THURSDAY, Nov. 12, 1885.

☞The Orphan's Court for Caroline county, will meet Tuesday, Nov. 24th.

Caroline County.

Still.—Politics.

Safe.—Caroline county.

Blessed is the woman who can keep her mouth shut.

Frost.—Heavy frosts are now visiting us. You can see if you get up early.

Give Thanks.—Thanksgiving day will reach us on the 26th of this month.

Easter.—Next Easter falls on April 25, and this will not occur again until 1943.

The title to a play just written is "Love in the Nineteenth Century." It's a farce.

At Preston.—The next teachers association will be held on Friday the 20th at Preston.

Overheard.—"If we do have an election contest, what be the result?" "Damfino."

Sensible.—The old gobbler has his weather eye on the 26th and he begins to roost high.

Election is now a thing of the past, but the multifarious frauds practiced at it in Hillsborough will be put before the public.

Maltby House.—For comfort and economy we commend the "Maltby House" to all our friends visiting Baltimore.

License.—Notwithstanding the protest from the neigborhood, license to sell intoxicating drinks at Hartley, has been granted.

Bad Weather.—For the last week we have had cloudy disagreeable weather; quite a rain visited us on Sunday evening.

The season is fast approaching when the wedding-bells and sleigh-bells will be heard jingling through the length and breadth of the land.

A Mistake.—Tin and brass do not go together, says a scientific paper. That's a mistake. It's always the fellow with the brass who gets the girl with tin.

Unlucky.—"I do think that thirteen is an unlucky number," said a pert young miss, the other day, who had just entered her teens. "It's too old for dolls and too young for beaux!"

Stepping Out.—Some of the present incumbents are making preparations toward stepping out; and the places that know them now will soon know them no more forever. Selah.

Must Sail.—The Bolters, Independents, Mugwumps, Anti-bribery and Fourth ticket men have suffered a disgraceful defeat and must now sail up Salt River and stay there.

Trip to Denton.—Gen. Howard B. Ensign and all the directors of the Maryland Steamboat Co. visited Denton yesterday, having arrived on the boat. We did not learn the motive in view.

Shoe-Making.—If you want your Boots and Shoes neatly repaired, or new ones made to order, at very low prices, call on E. W. Emerson, adjoining UNION office. He guarantees satisfaction.

For Lecturers.—The only way for a lecturer to get a crowded house on the Eastern Shore, is to advertise in the local papers that the lecture is especially for women under thirty years of age and for men who are out of debt. Try it.

A Good Idea.—A Federalsburg dude, having read the Thanksgiving proclamation, is going to take it along with him on the 26th when he goes to see his "best gal." He says "to renew the ties of affection" is just what he's after. Go thou and do likewise.

Election Contest.—The election is over and the gross frauds which have been perpetrated have since been made apparent. In the Sixth district alone, there were 18 more ballots in the box than there were voters. Other frauds are glaring. Shall we have a contest.

Accident.—On Saturday last, while working on the roof of a new house at the cemetery, Greensborough, the scaffold gave way and Mr. John Letty fell some 20 feet to the ground. Dr. Malone rendered professional service. Mr. Letty is up and at work without serious damage.

The Easton Star came out on Tuesday with sixteen roosters crowing and says: "Every county in Maryland went Democrat with the exception of Calvert." The editor has certainly not heard rom Caroline. We have four roosters up that can beat any thing crowing in the State.

It is Reported that Mr. Geo. W. Ernst, county commissioner-elect, will soon remove to Denton, and make this part of the county his home for at least two years. The town and community will be glad to welcome him and will find in him a valuable and progressive citizen.

Cherokee Indian.—A Cherokee Indian, dressed in native attire, paraded through our town on Tuesday afternoon last, making known his purpose to lecture in the evening. The lecture is spoken of as somewhat amusing and descriptive of the customs, habits, &c., of wild indians.

An Exchange gives the following: "Step right into the parlor and make yourself at home," said the nine year old son of the editor to his sister's best young man. "Take the rocking chair and help yourself to the album. Helen Louise is up stairs, and won't be down for some time yet—has to make up her form before going to press."

Change Around.—Sheriff-elect Curry will not remove to Denton, but will continue farming on his very highly improved farm near Greensborough. He has acted as deputy sheriff under sheriff Stevens for the past two years and Mr. Stevens will now continue to occupy the sheriff's residence and act as deputy sheriff under sheriff Curry. Tempus omnia mutat.

The man who cheats the printer
Out of one single cent,
Will never reach the heavenly land
Where old Elijah went.
And he who lies about him
Will never prosper well,
But when he hears the trumpet blow
Will go right straight to h—l.

.....We have not heard of any of the late American cashiers being down with small-pox in Canada," remarks an exchange. The editor of that paper evidently is not cognizent of the habits of bank cashiers. They never take anything small.

For the Union.

Mr. Chas. E. Jarrell Speaks.

