In the name of God amen, the thirteenth day of February Anno Dominie one thousand seven hundred and ninety one I John Porter of Ann Arundel County being sick in body, but of good and perfect mind and memory thanks be to Almighty God, and calling to remembrance the uncertain Estate of this transitory life that all flesh must yield unto death when it shall please God to call, do make, Constitute and ordain this to be my last will and Testament in manner and form following, revoking and admulling by these present all and every testament and Testaments Wills and wills heretofore by me made and declared either by word or writing and this is to be taken for my last will and Testament and none other First I bequeath my soul to Almighty God that gave it me and my body to the Earth from whence it was taken to be buried in such decent manner as it shall please my Executor hereafter named to think fit and appoint and now for the settling my temporal Estate and such Goods as it hath pleased God to bestow on me I do order give and dispose of the same in manner and form following, that is to say, First I willed that all those debts that I justly owe in right or conscience to any manner of person or persons whatsoever shall be well and truly contented and paid within convenient time after my decease by my Executor hereafter named — Imprimis I constitute ordain and appoint my son in Law Richard Disney to be my whole and sole Executor of this my last will and Testament — Item. I give and bequeath unto my daughter Ary Disney and my Grand Son Mordecai Disney my now dwelling plantation whereon I now do live to be equally divided between them, and to be the right and Estate of them and their heirs or assigns forever — Item. I give and bequeath unto my daughter Ary Disney and my Grand Son Mordecai Disney all my personal Estate let it Consist in whatsoever denomination it may to be equally divided between them and to be the right and Estate of them
