American Union

THURSDAY, Oct. 1, 1885.

☞The Orphan's Court for Caroline county, will meet Tuesday, Oct. 6th.

NOTICE!

All accounts for subscription to the UNION and for yearly advertising have been purchased by the undersigned. Persons who are in arrears in settlement of their subscriptions will please call and settle. JAS. N. TODD.

Caroline County.

.....Don't be a clam, but go to the UNION office for your advertising and job work.

.....Court begins Monday next. Judges Robinson, Wickes and Stump will be present.

.....Edwin H. Brown, Esq., of the Centreville bar, was in town on Monday of last week.

.....If you want to have a good appetite and a clear conscience, vote the Republican ticket straight.

.....Don't forget to get registered on the 5th or 6th inst.; this will be your last chance, and don't you forget it.

.....Hon. George Colton will be in Denton on Tuesday next, and will lecture in the Masonic Hall that evening.

.....Geo. W. Ingram, of Middletown, Del., and Wm. F. Smalley, of Wilmington, Del., were in town on Thursday last.

.....J. W. Nelson, of Hillsborough, died on Monday night last. He leaaes a widow and five children. Much sympathy prevails.

.....Excursion tickets to Dover fair, including admission to the grounds, will be sold at all the stations on the Delaware & Chesapeake Railroad at very low rates.

.....Mrs. A. Z. Beachamp, the popular milliner of Hillsborough, has removed her stock of goods to Lancaster city, Pa., where she will continue the millinery business.

.....Miss Hester Fountain on Friday last accidentally fell in the yard and broke her wrist. Aunt Hester is a very highly respected old lady, and is nearly 75 years old.

.....Col. A. J. Willis, of Potter's Landing, paid us a pleasant call on Tuesday last. He has passed his three-score-and-ten, and is as pleasant and hearty as ever. Long live Col. Willis.

.....Congressman Chas. H. Gibson arrived in town on Tuesday afternoon last, and his great host of friends gave him a hearty welcome. He will spend a few days with us in rail-shooting.

.....Having been called away for several days since our last issue, and being quite busy, we have not had proper time to devote to this. We hope our patrons will bear with us until we get settled down to business.

.....Rev. A. Smith will to-night deliver an "Address to Men" in the M. E. Church at Greensborough. No ladies, or boys under 18 years of age are invited. As it costs nothing to get in and nothing to get out, there will be perhaps an unusually large audience.

.....The traveller visiting Baltimore makes a grand mistake if he does not stop at the "Maltby House," located in the business centre of the city; convenient to railroad depots and steamboat wharves, and is conducted on both the European and American plans.

.....“Brace up and be something,” is sounded on our streets by men, women and children. What does it mean, everybody inquires? Why, it simply means for young men, bachelors and old widowers to go right square down to Seymour's tailor shop and get a new suit of clothes.

.....The well-known plantation, called the "Plains," of this county, and all the handsome furniture and other personal property on the tract, has just been sold by the owner, A. Thorndyke Rice. The purchaser is Mr. Wm. F. Smalley, of Wilmington, Del., at and for the sum of $35,000. Number of acres—759.

.....The reward offered in the UNION of September 17th for a democratic candidate for the House of Delegates has brought the answer. The unfortunate resides in Baltimore, but formerly of this county. He is of the right stripe; being liberal-minded; white, and of Gormandizing propensities. John Rumbold is the man.

Anti-Bribery Mass Meeting.

The anti-bribery convention assembled at the court-house on Tuesday afternoon, and was called to order by Mr. Townsend. John R. Griffin was called to the chair, and C. W. Byrn was made secretary. The report of the committee was read and adopted. Col. Bryant then arose and in quite a stirring and eloquent speech further made known the true objects of the cause. He thoroughly ventilated the position of the Republican party towards his party; and attempted to blow up the Democratic party, as it were, with dynamite. Resolutions were adopted authorizing the chair to appoint a committee of nine on conference.

The following straightout ticket was put in the field: Senate, John F. Dawson; Clerk, A. T. Warren; House of Delegates, C. E. Jarrell and E. W. Williamson; County Commissioners, William J. Clark, H. M. Smith and John R. Griffin; Sheriff, Jas. G. Redden; Treasurer, C. H. Whitby.

