, fixing him up pretty comfortably in the barbering business. After pillaging the town for the two weeks he remained, borrowing all the money he could, and running his credit out at all the stores, and after getting money from several of our young men to get them shaving mugs with, he boarded the steamer Joppa on Wednesday and sailed for Baltimore, leaving a board bill unpaid, but stated that he would return on the following Friday. He told others that he was going in the country to shave a dead man named Cook, and some of our citizens are of the opinion that he is waiting for the man to die. He has not been heard from since, further than that he told the barber on the Joppa to say to the people of Denton "good-bye," and if he never turns up again his stay will be brief. This is the second german tramp barber that has visited our town this year, and it would be well for our citizens to give the next the cold shoulder.

The New Orleans Fraud.

In New-Orleans they gave a show
To beat the big Centennial;
To which her people said they'd go
When came the great millennial.

And when the month of June had come,
With heat to melt our collars,
The great big show had sunk the sum
Of about two million dollars.

Notes from Norwood.

In this land of civil and religious liberty, where, in theory, the majority can do no wrong, it is the aim of most men to be with the majority. Weak men—men who never express an opinion unless it is one that has been borrowed or stolen—usually go with, or follow after, the majority. Strong men—men who have robust convictions, and the courage to express them with discretion—generally succeed in making the majority follow them. To simplify the proposition, and make it perfectly clear to the reader the subject I propose to discuss in this paper, I will state it in a different way.

Will "Reflex" and his coadjutors succeed in eliminating vote buying and vote selling from politics, at our elections for state and county officers? We think not; and for the reasons following:

First—A lack of confidence in the leader of the movement. And just here let us say, that in discussing the question I have no personal feeling whatever in the matter, except a strong desire for the success of the crusade against bribery. I have no wish to be uncharitable, and shall say nothing to wound the sensibilities of those engaged in the crusade. Let "Reflex" have full credit for purity of motive and honesty of purpose, in the war he is waging against an evil that every one admits to be debasing and dangerous, and still it will be a kindness to him and a benefit to the public to show him why he will fail.

It seems to be a well established fact, at least, so far as this county is concerned, that a man who has once engaged in politics, even with the smallest measure of success, seldom voluntarily relinquishes his claims upon his party. It is equally true, especially in late years, that if a politician, "boss" or even a "sub-boss," from any cause, loses his grip upon the party machine, and ceases to exercise a controlling influence in the councils of his party, he either sells himself to the opposite party for the best office he can get, or turns reformer, organizes a new party from what he calls the honest, thinking men of both or all the other parties, places himself at the head of this body of new converts and takes the field to purify the ballot, and make the ballot-box, what the fathers intended it to be, the palladium of our liberties. The good people of this part of the state are tolerably familiar with these peculiar political idiosyncracies, and politicians possessing them appear to be indigenous to Caroline county. Now it is not charged that "Reflex" is a man of this character; but it is claimed, that not many years ago he held office to which he was elected by the people, and it has never been asserted that he refused to contribute to the corruption fund raised by the candidates on the ticket with him that year for the purpose of buying votes. It is not charged that "Reflex," in leading this crusade against bribery, is influenced by any motives save those of patriotism, and a desire to remove from the county the stigma and disgrace that rests upon her on account of the number of purchased ballots cast at each election; but it is everybody's secret that "Reflex" is not so influential in his party at home as formerly, and his recommendation with the appointing power has less weight than it had a few years ago.

"Reflex" in his zeal for the cause he has espoused, has suggested the names of certain very estimable gentlemen as candidates to fill the places named on his "anti-bribery ticket," all of whom, as honorable, high-minded gentlemen, are above reproach; but unfortunately, some of them have suffered defeat at the polls, others, like "Reflex," have less influence in the councils of their party than formerly, while one—Mr. E. W. Williamson—will not accept office from any party, or on any terms. Hence, it was exceedingly indiscreet in the leader of a movement that ought to be popular, in naming candidates, especially when his every utterance is criticised, and the worst possible construction placed upon every move he makes.

Every attempt at reform in politics is looked upon with suspicion. The very word "reform," is sneered at; and he who inscribes it on his banner, and attempts to proselyte by it until he is in a majority, must have no vulnerable spots in his record. He must be above suspicion. Your correspondent believes, and it is probable that there are many others who believe that "Reflex" is influenced by the purest motives, and that he has undertaken to lead the crusade against this terrible evil at considerable personal inconvenience and sacrifice; but the belief of the writer, nor the belief of a hundred other and better men does not alter the facts. Everybody knows that "Reflex" was at one time a candidate, and that many of the ballots cast for him were purchased. Everybody knows that he no longer wields a potent influence in local politics. Everybody knows that his hankering for reform is a fever of very recent origin, and hence many—a great many—honest voters believe that there is some trick in the movement, by which "Reflex" hopes to regain his former influence.

