I constitute my said four Natural Children whom I have just named by their names and Christian Names for my general and universal Heirs for collecting all my property Real and personal Tittles Suffrages Rights Claims funds and Estates due and to grow due other nevertheless than the Legacies before bequeathed and the Articles mentioned in my Marriage Contract it being my will that my said four Children may dispose of the whole of my right of Inheritance according to their Will and pleasure as well during their life as at their death as their proper Goods and Effects subject to my daughter Marianne Clegg Pigott Wife of Citizen Montgomery entering into the Inheritance at the time of the division for the amount of the Marriage portion constituted by me in her favor and that in conformity to the as several of my Children instituted by me my general Heirs are absent and out of the Territory of the Republic and as it will be impossible for them to be able to manage and administer my property and obtain possession thereof I name for my Testamentary Executors Edward Pigott my Brother residing in England, Margaret Henietta Boulamp my Wife, Joseph Fenwick Consul of the United States of America residing at Bordeaux and Citizen at Paris.

I rely on their friendship and zeal for the Interests of my Children whom I order to submit themselves therein entirely to the management of my said Testamentary Executors and to the Account which they shall render them of the Residue I beg Citizen to accept four portraits of the heads of old painted by Rubens which are at the house of Citizen Boyer & Company at paris and I beg Citizen Fenwick to accept a picture by representing a Chymist in his Laboratory. I beg them both to consider these presents as a token of my friendship. I exhort and as far as need may require I order my four Children to honor and respect their Mother to assist them and to behave themselves towards them as good Children and loyal Citizens. This is my Will which I have caused to be Written by a trusty hand and which I have received and read again and which I have found in every point conformable to my intention annulling revoking and setting aside all other Wills that I may have made Willing that the present only may be valid that it may avail as a will Gift Codicil or other Disposition in contemplation of Death in the best form that the Law may require at Toulouse the sixteenth Nivose second year of the French Republic one and indivisible approving the handwriting of Robert Pigott Testator signed at the foot of the said Will.

The following is the Act of Superscription. The second year of the French Republic one and indivisible and the seventeenth day of the month of Nivose in the afternoon at Toulouse in the dwelling House of the Testator hereunder named before us Notary public of Toulouse aforesaid and the undersigned Witnesses personally appeared Robert Pigott a native of England residing in France for fifteen years at present residing at Toulouse Eleventh Section in the public Garden No. 436 confined by corporeal indisposition to his Chamber but of sound Mind as appeared to us Notary and Witnesses which said Pigott produced to Us Notary and Witnesses this sheet of paper stamped folded in four stitched all around with white thread and sealed in four places with red Spanish Wax with the impression of an engraved seal Upon which sheet of paper stamped the said Testator declared to Us Notary and Witnesses to have caused to be written by a Trusty hand his Will which he had signed at the foot thereof Willing that it may remain thus closed and sealed until after his decease in order to be afterwards opened read published and registered by Us Notary on the to our Office without any legal formality whereof he had requested the said Witnesses to be mindful and desired us Notary to keep the present Act of Superscription for him the whole whereof was immediately and without interference with other matters read by us to the Testator in presence of the underwritten Citizens John Redmond Bastouilla a Lawyer residing at Toulouse aforesaid and Citizen Peter Carre usually residing at Louisa now at Toulouse aforesaid on business who having signed with the said Pigott Testator and us Notary Robert Pigott app.t the Referenda Bastouila app.t the Reference Carre all signed this the said Act of Superscription