American Union

THURSDAY, Sept. 24, 1885.

☞The Orphan's Court for Caroline county, will meet Tuesday, Oct. 6th.

NOTICE!

All accounts for subscription to the UNION and for yearly advertising have been purchased by the undersigned. Persons who are in arrears in settlement of their subscriptions will please call and settle. JAS. N. TODD.

Caroline County.

.....Flowers keeps the best cigar in town.

.....The end of the peach crop draweth near.

.....The equinoctial cold wave has struck us.

.....The campaign is upon us. "Let the bug hop."

.....Subscribe for the UNION; $1 per year, in advance.

.....An unusually large chestnut crop in this county is predicted.

.....Look out for the skating-rink man; we hear one wants to come here.

.....Lay aside your straw hats and dusters, and get out your fall overcoats.

.....Dunnock's shoes "lay over the deck." New stock just from the city.

.....Mr. James Park has sold his farm near town to Zachany T. Anstett for $1,500.

.....Circuit Court for Caroline County will begin on next Monday week October 4th.

.....Miss Emma Jump, of Dover, is visiting Miss Minnie Jarman, in Greensborough.

.....Where, oh where are the big white frosts predicted by some of our see-in-the-future exchanges.

.....Before you have your printing done, just call at the UNION office. We are studying to please you.

.....The handsome residence which is being built in Greensborough for John F. Dawson, is nearing completion.

.....Rev. T. O. Ayres, who exchanged pulpits with Rev. J. E. Kidney, is reported to have highly entertained the people.

.....If you want to save money, go to Blackiston & Son; they keep everything from the size of a flea to that of an elephant.

.....Rumor says that Capt. C. C. Wheeler has bought the steamer Edgecombe and will continue her daily trips as usual.

.....Mr. Josiah White, formerly of Tuckahoe Neck, but now residing near Philadelphia, spent several days in town last week.

.....If you want anything to eat, go to Trazzare's. He can fix the inner man. Fresh groceries and everything in that line; give him a call.

.....Rev. J. E. Kidney, of Hillsborough M. E. church, delivered two very acceptable sermons in the M. E. Church of this town on Sunday last.

.....At the awarding of the two scholarships to the Maryland Agricultural College, Robert E. Smith and Wm. A. Siegler, of Ridgely, were successful.

.....Mr. H. N. Rickards, son of James S. Rickards, Esq., of Greensborough, leaves to-day to pursue a medical course at University of Maryland, Balto.

.....Mr. G. P. Andrews, who spent several weeks with us last summer, and who talks insurance by note, has just organized a society at Federalsburg.

.....There is no use of going bareheaded now, for Dunnock has a lot of new hats which he is just giving away;—well he has knocked the prices down flat.

.....Messrs. Price & Clark, of Henderson, met with quite a serious loss in the total destruction of their evaporating establishment together with all the fruit contained therein last week.

.....E. T. Moore Esq., of Preston has realized, this year, from about five acres set in peach trees, seven hundred dollars clear of freight and commissions;and yet, old fogies say peaches don't pay.

.....Dover Fair is nearly at hand. All young men who contemplate attending it and want to "have some style" about them, should immediately go down to our new tailor and order one of these See-more coats.

.....A partial eclipse of the moon can be seen to-night from 1:15 A. M. to about 3:30. Now boys, get the old folks to retire early this evening and take your "best gal" out and teach her astronomy in the moonlight.

.....Mr. W. W. Lowe, agent for the Cecil county insurance company has just made the following payments of $50 and $200 to Mr. T. F. Garey and James W. Wilson respectively, for damage by fire occasioned a few weeks ago.

.....The sun crossed the line yesterday and now we are marching towards winter; but whether or not it will be a severe one, we will tell more about when the hog's liver and the goose's breastbone make their appearance.

.....The St. Paul M. E. Church of Denton circuit will be dedicated Sunday, Sept. 27th; Rev. T. H. Johnson will preach on the occasion. Subject: "The establishment of public worship is God's remedy against the evil of this world."

.....Miss Amanda Saulsbury, daughter of Jas. K. Saulsbury, Esq., has consented to accept the position as teacher of the Ridgely school. She is a graduate of Lutherville College, Western Maryland, and will render valuable service.

