☞The Orphan's Court for Caroline county, will meet Tuesday, Nov. 10th.

·····"Yes," he said, "before marriage I thought that I could live on love. I am now living on my father-in-law."

·····Youth, and hope, and love—how these seem to accord one with the other! As well imagine a spring time without flowers as these sweet gifts of the gods apart.

·····The extra meetings, which are going on at Thawley's under the charge of Rev. Mr. Lucas, are being crowned with success.

·····A horse belonging to Franklin Stevens, near Andersontown, was very badly cut by a barbed wire fence, on Monday last.

.....The Orphans Court and County Commissioners were in session on Tuesday last. No business of great importance was transacted.

·····A little boy on the street the other day, when asked who was his warmest friend, said: "My mother, she warms me every day."

·····Mr. T. L. Chaffinch left at our office yesterday a sample of his growing wheat. It was seeded September 23d and is 18 inches in length.

·····It is said that it requires more food to keep a dog in order than a child eight years old. And yet the poorer a man is the more dogs he has.

·····"A man overboard will grab at a straw." That is an exact representation of the present Caroline Democracy. It will grab, but must go under.

·····A great many stoves have been put up last week and this week; Messrs. Evitts & Holbrook are doing the work and can please you in any style.

·····The devil wants no better agent than the man who will join those who attempt to break up the party that advocates and mantains his priciples.

·····Mr. W. E. Saulsbury's new residence, which is nearing completion, at Ridgely, will be one of the finest in the county. Messrs. Fluharty & Todd are the builders.

·····"I was never exactly buried alive," said an old clerk, "but I once worked in a store that didn't advertise." All that could have been prevented by a column in the Union.

·····Miss Minnie Jones, of New York city, Miss Lizzie Willis, of Milford, and Mr. John Townsend, of Frederica, spent a few days in town, visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Vangesel, this week.

·····An Iowa Judge has decided that a man is in duty bound to tell his wife where he spends his evenings when he's away from home.—Ex. We fellows "what ain't got no wives" can do as we please.

·····Mr. Wm. Tuff, who, for the last nine years, has been miller and manager of the Brick mills, near this place, will on January 1st next, assume the control and management of Linchester mill. And it gives us pleasure to state that Mr. Tuff is a thoroughly competent miller, an accommodating gentleman, and a desirable citizen.

·····Good manners are not learned from arbitrary teaching so much as acquired from habit. They grow upon us by use. We must be courteous, civil, agreeable, kind, gentlemanly and womanly at home, and then it will soon become a kind of second nature to be so everywhere.

·····Commercial and other travellers visiting Baltimore, would do well to give the "Maltby House" a trial, it is situated in the business centre of the city, convenient to the places of amusement, churches and R. R. Depots, and its omnibuses meet all trains arriving at, and departing from the city.

·····Rev. A. Smith hit on a novel plan to impress his people with the awfulness and reality of church debts last Sunday. He had tabulated a complete list of the church debts and handed a printed copy to each member of the congregation; informing his hearers that an empty treasury was all they had on the credit side. The plan must be successful as it at once answers all questions on the subject and leaves the people nothing to do but shell out.—Greensboro Free Press

Democratic Mass Meeting.

At an early hour on Tuesday morning people from almost everywhere began to flood our streets and sidewalks. Large delegations were present from "Sockum" and "Marshy-hope;" while last, but not least, appeared a mounted representation from the Delaware apple-jack regions bringing up the rear. When we consider the size of this small state of Delaware, it is surprising at the innumerable number who annually visit King Philip's Caroline oyster feast.

The procession was quite lengthy; and, taking out the foreign element, procured for the occasion, there remained a large crowd of boys and a few quasi Democrats. And after marching around the city seven times and finding that the walls would not fall, they all repaired to the bar'l and the oyster pile and proceeded shortly thereafter to "paint things red." By this time, many leading Republicans throughout the county had essembled in town; and while they were exulting in their assured and conceded victory, rejoicing over the apparent Democratic downfall, and in reality, "climbing up the golden stairs," the Greensborough band seemed to catch the Republican inspiration and furnished excellent music to the words. After a few Democratic free fights and order temporarily restored, Dr. E. George stepped upon the prepared platform and called the meeting to order. Dr. Alex. Hardcastle was made chairman, and he immediately introduced Hon. Chas. H. Gibson, of Easton. Mr. Gibson did not do himself justice, but, considering the weak and worn-out subject for a text, he did well. He took occasion to take off the heads of and denounce Gen. Bradley T. Johnson and Hon. John F. Dawson. This course fell heavy upon Caroline Democrats for the reputation of these honorable gentlemen is above reproach, and when the distinguished orator reached that point, he cut the throat of the Democracy of Caroline county. Many Democrats then left the meeting declaring to vote the whole Republican ticket. His assertion that "the worst Democratic ticket was better than the best Republican ticket" brought upon him some ridicule when his audience contrasted the Democratic nominees with those on the Republican ticket. The band then furnished some music, after which other speeches were made. Among those who spoke are Col. Wetherell, of Oxford, M. S. Mutchler, Urie Townsend and H. R. Lewis.

