JAMES N. TODD, Editor.

DENTON, MARYLAND.

OPENING NOV. 12 1885

IT is again announced that El Mahdi is dead.

IT costs $75,000 per annum to keep the Zoological Garden in Philadelphia.

EVANGELIST MOODY is at Reading, Pa., preaching to large congregrations of sinners in the Metropolitan Rink.

SAMUEL J. TILDEN, JR., nephew of "Sammy," has been appointed collector of internal revenue for the 15th district of New York.

ANTI-BRIBERY and Kellyism, where where are you, eh? "The evil that men do lives after them, the good is oft interred with their bones."

THE Democratic Senators and Representatives to President Cleveland—"Are thy servants dogs that ye keep us out in the back yard?"—Tribune.

"THE paths of glory lead but to the grave." This may be of some satisfaction to disappointed candidates, but they look very grave all the same.

THE Washington Sunday Gazette says "spoilsmen and their 'advocates' will meet with a cold reception at the White House hereafter." That's rough on rats.

MRS. Morisini-Schelling-Hullscamp will appear on the lyric stage in New York as one of the six slaves sold to a wicked commissionaire in "Amorita," a new opera.

SECRETARY of the Navy Whitney and John Roach's assignees have come to an agreement in respect to the Dolphin; the Secretary accepts the vessel at its naval value.

A SOCIETY BELLE of Washington would be tined by the fashion if her handkerchief be saturated with perfume. The perfume must be concealed about her person in satchels &c.

MISS FRANCES E. WILLARD, of Illinois, has been re-elected president of the Woman's National Christian Temperance Union. Long may she live; and may the organization spread throughout America.

A YOUNG clerk named Edward S. Bain, employed in the National Metropolitan Bank, Washington, had $20,000 of the bank's money stolen from his pocket on the street a few days ago, and the money has not been recovered.

THE gossips say that the President will, in his annual message to Congress, have something favorable to say for the proposed sixteenth or woman suffrage amendment to the constitution. The President is a bachelor and this may be only a joke at his expense.

MR. JAMES G. BLAINE'S magnificent Washington mansion is let on a long lease at $11,000 a year, and probably the Blaine family will remain in Augusta all winter, and it is now postively announced that the second and last volumn of the book will be finished in time for the holidays.

THE grand jury of Philadelphia last week recommended that the whipping post be restored as a punishment for wife-beaters. That is sensible. Maryland's experience with this institution has met with universal favor. Any man who will thus deprave himself and be oblivious to his marriage vows, and to the purity and sacredness of his bosom companion, would receive a mitigated punishment by being bruised with many stripes.

KENT and Caroline counties elect the whole Democratic ticket.—Harrington Enterprise. If our Bro's. ignorance of Delaware politics is as illimitable as is his ignorance of Caroline politice, may providence protect him from incroachments of the people. For the edification of Editor Horney, the Republicans in Caroline elected the Sheriff of the county, the Treasurer of the county, one member of the House of Delegates and one of the members received a tie vote. We would suggest to our brother that he do not sail out very far; small sloops are safer along the shore.

THE President has appointed James A. Bayard, a son of the Secretary of of State, to be Secretary of the Territory of Arizona. This is the same young man to whose lowly pursuits as a country school teacher our neighbor, The Sun, recently invited attention, holding him up as shining a fact that nepotism has no home in democracy. Secretary Lamar has made his son his private secretary at a substantial salaery from the public treasury. Brother-in-law Bacon revels in official luxury, and from top to bottom the Democratic office-holder, having made himself solid, is casting about for soft berths for his hangers-on.—Tribune.

THE editor of the Journal thinks the registration books contain over 3,500 names. It is well, perhaps, that he is very frequently accustomed to extravagant erronious thinking; for, if not, then the registration books lie. Last week we stated that 3,114 votes were cast, and the Journal asks the question if it is a crime for that many men to have voted. For the edification of its editor, (who is a little "wise in his own conceit," and who will in a few years, find that the appellation the scripture gives to creatures of such persuasion is very applicable to him) we say: Yes, it is a crime, and if all the signs don't fail, it's a Democratic crime. It is a serious, deplorable and dirty crime and the offenders should be apprehended. Gross frauds were perpetrated in the first and second districts, and they have been brought to light, in addition to that committed in the sixth district.

H. H. Flick, Esq., Mayfield Farm, Lavansville, Pa., says since 1880 he has used Powell's Prepared Chemicals for corn, wheat and buckwheat. Always gets from five to seven bushels more of wheat, the same proportion of corn, and double the quantity of buckwheat, than when he used no fertilizer. We think this pays well when Powell's Prepared Chemicals cost only $6 per bbl., a sufficient quantity to make one-half ton of complete fertilizer. Address Brown Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md.

Election Frauds.