.....On Tuesday last, while the steamer Edgecombe, alias Hedgehog, was making her regular trip from Greensborough to Denton, the rudder gave way when about three miles from town owing to a defect in the iron work. On board was a Republican delegation which the Captain brought here in a small boat, The boat will be in running order the last of the week.

.....We have received a copy of the Federalsburg Courier under the management of Heffron Bros. Its columns are filled with choice and entertaining reading matter, and if we are capable of judging, we think the Courier will run.

.....The former editor of the UNION has the only "ciphering" dog in town. He is the best mathematician of the canine tribe; he puts down three and carries one, and brings the answer every time from the colored man as he passeth by.

.....Register Kerr will sit again on October 5th and 6th next, as will also the registers of the other several districts of the county, for the completion of registration. See that every Republican in the county gets registered who is legally entitled.

.....The Anti-bribery adherents have one candidate, anyhow; and we heard the other day that they would fill out the ticket if they had to pay the candidates $100 each to accept. Expect some of them will come to the same wise conclusion that Col. Downes did.

.....Dr. G. W. Goldsborough and B. C. Silverthorn are on the sick list, says the Greensborough Free Press. Yes, there are a few, of the same persuasion, down this way, who are in the same boat; it seems to be an epidemic. Downes and Douglass are all right though.

.....The Democratic county nominating convention will meet for the third time next Tuesday to nominate a candidate for the House of Delegates. A man is wanted who will stick; who has no anti-bribery propensities, and who, if elected, will vote for A. P. Gorman for the U. S. Senate.

.....Hon. Geo. Colton, of Baltimore, formerly of the Annapolis Republican, will lecture in Masonic Hall, Denton, on the evening of October 6th, next. The lecture will be for the benefit of the M. E. Church, and should therefore be well patronized. He is noted as an eloquent and pleasant orator.

.....We hope our friends and patrons will avail themselves of the splendid opportunity during the approaching term of our court to call and settle their subscription and thereby relieve us of the embarrassment of calling on each one. We propose to put vim and life in the UNION and to do this our patrons must help us in our endeavor.

.....A young gentleman called to see his girl the other evening, not many miles distant. Her youngest brother, Johnny, met him at the door. "Is your sister in," said the young gentleman? "I don't know; what's your name?" "Mr. ——," said the young caller. "All right, just sit down; I'll go and ask sis whether she's home; but I don't think that's the name."

.....The creditors of George W. Hopkins, insolvent, met in the clerk's office yesterday in person and by attorney for the purpose of choosing a trustee. Jas. N. Todd, Esq., was appointed. This has been an unfortunate year on business; many of the most influential business men of the State have become involved. Mr. Hopkins should have advertised in the UNION.

.....The following will show quite a creditable report from the rail shooters on Monday last: Mr. Emmett Downes, 155 on two tides; Link Stevens, 125 on two tides; Frank Finch, 90 on two tides; Dr. Downes, 75 on one tide; J. W. Bryant, 52 on one tide; Dukes Downes, 32 on one tide; Clinton Cook, 25 on one tide, besides having killed a king rail which will equal about one dozen of the others; making in all 555 birds.

.....On Monday afternoon some children while playing around hay stacks near the store-house of J. T. Lowe, at Little Creek, Del., by some means set fire to the hay. A large number of persons worked hard for a couple of hours and succeeded in extinguishing the flames without serious loss. Mr. Lowe was formerly of this county, and has become quite successful in business. He recently paid $1,000 cash for a small tract of land situated near Little Creek.

.....Quite a serious accident happened to Mr. Robert Anthony on Monday afternoon of last week. He was pursuing his duties in the saw-mill at Anthony's, when it seems that a log became peculiarly caught by the saw and hurled with such momentum against his face and forehead as to render him insensible for quite a while. His forehead is considerably fractured, while his face and nose are terribly mashed and cut. Dr. George was immediately summoned and the patient is now improving.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen!

One of the number of the now probable candidates for the Democratic legislative decapitation has run away. He strayed from the Gormanocracy of the State of Maryland for the body of Caroline on or about Sept. 19th.