It is useless to argue with straightforward, honest men when the facts are against you. There is little doubt but that a large majority of the voters of this county are anxious to find some means to break up and forever kill out the wretched practice of vote buying, but they will not be convinced that it can be done under the leadership of any one with a record so valuable as that of "Reflex;" and we repeat, that we help the anti-bribery cause, and do "Reflex" a kindness in showing him why he will fail of success, so that he may retire gracefully.

The man to lead a movement of this kind must be an individual who has never been a candidate, never held office, never wanted office, and never intends to [illegible] office. NORWOOD.

Children's Day.

SERVICES IN DENTON.

Children's day services were held in the town hall in this place on Sunday night last. The chief floral attractions was a beautiful cactus. The exercises consisted of responsive readings and singing by the children and their teachers. Rev. T. O. Ayres, the pastor in charge, made a short but appropriate address. The hall was crowded to its uttermost, and the exercises were shortened on account of the oppressive heat.

SERVICES AT POTTER'S LANDING.

The occasion was fully up to the high standard of excellence reached on former occasions. On the platform was an artificial lake with mossy banks—studded with flowers—in centre of lake was a rock covered with mosses and ferns. The rock was piled around a pipe through which a stream of water was forced at a height of about four feet—the whole making a miniature lake and fountain. The children did their part in a manner worthy of much praise. The house was crowded to overflowing. The pastor made an address. The collection was $7.62. The programme was arranged by Mrs. Williamson.

Godey's Lady's Book.

Godey's Lady's Book for July is the 661st appearance of this venerable Magazine. Like old wine it gives one the fruition of age. The number for July needs no special recommendation as it exceeds in beauty and merit any previous appearance of this old-timed Magazine. Its illustrations are rich and beautiful, while its reading matter, Dressmaking, Household and Recipe departments are replete with entertainment and information. A house without Godey's does not know its loss as each month it contains practical hints of far more value than the price of the Magazine. Those desiring to try it may subscribe for the balance of the year for one dollar, which allows every subscriber a selection of a full-size cut-paper pattern each month. As these patterns are noted for their accuracy, more than the price of the Magazine is received in the value of the patterns. Address J. H. HAULENBEEK, P. O. Box, H H, Phila.

Interesting to Ladies.

Our lady readers can hardly fail to have their attention called this week to the latest combination of improvements in that most useful of all domestic implements, the "sewing machine."

As we understand it, a machine for family use should meet first of all these requirements: It should be simple in its mechanism; it should run easily; it should do a wide range of work; it should be as nearly noiseless as possible; it should be light, handsome, durable, and as cheap as is consistent with excellence throughout.

These conditions the "Light-Running New Home" certainly meets. It has also several very important and useful attachments and "notions" of its own, which go far to make good its claims to popular favor.

The "New Home" specially recommends itself to purchasers on account of its superior mechanical construction, ease of management and reasonable price. Over half a million have been sold in the last three years, all of which are giving universal satisfaction. This unrivalled machine is manufactured by the NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE CO., Orange, Mass., and 30 Union Square, New York.

The meed of merit for promoting personal aesthetics is due to J. C. Ayer & Co., whose incomparable Hair Vigor is a universal beautifier of the hair. Harmless, effective, agreeable, it has taken rank among the indispensable articles of the toilet. To the scanty locks it gives luxuriance; and withered hair it clothes with the hue of youth.

AYER'S Hair Vigor

restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the VIGOR is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

MR. C. P. BRICHER writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. BOWEN, proprietor of the McArthur (Ohio) Enquirer, says: "AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The VIGOR is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction."

MR. ANGUS FAIRBAIRN, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1880: "Ever since my hair began to give silvery evidence of the change which fleeting time procureth, I have used AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, orators, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

MRS. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from 18 Elm St., Charlestown, Mass., April 14, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly used but one bottle of the VIGOR, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

We have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. It needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its value.

DR. JOHN BULL'S

Smith's Tonic Syrup

FEVER and AGUE Or CHILLS and FEVER, AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case where we will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

BULL'S SARSAPARILLA is the old and reliable remedy for impurities of the blood and Scrofulous affections.