DEMOCRATIC CRAFT AND PUDDING TICKETS—DEAD MEN ARE VOTED—GREAT FRAUDS.

The returns from the sixth district discloses the fact that there are 18 ballots more in the box than there were names entered on the poll-book as having voted.

The judges of election did not notice this fraud, and the ballots were counted and certified to by them.

The Republicans finding that the vote this year throughout the county was over 300 in excess of the usual vote, immediately began to make investigation, and already have discovered the successful attempt at fraud in the sixth district. Who committed the fraud? At whose door does it lay? We believe that it was done in the interest of the Democratic candidates.

In the first place the Democratic majority in that district is much more than was expected by the honest men of both parties, and much beyond the usual majority.

Again, upon an examination of the ballots, it is found that there is a variety of Democratic tickets well adapted in size, shape and weight for the purpose; one class is in size, smaller than the other, on thin paper, in very fine type and well suited for use in making "pudding" tickets. These small tickets could have been so folded within the other tickets, and readily concealed from the judges of election, that they would separate when dropped in the box. This alone is a great fraud practiced upon the rights granted to the people and should receive careful and serious investigation. It is an effort to introduce into this county the corruption, fraudulent practice and ballot-box stuffing which has prevailed to so large an extent in Baltimore, and which for many years has held the city and state under fraudulent Democratic sway. Let all persons in both parties join hands in denouncing the great fraud upon the rights of the people.

Our people will long remember that eight years ago some 8 or 10 roughs were sent to Denton from Baltimore on the eve of election for the purpose of controlling the same by the intimidation of voters. Fortunately, their object was discovered; when the Republicans and Independent Democrats organized to resist it and were so active and determined, that the rowdies were kept in subjection and routed from the land. These frauds are sapping the life from the very foundation of our government, and the people should arise in their righteous indignation, apprehend the offenders, and make them everlasting examples to the citizens of this county. And as a precedent and future warning, the whole vote of the sixth district should be thrown out and ignored. In this district the names of men are on the poll-book, some of whom are dead, unknown, and in no wise entitled to electoral franchise; but the artifice of Democracy never fails to produce a man to vote under the several names. All these various crimes and practices can and must be suppressed; until then, the sacredness, strength and purpose of electoral franchise is destroyed; our institutions are mockeries, and we are virtually governed by craft and stratagem. In the name of peace, justice, humanity, and all that is pure and holy, let the manhood of the county arise and be instrumental in elevating that which is right and stamping under foot that which infests the purity of Caroline county.

WHERE IS THE FRAUD? and Brother Todd might have repeated the question. We will propound it him. Where is the fraud? We can forgive him much because of his inexperience. But what of the people he innocently, perhaps, stigmatizes by the insinuation that they stuffed ballot-boxes or connived at it? Take it in better part, my friend, you are not hurt as badly as you thought you were, &c.—Caroline Democrat.

Yes, where is the fraud? We not only repeat it, but we have found it and it smells like a Democrat. Eighteen tickets were fraudulently put into the ballot-box in Hillsborough district and experience is no qualification in beholding this and other magnanimous frauds perpetrated upon the people. Perhaps the trouble with Bro. Steele is, that his long experience in political fraud has rendered him so accustomed to it that it now makes no impression upon him. He has our thanks for his kind meditation over our inexperience. Experience is elevating to some, while it is a stand-still arrangement with others. Kind Heaven protect us from such an experience.

Editor of the Pall Mall Gazette.

Mr. Stead, the editor of the Pall Mall Gazette, has bravely stood up under the trial and has to submit to a conviction. A verdict of "guilty" seemed inevitable under the ruling of the Court.

English society regards him as the defender of female virtue and the rebuker of vices, but it would appear that the jury was under other impressions. His admission on the witness stand, that he lied when he said in his paper that he could personally vouch for the truth of its most sensational stories of iniquity, deprived him of his last claim to sympathy.

One result of the trial which may be gratifying to some, is the discrediting of the Salvation Army, whose leaders have been exposed as having taken part in an infamous conspiracy.

He tried his own case and was crowned with the ancient dogma: "The lawyer who tries his own case has a fool for a client." He gets three months without hard labor.

THE Republican sloop that started on its trip up Salt River about dusk last Tuesday, was only about half manned, and nearly all on board were captains or high officers. It is not the fault of the Democrats that she had not a full crew, also.—Caroline Democrat.

That a sloop started up Salt River on November 3d is not doubted in our mind, but we have some doubt as to the ownership. Four years ago, she was owned exclusively by Democrats; two years ago, the Democrats took some stock in her; and now she is owned by a joint stock company, which is composed of six Republicans and four Democrats. Sail on, b'hoys; when you get there you'll find "Moses" (Kelly) and the "Bolters," who went up in the first boat. "Oh! how good and how pleasant it is for men to dwell together in unity."