He must be back for the meeting next Tuesday. He is able-bodied; Stentorian-tongued and Herculean limbed. A suitable reward will be paid for his speedy return to Chairman Democratic Local and State Central Committees.

Mass Convention.

All persons opposed to monied bribery at elections are invited to attend a meeting at the court-house in Denton, on Tuesday, September 29th, 1885, at 2 o'clock P. M., to receive the report of their committee appointed to wait upon the Democratic and Republican nominating conventions, and to take such action as they may consider the present political situation requires.

By order of the Committee.

URIE TOWNSEND,
Denton, Sept. 22, '85. Chairman.

—Lightning struck the Republican postmaster at Harrington, Del., last week and knocked him out of the office. The electricity came directly from Washington, and it is presumed he will not entirely recover until there is a change in the administration of affairs. Turn 'em in.

Republican Convention.

The Republican nominating convention met in Denton on Tuesday last and did the noblest work it has done for some time. Although the day was stormy, the Republicanism of the county was present. At an early hour the whole county was represented by delegates, and at 2 o'clock Republicanism could be seen in the air; could breathe it and it had a most harmonious and soothing effect.

The convention was called to order by Col. R. J. W. Garey. Jas. K. Saulsbury, Esq., was called to the chair, with P. Allen and J. W. Brown as Vice Presidents. Henry T. Nuttle was made Secretary.

A committee on resolutions was appointed by the chair as follows: T. R. Green, G. W. Ernst, G. M. Russum, Dr. A. Stafford, R. R. Edgell and Geo. W. Camper. Before the report of the committee, however, Mr. John H. Emerson presented resolutions on behalf of the anti-bribery movement, in an earnest and enthusiastic speech; and in reply to which the following resolutions were adopted by the Republican convention:

WHEREAS, This convention has been waited on by a committee of a convention of the citizens of this county who desire to put an end to the use of money to control elections; and whereas, it is proper that we should express an opinion of the evil complained of; therefore, be it, by the Republicans of Caroline county, in convention assembled,

Resolved, That we deplore the practice of buying and selling votes that has prevailed in this State since the adoption of the constitution of 1867, owing to the wilful omission from that instrument, by the Democratic party, of the wise provisions of the constitution of 1851 and 1864 against bribery; which required every person elected or appointed to office to "take an oath that he had not, directly or indirectly, given any bribe, promise, or reward, or any inducement to any man to change his vote."

Resolved, That the Democratic party refused to incorporate such a clause into the constitution of 1867 for the avowed reason that, in consequence of the probable enfranchisement of the black man, the use of money would be necessary to maintain its ascendency in this State; and that, since then, we have not only seen a thoughtful vote balanced by a purchasing dollar, but that no person can aspire to place, through a Democratic primary election, unless, as was the case at the recent primaries of that party in this county, he is strongly backed by both whiskey and money.

Resolved, That the time has come when appropriate legislation should be adopted at the next session of the Legislature to put an end to these practices, and that the claims of candidates for appointment, retention and election to office should be based on sobriety, capacity and integrity.

Resolved, That as an earnest of our desire to use every means in our power to promote the public morals, we this day present for the suffrages of the people of Caroline county a ticket composed of persons the influence of whose past lives has been on the side of law and order and good morals, as the safest pledge, and surest guarantee of a faithful discharge of a public trust; and we invite a comparison of their merits, individually and collectively, with the ticket which emanated from the last Democratic convention, a portion of the delegates to which were chosen at a primary election at which whiskey and money were the chief weapons of the victor

Mr. Russum made some stirring remarks and among other things said: "This is not the day, nor is this the party for the anti-bribery cause to present resolutions; it must approach that party which inaugurated and is at the very foundation of bribery; go to the Democratic party for it inaugurated the crime in 1867, when they framed their constitution to that effect."