D. F. Lockerby's Lecture

On Saturday evening last, such an opportunity was offered to drink in waves of true eloquence as was perhaps never often tendered to our citizens. To say that Mr. Lockerby's lecture sparkles and dazzles with true logic and eloquence is only a drop in the great ocean of praise which deserves to be lavished upon it. Below we give a portion of one of the many far-reaching and telling points, on the arsenal of theology.

"Let your base line be the diameter of the earth's orbit and project your triangle to the sun, you have but entered its outer approach. Travel on until you have reached the nearest fixed star, and you are still in its outer vestibule, infinitely remote from its centre and have seen but a fragment of the arsenal of natural theology. It is co-extensive with infinite space! It includes every blade of grass, and every orb that burns in the immensity of space. The nebulæ are its highways and the galaxies its outposts. The suns are its sentinels and the stars the dust that tells of its outcomings and ingoings.

Every satellite, every asteroid and every blazing sun is but a factor of the whole; and the combined universe is simply one vast domain in the arsenal of theology. Yet Ingersol says: 'It has but one weapon!' He lies!!—under a great mistake. According to Ingersol, every sunbeam is a lie; the twinkling of the stars, falsehoods; every dewdrop and every blooming flower repeat it. Is it true?"

Another Democratic Trick.

MR. EDITOR:—Can you tell us what has become of the registration books of the First Election District? The law requires these books to be returned to the Clerk within ten days after the October sitting, with the poll book for the use of Judges. I learn that the sheriff demanded the books on the third Wednesday of October and received all except the First District and that he called for it on Monday last, but it had not come in. Why is it kept back? Is there to be any fixing? Mr. Golly is an honest man and I do not believe he has any hand in this work. What is up? Can you tell?

REPUBLICAN.

October 28th, 1885.

Oakland Democratic Meeting.

MR. EDITOR:—The meeting at Oakland one evening last week was a disgraceful affair. The meeting was composed of two speakers, H. S. Mancha and Dr. Herr, a few Democrats, two fiddlers and six gallons of "rot-gut" whisky. The speakers soon left in disgust. And then the meeting began with full steam power; they took possession of the preacher's stand, "painted it red," and aroused the neighborhood by their howlings. This is Caroline Democracy.

Oct. 27, '85. A NEIGHBOR.

Democratic Bribery.

MR. EDITOR:—I am told the Democrats of the Anti-bribery party are pledged to vote for Gadd, and that he can get all the money he wants, and will bid five dollars higher for votes than any other man. The bad influence and growing evil of whisky and bribery to secure his nomination has caused anti-bribery men to blush with shame.

He that sells his vote, betrays the greatest political trust that was ever placed by Almighty God in human hands; is false to himself, false to his God, an enemy to his race, and a traitor to his country; and thereby acts more like a knave and a fool than a wise and honest man; with a tricksters head and a demons heart; with a hand for every man's hand and a heart for no one but himself; derelict of duty and recreant to his trust.

Is not Hades paved with the good intentions of better men? His satanic majesty will not allow his arch fiends to sit in the council chamber of Pandemonium with Maryland bribery-workers; as good men as ever cut a throat or scuttled a ship.

Bribery above all things is the most demoralizing and degrading; conceived in sin and born in iniquity; a sin against God and a crime against man; the kidnapper of souls and the recruiting officer of hell.

A VOTER.

October 27th, 1885.

To the Public—Resignations.

Whereas, my name has appeared on what is known as the fourth ticket as a candidate for the suffrages of my fellow citizens; this is therefore to beg leave to decline the honor of serving, and respectfully place my resignation hereby and herewith before the public for the following reasons:

1st, I was not in favor of the call of a convention to make a fourth ticket on the 20th inst.

2d, No such convention was organized in Denton on that day.