A Reminder.

Capt. Joseph Griffith wishes to announce to the public that he has not discontinued the wheelwrighting business, but is still working at his old stand, and would be pleased to have his old customers, (and has no objection to new ones) call and see him. He is rimming wheels up to 1¼ inches, and furnish all, for $1. Spokes 10 cents each; and all other work at correspondingly low prices.

Some of the Nominees.

WHO THEY ARE—SOME OF THEIR QUALIFICATIONS, AND WHOSE POSITIONS THEY WILL HOLD AFTER THE IDES OF NOVEMBER.

ANDREW B. ROE.

ROE is a fruit-packer.—Free Press.

Yes, that's so; and he is one of the largest in the State, the reputation of whose fruit is a mark of the man.

Aught cannot be said against Andrew B. Roe; he is a man, honorable, noble and true. The brilliancy and lustre of his character and reputation have glittered and been apparent to the people of Caroline county for so many years, that no comment is necessary.

He is a self-made man; having by his inherent and unswerving resolutions climbed up the ladder to such a height as to demand the esteem, confidence and respect of the people. He was elected to the State Senate in 1882, and in the two sessions which he attended, he not only showed activity, influence and loyalty, but was a credit to his constituents. He never was on an independent ticket; never was on a potato-bug ticket, and never bolted from his party.

HE WILL BE HIS OWN SUCCESSOR.

B. GOOTEE STEVENS.

B. Gootee Stevens was born in Caroline county in 1837. He is a son of Gootee Stevens, one of Caroline's most worthy and respected citizens. He received his education in this county and at the early age of 16, took a position as clerk in a store on the site of which are his store-rooms. In 1858 he married the eldest daughter of Col. Arthur John Willis, one of the noblest women in in Maryland, and immediately embarked in the merchantile business at Potter's Landing, while he has continued to the present day. He has owned quite a number of vessels which traded principally from Potter's Landing to Baltimore. For many years he has dealt largely in grain, fertilizers, lumber, bark, &c., in addition to the general merchandise business. As a merchant, and as a shrewd and competent business man generally, he is one of the most successful. He was appointed postmaster in 1872, and has held that position for thirteen years.

For a number of years he has been tendered positions of trust and nominations for office; but has invariably declined the same, and only accepted the nomination for Clerk of the Circuit Court for Caroline county at the earnest solicitation of his party and his friends in general.

As to his private and public record, he stands before the people unimpeached; and owing to his social and business relations with mankind, he has acquired a host of friends (regardless of party affiliations) who will stand by him, uphold him, and lead him on to victory. He has always been a sanguine worker for, and devoted supporter of the noble principles of the Republican party.

His past record is more than gratifying to his many friends, and extends assurances, that, as Clerk of the Circuit Court, he will execute the duties thereof honorably and intelligently, and will be a credit to the citizens of Caroline county.

JAMES GREEN.

James Green was born in 1843 in Kent county, Del.; and though just arriving at the early age of 43, his business and social relation have been of such a character as to endear him to the people of his community. During these several years, from the time of maturity, he has ever been loyal, and gloried in the flag of this country, and in the Union of the United States.

He always has been, is now, and ever will be a strong advocate of the great Republican cause and the interests thereof; he has never swerved or faltered, and has been a staunch adherent and worker for the party.

When at the early age of 12, his father died. He then assumed the management of the farm, and remained in that pursuit of life for the period of ten years. By this time, at the age of 22, he felt the necessity of more education than he then possessed, and having been successful at cultivating the soil, he departed from his home and took a special course of study in order to better prepare him for the business walks of life. He then moved to Hazletteville, Kent county, Del., where he embarked in the merchantile business, and was appointed postmaster there. In 1872 he removed to Marydel; was immediately appointed postmaster and held that position for the period of ten years, when he resigned. During a part of this time, he conducted the merchantile business in a successful and more extended way for the space of four years. In 1876, he entered into the grain and general produce business and continues the same, having in 1882 begun the manufacture and sale of phosphate. In a business view, and in all other views, he has been successful. In 1880 he received from his party the nomination for sheriff; and in 1882, he was elected to the Maryland House of Delegates. As a legislator he rendered valuable service for the Republican party, and made himself conspicuous in standing up for that which was right. He will be elected.