The Elections.

NEW YORK.

In New York the Democratic state ticket is elected by a plurality of 10,000 to 11,000. In the legislature the Republican majority on joint ballot is 36.

NEW JERSEY.

In New Jersey the result is an agreeable surprise to Republicans, there being in the legislature a Republican majority of 9 on joint ballot.

VIRGINIA.

Gen. Lee's majority is about 30,000, and the legislature is Democratic. Mahone attributes his defeat to fraud and intimidation.

MARYLAND.

The Democrats swept Maryland by a majority of about 30,000. In the legislature there is a majority of 99 on joint ballot.

MASSACHUSETTS.

The Republicans carried the state by about 25,000 plurality.

CONNECTICUT.

The Connecticut legislature is Republican by 12 majority on joint ballot.

IOWA.

The Republican state ticket is carried by from 12,000 to 13,000; the legislature is largely Republican.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The sweeping Republican victory in Pennsylvania is received with rejoicing.

NEBRASKA.

The Republican state ticket is elected by over 20,000 majority.

MICHIGAN.

The chairman of the Republican committee conceded a majority in the legislature for the Democrats. The upper house stands 9 dem. to 2 rep.; in lower house, 16 dem. to 16 rep.

Wanamaker's.

PHILADELPHIA, November 9, 1885

All the Lupin's merinos in the United States are here: 11,500 yares; that's all.

Monopoly! great monopoly! What do you think we are going to do? Here we have got our own way with every yard of the very best stuff of the very best maker—3000 miles of ocean between us and possible competition! What are we going to do? The value was 65 and 70 cents a yard a week ago. What are they now?

There are people within the reach of our trade who think we are grasping. They are apt to be merchants. Wonder if they are not a little grasping too. It runs in the business, may be.

Those merinos are going for 45 and 50 cents a yard.

Yes, we are grasping! It's trade we are grasping; and this is the way we grasp it.

Lupin's merinos; two grades as to fineness; these colors: two drabs, tans, three garnets; gendarme, two navy blues, four browns and myrtle; perfect 35 to 36-inch; 45 and 50 cents a yard!

Ladies of the younger generation scarcely know what merino is. A word to them particulary.

Lupin's merino is the ancient substantial fine-wool dress stuff. Cashmere the modern substitute. Merino is double cashmere, both sides alike. Your grandmothers used to wear it and turn it; and wear it and turn it again twice over perhaps; then dye it and turn it again; at last those thrifty matrons cut it over and let their girls have a hack at it—tear it may be; possibly wear it out.

Lupin's merino is the same as ever. Grandmothers' thrift survives here and there. The thrifty will buy this merino for treble reasons: first the wear; second the money; third the beauty—for even our thrifty grandmothers thought of beauty after the other two.

So this is how Monopoly treats things; is it? Comfortable neighbor, Monopoly! What will the merchants say! "He's after the people—he's forgotton the merchants!"

By the Thirteenth-street door.

Fifty-cent homespun 37½ cents; tons of it. Dollar homespun 75 cents; not so much of it.

The two are somewhat alike; one fine; the other course. The fine has hanging hairs, "camel's-hair;" large one-color twill; ten colors; 42-inch. The coarse: grap-and-black, brown-and-white, navy-blue, green, snuff and black; 42-inch.

Southeast form the center for the fine.
Northwest from the center for the coarse.

Standard calio of fifty to a hundred choice styles, 5 cents a yard; value 7.

Nothwest from center.

Red flannel, all wool, 26-inch, 18 cents; about the grade that goes for 25 cents in the slower stores; as good as we could get last year for 25 cents; not so good as we are now selling for 25 cents, of course.

Northeast from the center.

Unbleached canton flannel, 30-inch, 8 cents a yard; value 10 as we estimate merchandise, 12½ in the slower stores.

Northeast from the center.

The cheapest pair of blankets in Philadelphia is somewhere. We think we know exactly where it is and which it is.

Wanamaker's.

Try this one. 2½ yards wide—that's the first and most important virtue. 10 pounds of good enough wool for anybody's use—not quite 10 pounds—half to three-quarters of a pound is the cotton warp that holds the wool together. $7.50. And the best way is to cut the pair in two, and use the blankets separately. That is the cheapest pair of blankets. Not a bit of danger of anybody beating it.

Down quilts in French sateen, $3.75 to $17 by size; in silk $25 to $28. All one quality of down.

Cotton quilts, $1.25 to $4.50. As useful a cotton quilt as any is tufted scrim of natural color; $1.75. The cotton is carded clean and soft—excellent and not too costly to give to the ragman when soiled. That at $1.25 is cotton waste in calico; that at $4.50 is carded cotton in French sateen. We could get cotton quilts for 65 cents—too dirty—you wouldn't want them.

Southwest from the center.