The convention then proceeded to nominate such men whose private and public character are above suspicion, and whose reputation are a guarantee that no corruption will be used by them in securing their election. Mr. P. J. Hoffman put in nomination A. B. Roe, of Greensborough, for the Senate, whose nomination was made unanimous. Motion was then made by Dr. Stafford that James Green, of the first district, and Capt. Charles Wright, of the fourth district, be declared the nominees for the House of Delegates, and there being no opposition, their nomination was declared by acclamation. Wm. F. Towers, of the sixth district, then received the nomination for County Treasurer. Mr Russum then named Chas. W. Hobbs for County Commissioner, and his nomination was unanimous. After considerable balloting for the other two commissioners, Mr. R. R. Edgell, of the fourth district, and G. W. Ernst, of the second, received the nominations. B. Gootee Stevens, of Potter's Landing was then put in nomination for Clerk of the Circuit Court by Thomas R. Green of Marydel. His name was inthusiastically received and his nomination was by acclamation. John H. Stack of the fifth district, being the choice of the convention, was declared the nominee for Register of Wills. Motion was then made for the nomination of T. B. Curry, for sheriff and he received it unanimously. For surveyor, John Whitaker received the nomination.

Wm. H. Casho, Chas. Stevens, D. J. Zacharias, Clinton Jarman, Dr. A. Stafford and Geo. M. Russum, were elected delegates to the State convention which meets in Baltimore today. A new State Central Committee was appointed, which consists of the following gentlemen: T. R. Green, Geo M. Russum and C. H. Todd.

Orphans' Court.

Court met on Tuesday last; present, Judges Moore and Johnson.

On application of James H. Horsey, he was appointed guardian to Andrew D. Wright, minor, upon his giving bond in the sum of $500, which was approved by the court.

Esma Lowe admr. of Sarah Plummer, dec'd., presented a distribution of the balance of the personal estate of said deceased, which was examined by the court and ordered to be recorded.

Chas. H. Shields, executor of Anna Shields, dec'd., presented the final receipt and release of Mary W. and Wm. B. Gootee. Passed by the court.

Wm. C. Satterfield presented a final receipt and release of Fredrick Malone, his late ward. Passed by the court.

Peninsular Items.

—S. W. Hope, of Dover, Del., is experimenting with a corn-harvester.

—Now that Cambridge has become a city, it wants to put on more airs and have gas lamps.

—J. H. K. Shannahan, of Easton, has made an assignment to R. B. Dixon for the benefit of his creditors.

—The youthful widow of the late Winder Hastings, of Somerset county, is now suing for a dower instead of a divorce.

—W. H. Barton, Sr., of Cambridge, has an egg-plant which weighs 6½ lbs. and measures 28 inches in circumference.

—The Democracy of Somerset, Dorchester and Caroline counties each nominated a candidate who will not serve. A sensible conclusion.

—Isaac A. Kinder, near Bridgeville, Del., has two pumpkins on his farm which weigh respectively 108 and 98 lbs., and still they continue to grow.

—Don't fail to attend the coming State fair at Dover; it promises to be the most brilliant and attractive of any since its existence. See "ad" elsewhere.

—Sheriff Sudler, of Queen Anne's county has 16 visitors; two are white and fourteen colored. They have expressed their intention to continue their stay until November court.

—An exchange says, Rev. J. E. Mowbray has been appointed principal of Frederica schools. We think, owing to his recent record and confession, a more suitable prefix would be, ante, ex or irReverent.

—The Preachers' Association of Easton District was in session on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. These meetings are becoming quite popular; and, at them, many important and modern questions are discussed.

—The Wilmington Conference Academy of Dover, Del., under the management of Profs. Gooding and Conwell, has opened with increased and flattering prospects of success. This is one of the noblest institution in America.

—It is reported, that in a short time, the civil service, white house electricity will strike the Easton postoffice. The present incumbent had better take the precaution (if not too late) to get his lightning-rods in good order; if he doesn't, he'll be knocked bald-headed. Turn 'um in.

—Rev. Henry C. Lay, first Bishop of the P. E. diocese of Easton, died at the Church Home and Infirmary in Baltimore on Thursday last. He was born in Virginia December 6th, 1823; during his life he wrote many valuable works. He leaves four children; three sons and one daughter.

—An insane man, hatless, coatless, shoeless and brainless was found wandering in the woods near Sudlersville last week, by two colored men. When approached he became violent and had to be thrown and tied before he could be managed. His name is Wm. Lewis, and claims that he was born in Chestertown, but now lived in Philadelphia, where he was recently beaten and robbed.