DEAR SIR:—You will please make the following statement through your paper:

On Saturday last, when in Denton, Mr. James A. Dixon called on me to know the truth of my scratching off all the Republicans on the anti-bribery ticket and substituting Democrats in their stead; which I denounce as an infamous lie. I never have and never will permit my name to go on a ticket that I would not support.

Mr. Dixon said that Mr. Tilghman Nuttle told him and that he (Mr. Nuttle) had been so informed by J. W. Knotts. I hold them responsible for the falsehood until they furnish their author or proof to clear up the matter. I voted the Prohibition State ticket, and the whole anti-bribery ticket. I also voted for Mr. Whitaker, as he came out square on the anti-bribery platform. If you will examine the file of tickets you will find the ticket I voted there marked; but I do not think the Prohibition ticket was credited with my vote. Yours truly,

C. E. JARRELL.

From Greensborough.

MR. EDITOR:—The readers of the Union were disappointed in not receiving the last issue of the Union at the usual time. Later on, however, information came that the package for Greensborough had been held at Ridgely until Saturday morning.

Will the P. M. or his assistant explain why this detention?

Had friend Saulsbury, while in charge of the office, retained the Democrat, Journal or Free Press, they and all their satellites would have forthwith rung the death-knell of the Republican party, and shouted in stentorian voice: "Turn the rascals out." The order is, attend to business or resign at once.

Harvey G. Zacharias.

It is not the sturdy forrest oak that has stood the surging storms and blasts of scores of winters that is cut down by the destroyer's axe, but youth just opening up in the spring-time of life, at the first approach of the glorious soft sunshining rays of manhood, ambition, pride hope and usefulness, clothed with the pride of a fond father's heart, and encouraged by the approving smiles and caresses of best of all—Mother—the affections of brothers, sisters and the joy of a large circle of young friends and acquaintances, and the admiration of the business world for his uprightness, energy and gentlemanly deportment; thus making him almost enviable to those of his age, or even of riper years. Such is but a faint picture of the worthy and beloved subject of this sketch.

The young Mr. Harvey Grant Zacharias has fallen an untimely branch from the tree of life, yet will he live long in the hearts of his survivors, and it is very evident that death can leave no sting, nor can the grave boast of victory over the spirit of him who is now a member of the family of the King of Glory.

Do not repine; a few more years,
A few more broken sighs and tears;
And you enlisted with the dead,
Must follow where his steps have led.
—A FRIEND.

WHAT'S the USE!

What's the use of croaking about "hard times" and scarcity of money? Money is as plentiful as ever, and it only needs some incentive to cause its circulation.

Like the blood, if allowed to congeal, it must necessarily cease to circulate. Business has been allowed to congeal on account of general inactivity; and the country feels the depression the same as the human system.

All that is needed, is a remedy to promote the circulation of the life sustaining fluid, which is alike applicable to the business as well as human life; and returning health will soon manifest itself and the patient grow strong and vigorous. What's the use of palid cheek? Aching head, and dishevelled hair, pondering over pages of disaster produced by the imaginations of a mind ill at ease; it is simply "bosh" and of no effect, and should not be entertained and fostered by any business man, in the country; but while the remedy is at hand, it should always be applied and that speedily, ere the disease assumes malignant form. We have used the remedy, and can speak knowingly of its great efficacy; and we now use it as a preventive to future attack, and whenever we experience a feeling of business despondency, we immediately resort to the great remedy "Push" and at once banish its evil effects, by placing before the public Calicoes at 3, Ginghams 5c, Flannels 12½ c, Ladies Jersey's 50, and a beautiful line of ladies Dress Goods from 12½c to $3.00 per yd; Embracing all the latest novelties to the present date.

New and beautiful designs in Dress Trimming, "Feather Trimming" and "Moss Trimming" also the different shades in Worsted Laces.

Carpets, a splendid article for 25c per yd., better grades 40, 50, 75, 85, $1.00 beautiful patterns in Brussels 75c.

Ladies wraps of every fabric perfectly astounding in prices.

Ready-made Clothing for Men, Boys Youths, 25 per cent less than ever offered before in this market.

What's the use "of grumbling about hardtimes" when our house is always crowded with customers, purchasing goods at the above low figures.

We have inaugurated better times within the scope of our business, and we do not intend to harbor for a moment, an idea as dull times. Come see us, and be convinced. Public's obedient servant.

AUTUMN!

We are admonished of the approach of this season by the appearance of all Nature. The beautiful groves which a few months ago were adorned with a lovely foliage of green, now have assumed a different garb, and present an aspect pleasant to behold, but full of warning. Mother earth with carpet of velvet, shows a care-worn appearance, and is slowly laying aside her summer covering, preparing for the chilly blasts of winter. Man is also admonished by the approach of winter to prepare himself to combat with the icy monster and must necessarily lay off his summer apparel, and cover himself with clothing necessary to preserve the required warmth of body and while doing this he is also admonished that Charles H. Leonard, two doors south of Dover Street, Easton, Md., has all the requisites for the comfort of man in this particular, and would most respectfully invite the citizens of Caroline when visiting Easton to call and see him. Clothing in all its branches and prices guaranteed to suit in every particular.
