In the name of God, amen. I Robert Swain of Anne Arundel County & State of Maryland, knowing the Uncertainty of Life & being of a sound disposing Mind, Memory and Understanding do make this my last Will and Testament, in manner & form following.

Imprimis I recommend my Soul to that Being who gave it me in short & certain hopes of a resurrection to happiness hereafter, and as to my Body I would wish it to be buried in a decent manner at the discretion of my Executor: & as to the worldly Goods with which I am blessed it is my desire that they should be disposed of in manner & form following Viz.

I give & bequeath unto my trusty and well beloved Friend Doctr. Charles Alexander Warfield all my Estate in the State of Maryland consisting of Bonds Notes, Bills & Book Accounts and every thing else that I have any right or title to in Maryland — I say in the State of Maryland for whereas it has been represented to me that I have some property in Great Britain whether real or personal or both or either / of which I am in some doubts / my Will & desire is that the Possessor or Possessors thereof and their Heirs may enjoy the same for ever without any hindrance or molestation from my heirs or assigns.

I constitute and appoint my well beloved Friend Doctr. Charles Alexander Warfield Executor of this my last Will & Testament hereby revoking and disannulling all Wills heretofore by me made, in Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & affix'd my Seal this 25th day of November in the Year of our Lord 1786.

I John Callahan of the City of Annapolis Do make my last Will and Testament as follows.

First I give and devise to my Daughter Sally Callahan and her heirs a Tract of Land in Monongalia County in the State of Virginia, conveyed to me by the Colonels William and Francis Deakins, in trust, for her.

As to the remainder of my Estate, it is my Wish and design that all my Children shall share alike, as near as may be,