3d, The ticket published as the fourth ticket, made out by a party, or parties unknown, and unauthorized, is not one in accordance with the published "notice or call for a convention to meet" as that was for "a straightout Republican ticket," and yet two of its nominees are well-known to the public as unswerving Democrats.

4th, There is not in my judgment any good purpose which the ticket can serve for the Republican party, and any votes cast for said ticket will but help elect the Democratic ticket for Caroline county.

PETER J. M. WEBB,
J. R. WEBB,
F. FRIEND,
JAMES WEBB,
ISRAEL COLLINS.

Republicans, Beware!

MR. EDITOR:—It is currently reported that the Democrats have fixed on the majority which they are to give their ticket on Tuesday next, and that this majority is to be secured by bringing a crowd of roughs from Delaware to bulldoze our people and vote on other peoples names. Some have gone so far as to say that they will smash the ballot boxes at Federalsburg and in the fourth district. This is the game of 1877 repeated except that the ruffians are to come from Delaware instead of Baltimore. Have our people forgotten 1877 and that band of scoundrels and who they inquired for when they landed in Denton? If they have not, every Republican and every honest Democrat in the county will be at his polling place ready and determined to see fair play and to drive any invaders from the field. People of Caroline you are warned in time. See that this election is fairly conducted.

ALERT.

October 24th, 1885.

He Declines.

MR. EDITOR:—By the merest accident, and to my surprise, I learned a short time since that the anti-bribery convention had named, or appointed me as one of an executive committee for the 5th district. I desire to publicly withdraw my name from that connection. For some of the candidates on that ticket, whom I have the honor to know, I entertain feelings of the highest regard, especially for that christian gentleman, John F. Dawson, Esq., but for reasons which I deem ample and satisfactory to myself, I shall not support the anti-bribery ticket.

W. J. DAVIS.

WHAT'S the USE!
What's the use of croaking about "hard times" and scarcity of money? Money is as plentiful as ever, and it only needs some incentive to cause its circulation.
Like the blood, if allowed to congeal, it must necessarily cease to circulate. Business has been allowed to congeal on account of general inactivity; and the country feels the depression the same as the human system.
All that is needed, is a remedy to promote the circulation of the life sustaining fluid, which is alike applicable to the business as well as human life; and returning health will soon manifest itself and the patient grow strong and vigorous. What's the use of palid cheek? Aching head, and dishevelled hair, pondering over pages of disaster produced by the imaginations of a mind ill at ease; it is simply "bosh" and of no effect, and should not be entertained and fostered by any business man, in the country; but while the remedy is at hand, it should always be applied and that speedily, ere the disease assumes malignant form. We have used the remedy, and can speak knowingly of its great efficacy; and we now use it as a preventive to future attack, and whenever we experience a feeling of business despondency, we immediately resort to the great remedy "Push" and at once banish its evil effects, by placing before the public Calicoes at 3, Ginghams 5c, Flannels 12½ c, Ladies Jersey's 50, and a beautiful line of ladies Dress Goods from 12½c to $3.00 per yd; Embracing all the latest novelties to the present date.
New and beautiful designs in Dress Trimming, "Feather Trimming" and "Moss Trimming" also the different shades in Worsted Laces.
Carpets, a splendid article for 25c per yd., better grades 40, 50, 75, 85, $1.00 beautiful patterns in Brussels 75c.
Ladies wraps of every fabric perfectly astounding in prices.
Ready-made Clothing for Men, Boys Youths, 25 per cent less than ever offered before in this market.
What's the use "of grumbling about hardtimes" when our house is always crowded with customers, purchasing goods at the above low figures.
We have inaugurated better times within the scope of our business, and we do not intend to harbor for a moment, an idea as dull times. Come see us, and be convinced. Public's obedient servant.

AUTUMN!
We are admonished of the approach of this season by the appearance of all Nature. The beautiful groves which a few months ago were adorned with a lovely foliage of green, now have assumed a different garb, and present an aspect pleasant to behold, but full of warning. Mother earth with carpet of velvet, shows a care-worn appearance, and is slowly laying aside her summer covering, preparing for the chilly blasts of winter. Man is also admonished by the approach of winter to prepare himself to combat with the icy monster and must necessarily lay off his summer apparel, and cover himself with clothing necessary to preserve the required warmth of body and while doing this he is also admonished that Charles H. Leonard, two doors south of Dover Street, Easton, Md., has all the requisites for the comfort of man in this particular, and would most respectfully invite the citizens of Caroline when visiting Easton to call and see him. Clothing in all its branches and prices guaranteed to suit in every particular.