—On Saturday Henry Holden sued Edward Sapp, of Felton, Del., and recovered $14 damages. Holden last year rented a house of Mr. Sapp and notified him to provide a well on the premises. This Sapp neglected to do. Holden brought in a bill for each and every bucket of water he had carried from a neighbor's, and was awarded the above amount. Landlords had better look out and see that their premises are provided with wells.

—On Monday evening of last week a party of young ladies and gentlemen were standing on the end of the wharf at Tolchester Beach having a social chat, when suddenly one of the young ladies, Miss Charlotte Seaborn, of Baltimore, became frightened at an eel and ran into the bay. She could not swim, but displayed wonderful presence of mind by keeping herself above water. The tide was strong and she was drifting down the bay, when Mr. Luther Francis nobly plunged in to her assistance. A fishing-rod was handed to them, by which they were drawn to the wharf and pulled out. Witnesses of this affair could not but admire the great self-possession and bravery of both parties. The lady was asked if she was frightened. "No," she said, "but I got my feet wet."—Kent News.

—There is a man in Delaware who is not happy. He lives at Bridgeville. Soon after the administration took charge of things, he set about to be appointed postmaster. He was strongly backed, and notwithstanding that there were two other applicants in the field, his prospects were so good that he considered himself as good as appointed. On the strength of his confidence, he got married, and went off on a wedding tour, intending to return just about the time his commission arrived. He had a good time, and as soon as he got back he went to the postoffice. As he anticipated, the commission came, but sad to relate, it was made out in the name of another man, and the confident applicant went sorrowfully home, appreciating the truth of the words, "Oft expectation fails when most it promiseth."—Balto. American.

Business Locals.

Pleasent to the taste and surprsingly quick in relieving coughs and colds, it is not at all strange that Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup always succeeds.

Salvation Oil, the greatest pain cure on earth, is guarenteed to effect a cure where it is possible for the seat of the desease to be reached by liniment. Price 25 cents a bottle.

"Lay thy sweet hands in mine" he said, but she only remarked that she had the neuralgia and must hold her head. He gave her Salvation Oil and now he holds her sweet hands by the hour.

From almost every section of the State come reports of a general improvement of the health of our people due no doubt to the influence of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup which costs only 25 cents.

A Remarkable Cigar.

She is a dandy and has met with the most enthusiastic reception of any cigar since the invention of tobacco.

Since the arrival of this brand of cigars, STANDING ROOM has been at a PREMIUM. There are so many eager purchasers that their feet stick through the transom. The tobacco from which Flowers' cigars are made is grown in conservatories, and the cigars are manufactured on mahogany tables by thoroughbred Cubans in claw-hammer coats and white kids.

When a man smokes one of these cigars, he walks on air, and dreams that he has a diamond scarf-pin, and an $80 suit of clothes, and has just married rich.

It makes the breath sweet and keeps the teeth white, and will force a mustache on the smoothest lip in five weeks. It improves and beautifies the complexson, eradicates tan, freckles and dandruff, and imparts to the oldest countenance the rosy freshness of youth.

It permeates the house, window curtains, closets and clothes, with the delicate odors and exquisit fragrance of heliotrope, frangi-palm, jockey club and white rose.

It will fasten the front gate every night, carry in the morning paper, chase the hens off the garden, and blister the boy with the rubber gun.

No family can properly keep house without it, for the man who smokes this cigar will never cut the wood to long for the stove, step on a trail, or go down to the club after supper.

I have the sole agency and control of these cigars, besides 50 other first-class brands. W. P. FLOWERS,
Masonic Hall.

Burned to Death.

Dinah Bannon, an old colored woman living on Dover street in Easton, was found dead in her house one morning last week about eight o'clock. When found she was lying on the floor with her head in the fire. Her face and nose were burned to a crisp. Justice J. H. T. Hubbard was sent for and viewed the body. After making an investigation, he considered a jury of inquest unnecessary.—Easton Gazette.

Deaths.

ELLIOTT.—On September 21st, at Federalsburg, John T., infant son of Alonzo and Maggie Elliot.

GRAY.—On September 17th, at Federalsburg, Howard, son of W. L. and Elizabeth Gray.