CAPT. CHAS. W. WRIGHT.

Capt. Chas. W. Wright was born in 1854 in fourth election district of Caroline County; his parents are now living and he is 31 years of age. He received his education in the county and afterpursued a special course of study. He carried on a farm several years and at the age of 18, took a position on a sailing vessel intending to go to sea and get a complete and thorough knowledge of navigation. His parents, however, objected to his intended exploits and at the age of 20, he became captain of the largest vessel running from the Choptank to Baltimore, and held that position three years. At the age of 23 he accepted a position with the Maryland Steamboat Company, on the Highland Light as mate under Capt. Crosby and held that position for three years. At this time, only 26 years old, he was congratulated by his many friends on his receiving first class license as Captain of Steamboats and was at that time honored by being the youngest captain that left Baltimore. He at once took charge of the Steamer "Ruggles," afterwards took charge of the "Minnie Wheeler" and subsequently accepted the favorite boat, "Chesapeake," as the senior captain.

This young man deserves great praise for his progressive career; and his conduct as a business, careful and moral man must be a great satisfaction to his parents in their old age. He has made it a motto to shun all that has a tinge of wrong and has for a number of years been a cheerful contributor to and a zealous supporter of the M. E. Church at Preston.

During his leisure months in winter, the time has always been monopolized by a thorough intellectual course of training. His name is hailed with enthusiasm and he will be a member of the Maryland House of Delegates.

GEORGE W. ERNST.

Who is he? Where did he come from? And what is the record of his past life? When we say, he is one of the most gentlemanly and most honorable citizens who bears allegiance to the State of Maryland, is only stating a portion of that which is due him. He was born in Cooperstown, state of New York. His father, who was well known among prominent and business men of the state, died when he was at the early age of 15. At the age of 20, he hoisted his own sail, hung out his shingle, and commenced the merchantile business in a progressive and successful manner, and continued in the business until 1861. During this time he was elected to many offices. Many years he acted as a town commissioner. He was supervisor of his county, which is equivalent to Tax Commissioner of this State. In 1849 he was unexpectedly complimented by being appointed Loan Commissioner by Gov. Hamilton Fisch, and held that very responsible position successively under the Democratic, Whig and Republican administrations; 12 years in all.

In 1855 he was elected Clerk of the Circuit Court for Otsego county for the term of three years. At this election, we are credibly informed that his opponent was overwhelmingly defeated; that his well-known ability and popularity commanded for him the whole strength of the Democratic party, in addition to that of his own.

In 1862 he was appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for the 19th Congressional district by President Abraham Lincoln; which position he ably and honorably held for seven years.

At this period of life, having enjoyed many of the honors and fruits of his party; having created for himself an enviable reputation for his integrity and force of character, and feeling enthusiastic as to the interests of the Republican party, he started one of the best Republican newspapers in the State of New York. It was a political and financial success, and continues to-day the leading paper of the county.

For a long number of years he was a director of the Otsego County Bank, and was first President of the First National Bank of Cooperstown. By this time his health began to fail, and being advised by his physicians to travel South, he came to Caroline county in the Spring of 1882, and believing then as now, that the Eastern Shore must be in the near future, the garden spot of the world, he subsequently moved to our county with his interesting family; and if life and health are continued to him, he will make his real estate the model property of this county. He is a man of broad experience as a real estate owner, and a staunch advocate of the Republican party.

Locals—Personal.

Mrs. Rhoda A. Elliott on Saturday last bought the Gullett property in Federalsburg for the sum of $800 cash

Lawrence, son of Wm. C. Satterfield, Esq., has left Greensborough and taken charge of his father's farm near Baltimore.

Mr. Jos. Douglass has rented his model farm adjoining Preston, to Charles Whitby, of Greensborough. Mr. Whitby is one of the best farmers in the county.

Benjamin F. Moore, wife, and two children, of Laurel, Del., are at Mr. Wm. G. Horsey's. They arrived on Saturday evening last and will remain several days yet.

Thos. F. Johnson, Esq., who assumes the duties of postmaster at Potters Landing to-day, is not a new hand at the business. He was commissioned by "Uncle Sam" and held the position for several years prior to 1872.

