In the name of God amen, I Francis Cromwell

of Anne Arundel County in the State of Maryland being sick and weak in body but of sound and disposing mind memory and understanding considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs do therefore make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say

First and principally, I commit my soul into the hands of Almighty God, and my body to the earth to be decently buried at the direction of my Executor hereinafter named

Item I give and devise unto John Cromwell my eldest son part of a tract of Land called called Cromwell inheritance, the plantation whereon he now lives containing two hundred and seventy four acres, more or less to him the said John Cromwell and his heirs and assigns part of a tract of land called Halls amendment, all that tract of land called Halls purchase, I likewise give and devise to my son John Cromwell and his heirs and assigns forever, the above named tracts and parcels of Land — I likewise give and devise to my said son John Cromwell one hundred and sixty acres of Land, part of a tract of Land called millford and part of a tract of land called Tylers lott, to be laid off on the north End of said tracts of Land to him the said John Cromwell and his heirs and assigns forever. It is my will, that my said son John Cromwell shall pay into the hands of my executor thirty Dollars a year for five years towards paying my debts: it is also my will that my said son John Cromwell shall pay to my daughter Mary Cromwell thirty Dollars a year for five years to help to educate her.

Item I give and devise to my son Zachariah Cromwell part of a tract of land called Sallors Choice, part of a tract of land called aldredges beginning at a
