[ELECTION—TUESDAY, NOV. 3RD.]

"THE Democratic party never had any principle!"—Reflex. And it never will have any.—Selah.

THE Mugwumps and the Democrats have made a split and Cleveland don't know which to follow.

OH, thou Genesta! Thou that sweepest the seas. Farewell. Thou leavest us the Cup and part of thy crew.

MRS. VERONICA BULLA, whose fast is remarkable, is dead. She abstained from eating food of any kind for fifty-nine days.

TWO of Bingham Young's sons have died drunkards, two of his daughters have married the same husband, and another son writes "poultry."

A CHAIR of matrimony is talked of at Vassar colledge. Of course it will be a big rocking chair, strong enough to hold two.—Norristown Herald.

WHAT are the most favorable electioneering weapons of the Democratic party? Answer: Deceit, lying, cupidity, "Westheimer" and Kelley.

"A DUDE is one of them fellows that ain't got sense enough to be a durn fool." Query. What would you call Kelley, Warren, and the other bolters?

THE former chairman of the Anti-bribery committee hath foreseen the evil and hid himself. Where did he hide? In Democracy, of course. He is now Anti-anti-bribery.

BENJAMIN F. BUTLER now proclaims that his deafness was caused by cannon fired in the defense of his country. Perhaps "Benny" would like to be on the pension list.

AN Ohio Court has decided that a man is the owner of his wife's clothes. If his wife's new bonnet at any time does not please her, he can wear it himself. This is a very important dicision.

IN the Circuit Court at Independence, Missuri, on Saturday, Miss Edith Vernon was awarded $15,000 in a suit for breach of promise against David Hughes, of Kansas City. She sued for $25,000.

THERE is a Trappe in Kent and another in Somerset.—Talbot Times. We have two traps in Caroline; one was founded by Reflex, the other by Kelley, with assistance from the democratic party.

IN 1760 liars were punished by having a hole bored through their tongues. This law has been repealed and doesn't effect Caroline, and it is lucky for a few with whom we have some slight acquaintance.

THE long business stagnation seems now to be somewhat overcome, and everything appears to be recovering its lost vitality. The people will hail with joy the apparent revival of business. "The good time coming" is almost here.

WE have just received the first issue of the Talbot Times, Rev. B. S. Highly editor and proprietor. It has quite a neat appearance, contains excellent reading matter and we wish our brother success. Its political inclinations are not kuown to us.

ON Thursday evening, Judge Foraker and Gov. Hoadly, the two rival candidates for Governor, met in public debate at Toleado; and it is generally admitted by all fair and dispassionate men that Hoadly was knocked out of the ring on the first round.

WE hear gentle whisperings about that some of the "Aunty Brier-berry" nominees have been pierced by the thorns and are coming out of the field. Their place will have to be filled; therefore, ye who sacrifice your party interests, ye shameful "bolters," "Potato-Bugs" and "Mugwumps" send in your applications.

THE senior class in Yale Law School includes one young lady. She is discribed as handsome, of "dignified appearance" and is the pioneer of her sex. We commend her course to females generly; for in the trial of a case, one of them would be excellent associate counsel.

Anti-Bribery.

THE TICKET AND ITS NOMINEES—WHAT INDUCED THEM TO SUCH ACTION—WHERE THEY WILL END.

That the Caroline anti-bribery ticket is composed of some good men, is not doubted; but while they are good men, what has induced the majority of them to enter into such a movement? Is it simply because a shallow, moral conviction or vivid amagination of office induces them to such a course of proceedings? Is it because they wish to pursue a religious crusade and redeem Caroline's lost manhood? No! most emphatically; and they know it's not. When we say, that the majority on that ticket are men who were sat down upon and disappointed in getting nominations on the Republican and the Democratic tickets, we know whereof we speak. That ticket is largely composed of sore Republicans and Democrats, who will in the future be known as "mugwumps," "bolters," &c.

They have had the wool pulled over their eyes, and are led along by the vain assurance of a possible election.

They have gone on the ticket! Who put them there? "Reflex." They have signed an address, published in another column. Who wrote it? "Reflex." They are lead as sheep before their shearers. Who leads them? "Reflex."

We don't blame Democrats for entering upon such a plattorm. We give them credit for severing their connection with a party of brazen frauds and corruption; the party that instituted bribery and fed its flames with its saturated legislative enactments. We give them credit for spurning and turning their backs upon a party that not only endeavored to ruin the manhood of Maryland, but tried to overthrow the government and dissolve the Union of our land.

But we do blame any Republican to pursue such a course as those have done who are on the anti-bribery ticket.

Why did they leave us and enter upon a one-board platform? Why do they enter into that which they know to be an impossibility? An humble and penitent echo answers why. They said unto the Republicans, "give unto us that portion which belongs to us."

They have crawled up the Republican side of the fence; got on top and jumped afar off into a strange country, where they will waste their substance in riotous living, and after the election this fall, will come back like the Prodigal Son and want rings put on their fingers.

When they left the Republican party, they ignored the grandest platform that ever guided human government; they ignored the party that sustained the Union, brought about emancipation, and made all men equal under the law. They have turned their backs upon the grandest and noblest party of the universe, whose record for the last twenty-five years shows that they have not only administered wisely and economically; but that they have made this country the paradise of the world; the land where all nations are to-day flocking for liberty, freedom, equality and honest government.

