follows. I will and desire that my Heirs hereunder named lay out a sum of twelve thousand Livres to erect a Mausoleum which shall endose my body and shall to my Heirs the spot where I wish this Mausoleum to be erected. I declare that there exists a contract in the hands of Citizen Fenwick Consul of the United States of America residing at Bordeaux from which it results that my two Brothers Edward and Charles Pigott residing in England are to levy from my Estate a sum of thirty thousand American Dollars. I ratify as far as may be necessary the said Contract Willing and desiring that it may have its full and ample effect that it may be executed agreably to its form and tenor as a family Regulation made with my Brothers relative to our common Affairs and to what ought of right to come to them bequeathing to them the said sum of thirty thousand American dollars as far as may require for them to divide between them instituting them special Heirs thereto. I give and bequeath to Robert Boucamp resident at my Nephew and Godson the sum of six thousand Livres french money to be charged on the funds which I have in Spain for which sum to be paid I institute the said Robert Boucamp my special heir I give and bequeath to Citizen St Sauveurs Artist of the Encyclopedia of Voyages all that he owes me and moreover six thousand Livres French money to be paid and for which I institute him the said Sauveur my friend my special Heir I give and Bequeath to Citizen Master of the Commertial school at Bordeaux also my friend five thousand Livres french Money and for this sum paid I institute him my special heir. It is my Will that the funds which are to be made use of for the payment of these last three Legacies to be taken out of those which I possess in Spain whereof I can dispose freely as a foreigner and because the said funds are not in the Territory of the French Republic I declare that I am married to Margaret Henrietta Boucamp a Genevoise that our Marriage Contract was passed at Geneva and that my heirs ought literaly to follow our Marriage Articles contained in the aforesaid Contract which I will and desire may be executed and that it may take effect ratifying as far as may be requisite all the stipulations therein contained as conformable to the strictest truth and as I could wish to give my wife some proof of my most sincere attach-ment I declare that not being able to learn the Regulations which the decrees of the National Convention suffer to be made in favor of beloved Wives whose friendship and real services their Husbands wish to acknowledge.

I give and bequeath to her in possession and in right whatever the Laws and the decrees made the letter & spirit whereof I cannot learn and whatever the decrees to be made touching Estates or the Disposals by last Wills may permit to be levied upon my property whether in right or in possession in favour of Wives and consequently of mine so that I will so that I will and desire that my aforesaid Wife may have in right and in possession the shares and portions of my Estate whereof the decrees have permitted or shall permit a father to dispose in favor of Wives either in right or in possession it being my Will that she should have both the one and the other Moreover I will and desire that my Heirs hereunder named have without any difficulty in the enjoyment which I bequeath to my wife and which the Law decrees to her or shall leave to her the Country House of Ponte which I leave in the Department of Ain District of Ex in such manner that in delivering the portion of property which ought to revert to my Wife the Country House of Ponte be made a part of the said property. I further Will and desire that whatever shall remain of my Effects in Spain after payment of the Legacies above bequeathed shall be remitted to my Wife to whom I expressly bequeath them that she may employ them in the manner we have together agreed upon conforming myself entirely thereto without my Heirs being able to demand any thing of her As I give to her the aforesaid property by way of Legacy for all which I institute the female Citizen Margaret Henrietta Boucamp my dear and well beloved Wife for my special Heiress. I declare that I have four Natural Children Viz.t Charles Clegg Pigott now in the armies of the Republic at Bayonne Marianne Clegg Pigot Wife of Citizen Montgomery in favour of whom I constituted a Marriage portion at the time of her contract of Marriage and which is not paid James Rousseau Stedman and Robert Stedman these two last in England.