hereunto set my hand and seal this Sixteenth day of December one thousand Eight hundred

Thomas Boon (seal)

Sign.d Seal.d And published by the Testator in the Presents of us

Nathan Williams
Mark Stuart
Francis Cromwell

Anne Arundel County sct. Then came Francis Cromwell one of the the 26th Day of January 1801 Subscribing Witnesses to the Within last Will and Testament of Thomas Boone late of Anne Arundel County deceased, and made Oath on the holy Evangels of Almighty God, that he did see the said Thomas Boone Sign and seal this Will, and that he heard him publish pro=nounce and declare the same to be his last Will and Testa=ment, that at the time of his so doing he was to the best of his Apprehension, of sound and disposing Mind Memory and Understanding, and that he together with Nathan Williams and Mark Stuart respectively subscribed their names as Witnesses to this Will, in the presence, and at the request of the said Thomas Boone and in the presence of each other ~ Sworn before Jn.o Gassaway Reg. Wills A. A. Coy

Anne Arundell County sct. Then came Nathan Williams the 27th Day of March 1801 and Mark Stuart two of the Subscribing Witnesses to the Within last Will of Thomas Boone late of Anne Arundel County deceased, and made Oath on the holy Evangels of Almighty God, that they did see the said Thomas Boone Sign and seal this Will, and that they heard him publish pronounce and declare the same to be his last Will, but that at the time of his executing the same, they did not believe him to be in his proper Senses to execute a Will, and that they together with Francis Cromwell respectively subscribed their Names as Witnesses to this Will, in the presence and at the request of the said Thomas Boone and in the presence of each other ~ Sworn before Jn.o Gassaway.
Reg. Wills A. A. Coy

Anne Arundel County sct. Then came Hellen Boone and made the 14th Day of July 1801 Oath on the holy Evangels of Almighty God that the within Instrument of Writing is the true and whole Will and Testament of Thomas Boone late of Anne Arundel County deceased, that hath come to her hands or possession and that she doth not know of any other

Sworn before Jn.o Gassaway
Reg. Wills A. A. Coy

Anne Arundel County sct. On the 14th Day of July 1801 Came Hellen Boone Widow of Thomas Boone late of Anne Arun=del County deceased, and did renounce and quit all claim to any bequest or devise made to her by the last Will of her Husband, exhibited and proved according to Law, and elected in Lieu thereof her Dower, or legal share of the Estate of her said Husband ~ before Jn.o Gassaway. Reg. Wills A. A. Coy

The Deposition of Nathan Williams being sworn on the holy Evangels of Almighty God respecting the Will of Thomas Boone late of Anne Arundel County deceased, deposeth and Saith that he was acquainted with the said Thomas Boone from his infancy, that he this deponent never did think the said Boone very capable of managing his affairs as other men did, that he was a soft headed man, but that he did manage his affairs tho in the opinion of this deponent but badly ~ this deponent further says that on the Sunday the day before the Will of the said Thomas Boone was drawn and executed, he was at the house of the said Boone, that he was then very ill and conversed with deponent res=pecting a future State, and informed him he wished to have his Will drawn, that he had sent for Francis Cromwell who afterwards drew the Will and signed it as a Witness, to draw his Will but that he was afraid as it was sunday he would not come that he told this deponent the manner in which he intended to dispose of his property, and had considerable other Conversation with him, that at this time the said Boone was in the opinion of this deponent in his senses ~ that on the monday following the day before the Will was executed he