Henry Parvis; aged 60 years, whilst in the employ of James Green & Bro., on Friday last, bagging phospate, received an injury from which he will not soon recover. The pile gave way, and falling on one of his lower limbs, broke the same just below the knee. Drs. Evans, of Templeville, and Thomas, of Henderson reduced the fracture

Mr. Victor L. Emerson, son of the late Robt. R. Emerson, of this town, was married on Thursday of last week to Miss Annetta E. Kramer, daughter of J. C. Kramer, Esq., of Carlisle, Pa. The bride is noted for her beauty and looked surprisingly lovely on the evening of the ceremony. They were the recipients of many handsome presents. The bride and groom, with a company of friends are off on an extended tour and will reach Denton the last of this or the first of next week.

Gout has various names, according to the parts affected; as podagra, when in the feet; chiragra, when in the hands, &c.; but whether the attack is first felt in the feet or the hands, rub with Salvation Oil at once. It annihilates pain. Price 25 cents.

Peninsular Items.

—A large hotel is to be constructed at Clayton.

—A large crop of trout fish is reported to be in Chester river, above Chestertown.

—The registration of Kent county, Md., netted an increase of twenty-five voters.

—A swarm of bees has taken possession of Wesley's Chapel in Cecil county.

—Hugh Jackson and wife, of Salisbury, will celebrate their golden wedding to-day.

—John H. Adams has become president of the Delaware State Temperance Alliance.

—Through the failure of O. W. Miller & Co., of Baltimore, Joseph H. Johnson, of Cambridge, loses $2,000.

—The annual registration in Queen Anne's county made a decrease in the the number of voters by seventy-six.

—A. F. Wilds, cashier of Fruit Growers' Bank, at Smyrna, Del., is to be married on Oct. 15th to Miss Sallie Hall.

—Although Jumbo is dead the people of Dover will see him in October, says the Delawarean, stuffed with sawdust.

—Judge Robinson's coachman, a one-armed man, was recently thrown from his carriage and had his shoulder blade broken.

—Wm. McKenney, of Centreville, has purchased of Col. R. M. Dennison, of Baltimore, the farm known as "My Lord's Gift," for $26,560.

—The jury at Elkton on Friday awarded $3,000 damages to Mrs. Ringland, an elderly lady, who had brought suit against the P. W. & B. railroad for being pulled off a car with violence by a brakeman.

—An ejectment suit will be tried at the present term of the court in Sussex, to cover a large portion of the property upon which the town of Bridgeville is located. The suit is brought by the heirs of a man named Hitch; $100,000 worth of property is involved.

—A valuable pet grey-hound belonging to Dr. Raines, Felton, Del., was so severely bitten by two bull-dogs that it suffered the loss of sight in one of its eyes. The doctor treated the greyhound by static electricity for the restoration of his sight. The pet enjoyed the novel method and his sight is now as good as ever.

—W. Scott Way, after describing his Sussex trip, speaks of Bro. Hynson, who accompanied him, in the following terms: "Mr. Hynson owns and edits one of the best local papers in the United States; runs a fruit dryer; is proprietor of a big grain-mill, and is raising a setter dog. Any man who can do all that at once, and keep fat and good-natured, and have time to visit watermelon farms with a reformed editor, is no slouch."

Business Locals.

Popular trial shows the worth of every article, and 43 years constant use has proven the great efficacy of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup; it has no superior.

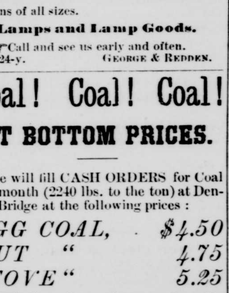

Some fashionable ladies are not satisfied with ready-made fans, but must have them made to order; they are, however, satisfied with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup at 25 cents and take it regularly.

"One fire burns out another's burning," and most pain suffers more to be cured, but Salvation Oil is painless and certain. It costs only 25 cents.

Deaths.

HEMMONS.—In Denton, on Wednesday, 23d inst., CORA, infant daughter of John R. and Mary R. Hemmons, aged about 2 weeks.

Rest loved one, sweetly rest,
Leaning on your Saviour's breast;
Surely thou to us was dear,
Tho' we would not keep you here;
For no pain can never come
To that bright and happy home.