Anti-Bribery—Fourth Ticket.

In this county their Moses has arisen. Mr. Wm. T. Kelly, of the Fourth District, a Friend and one of the first Abolitionists in this county, will lead them on to political as well as personal freedom.—Caroline Democrat.

And like Moses of old, he will lead them out to Shittim and then abandon them; and like a "crank" of the present day, he will either slaughter somebody else or bury himself. The hand-bills would indicate that the colored people of the county are all in league with one W. T. Kelly, of the fourth district; but that is a false inference. The colored people generally denounce the thing as a sham gotten up by democratic tricksters. The colored people never were more contented, and united in their efforts to elect the party that made them men—ay, free men; to vote for the party that gave them the right to vote, and to show their utter repudiation for that party which not only favored and advocated their slavery, but also endeavored to break up the GOVERNMENT and UNION of the land. The Moses of the fourth district has become discouraged, and is afflicted in his old age with the same disease as some anti-bribery men are. He wanted a nomination; but, not getting it, bolted. Warren wanted, and worked quietly for the treasurer's office; but not getting the nomination, became a "mugwump" on the anti-bribery ticket, and others have followed. When all these men come back as penitents, as they will, they ought to receive the condemnation and repudiation of their party.

MARRIED men would do well to discourage the present move to further educate women in finance. The average woman knows so much about money now, that it it's impossible for a man who gets $20 a week to convince his wife when he only brings home $15, that the other $5 has disappeared through what financiers call the contraction of currency.

A young girl was caught kissing her sweetheart a few nights ago. Her mother took her to task for such actions, but the girl silenced her by this quotation; "Whatsoever ye would that man should do unto you, do even so unto them." The old lady wilted. Memories of old were brought forcibly to mind.

A PENNSYLVANIA jury, in the case of Miss Kentner vs. Lewis Zaner, has brought in a verdict for plantiff for $10,000, for breach of promise. The Plantiff is a handsome young lady of twenty-three summers; while the Defendant has seen seventy.

—At a negro wedding in Chrisfield, when the minister read the words "love, honor and obey," the groom interrupted him and said: "Read dat agin, sah; read it once mo, so's de lady kin ketch de full solemnity ob de meaning. I'se been married befo'."

J. C. Parran, Green Spring, W. Va., says he has been using Powell's Prepared Chemicals and other fertilizers manufactured by the Brown Chemical Co., for several years, and is sure they are all that is claimed for them. Would recommend them to all who want reliable fertilizers. Powell's Prepared Chemicals cost only $6.00 per bbl, a sufficient quantity to make one-half a ton of complete fertilizer. Brown Chemical Co., manufacturers, Baltimore, Md.

WHAT'S the USE!

What's the use of croaking about "hard times" and scarcity of money? Money is as plentiful as ever, and it only needs some incentive to cause its circulation.

Like the blood, if allowed to congeal, it must necessarily cease to circulate. Business has been allowed to congeal on account of general inactivity; and the country feels the depression the same as the human system.

All that is needed, is a remedy to promote the circulation of the life sustaining fluid, which is alike applicable to the business as well as human life; and returning health will soon manifest itself and the patient grow strong and vigorous. What's the use of palid cheek? Aching head, and dishevelled hair, pondering over pages of disaster produced by the imaginations of a mind ill at ease; it is simply "bosh" and of no effect, and should not be entertained and fostered by any business man, in the country; but while the remedy is at hand, it should always be applied and that speedily, ere the disease assumes malignant form. We have used the remedy, and can speak knowingly of its great efficacy; and we now use it as a preventive to future attack, and whenever we experience a feeling of business despondency, we immediately resort to the great remedy "Push" and at once banish its evil effects, by placing before the public Calicoes at 3, Ginghams 5c, Flannels 12½ c, Ladies Jersey's 50, and a beautiful line of ladies Dress Goods from 12½c to $3.00 per yd; Embracing all the latest novelties to the present date.

New and beautiful designs in Dress Trimming, "Feather Trimming" and "Moss Trimming" also the different shades in Worsted Laces.

Carpets, a splendid article for 25c per yd., better grades 40, 50, 75, 85, $1.00 beautiful patterns in Brussels 75c.

Ladies wraps of every fabric perfectly astounding in prices.

Ready-made Clothing for Men, Boys Youths, 25 per cent less than ever offered before in this market.

What's the use "of grumbling about hardtimes" when our house is always crowded with customers, purchasing goods at the above low figures.

We have inaugurated better times within the scope of our business, and we do not intend to harbor for a moment, an idea as dull times. Come see us, and be convinced. Public's obedient servant.

AUTUMN!

We are admonished of the approach of this season by the appearance of all Nature. The beautiful groves which a few months ago were adorned with a lovely foliage of green, now have assumed a different garb, and present an aspect pleasant to behold, but full of warning. Mother earth with carpet of velvet, shows a care-worn appearance, and is slowly laying aside her summer covering, preparing for the chilly blasts of winter. Man is also admonished by the approach of winter to prepare himself to combat with the icy monster and must necessarily lay off his summer apparel, and cover himself with clothing necessary to preserve the required warmth of body and while doing this he is also admonished that Charles H. Leonard, two doors south of Dover Street, Easton, Md., has all the requisites for the comfort of man in this particular, and would most respectfully invite the citizens of Caroline when visiting Easton to call and see him. Clothing in all its branches and prices guaranteed to suit in every particular.
