American Union

THURSDAY, Nov. 19, 1885.

☞The Orphan's Court for Caroline county, will meet Tuesday, Nov. 24th.

Caroline County.

Wheat is growing rapidly and looks well.

Flowers keeps the best cigars in town. Call on him.

The sequal of the porker is beginning to be heard throughout the land.

Advice.—Never kiss your mother-in-law in the presence of your wife.

The protracted meeting at Potter's Landing is progressing with favorable results.

Larrimore's New "Ad" will be found elsewhere; it is especially interesting to ladies.

A Valuable Horse will be sold at Trustee's sale by Jas. N. Todd, Esq., on Saturday afternoon.

Encouraging.—Quite a number of new subscribers have recently been added to our list. Let 'em come.

Rabbit Hunting is quite popular amongst the young men in town, but "dear" hunting is more so.—Courier.

Fire! Fire!—Persons subscribing to the UNION now, and delinquents paying up, are offered special inducements.

The Thanksgiving entertainment to be given on the evening will lay in the shade all similar efforts heretofore.

"Been Thar."—A fellow who has evidently "been thar," says "man proposes and the girl does as she darn pleases."

Transfers.—Since Oct. 1st last, there have been recorded in the Clerk's office 42 transfers of real estate and 21 mortgages.

Large Hogs.—Mr. Wm. H. Casho, of the first district, has four hogs which will be slaughtered in a short time; they will weigh 2000 lbs.

An exchange says: Coquetry is nothing but guilded and refined hypocricy, and all women are coquettes to a greater or less degree.

The Reformed church at Ridgely now presents a greatly improved appearance. It has recently been re-touched with a coat of paint.

House-cleaning is now about over and a fellow can go home in good spirits without any fear of being knocked over the head with a broomstick.

Caution.—Young man, if you are ambitious to become a financier, choose ye this day whether you prefer an abode in Canada or in the penitentiary.

Maltby House.—The terms at the Maltby House" are most reasonable, and the accommodations unsurpassed. Try it when you visit Baltimore.

Nothing can be more certain than that the happier, the luckier, the better dressed and the gayer you are, the more strangers, at least, will think of you.

Good Advice.—No matter what be your difficulties and disappointments, hold a merry voice, a smiling face and praise the world for all there is in it.

Let Him Alone.—When you come across a man that neither flattery nor abuse will stimulate, let him alone; he has gone to seed.—Middletown Transcript.

Mr. L. H. Gadd has received all the commissions for the several newly-elected county officers. The law requires them to qualify within sixty days after their election.

An Error.—We were informed and so stated last week that Mr. J. E. Willis had accepted a flattering position in Smyrna. We now hear that he declines to accept the same.

Flax-seed Court.—Nemiah Walker was brought before Squire Hutson on Tuesday, charged with committing an assault on and cursing Andrew Baggs. Guilty; one dollar and costs.

Evitts & Holbrook have the best and prettiest line of blankets and robes of all kinds on the shore. It is foolishness for persons to freeze to death when such articles are almost given away.

At Preston.—The teachers' institute, which meets at Preston to-morrow, promises to be of unusual importance. An interesting programme has been arranged. The fall term will cease on the 27th.

Back Again.—Hon. W. Elwell Goldsborough, late United States Consul at Amoy, China, has returned to Greensborough with his family and is at the home of his father, Dr. G. W. Goldsborough.—Free Press.

We have the pleasure of acknowledging the receipt of an invitation to attend the annual November ball at Maryland Agricultural College. Mr. A. J. Smith is the president, and the institution is said to be flourishing.

Photographs.—It is impossible to find a more lifelike, well finished photograph from an infant up, all sizes, at the lowest figures, than can be had at D. S. Lewis, Dover st., Easton, Md. 12 photographs for $3. [nov5-6mos.

"Blood Will Tell."—Amdursky has been to New York, and his new and handsome goods are arriving every day, and will continue until after the holidays. His line of jewelry, watches, silverware, &c., cannot be equalled on the shore.

Larceny.—We would caution our people in regard to the many thefts which are being committed in different parts of the county and on the shore. Persons before retiring, should endeavor to protect their homes from the encroachments of the wicked.

The Gunning Season.—Quite a number of non-resident gunners have visited our town this fall, but the partridges, though plentiful, are rather small. The season is now well under way, and those who have a special fondness for the sport are meeting with satisfactory results.

Recipe.—One of the "handy" things at our house is a bottle of liquid glue. Break a good quality of glue into bits, put into a bottle and cover with whisky. Let stand three or four days, when it it will be ready for use without the trouble of heating.—Free Press. A local option district man might possibly procure some bits of glue and a bottle, but where will he get the whiskey from, Eh? Well, it would perhaps be dangerous for a Caroline man to attempt to fill that recipe anyhow.

Anty-bribery Reception.—Col. J. W. Bryant is resolute in his political cause. Last Tuesday he gave a dinner to some of the late candidates and adherents of the cause. He is energetic and and bound to get all the fun out of Anti-bribery there is in it. "Let the bug hop."

Nonsense.—It is the hight of nonsense to send your work to the city when it can be done at home. If you want neat and attractive printing done call at the UNION office. Business cards, wedding cards and invitations, programmes' letter heads, bill heads &c., printed neatly.

The West is bound to be ahead. The latest is a "corn festival." The notice reads thus: "A corn festival is soon to be given by one of the Denver churches, at which the decorations will be composed of cornstalks, ears of corn, etc., and the menu will include corn cake, corn bread, corn fritters, cornstarch, popped corn and the like."

From Greensborough.—The Union says Geo. W. Ernst, county commissioner elect, will soon remove to Denton. Isn't the wish father to the thought? —Free Press.

Just wait a while, Bro.; put on your specs, and then you'll see. It doesn't make any difference whether the wish is the father or not, so we get him. But, say, Christian, ain't you a father, eh?

New Building.—Mr. L. H. Gadd, who recently purchased the "Simpson" property has moved back the building thereon, and is now preparing the foundation for a handsome two-story dwelling. If our town had a few more such valuable citizens as Mr. Gadd, it would not be long before we would have electric lights, street cars, and a railroad to Ridgely.

What is it?—Everyone likes it. It is chuck full of practical ideas. Every man, woman and child who believes in progress needs it. It is always entertaining and comes to us regular every month It is the Farm Guide we are talking about, New Yorks great newspaper. Just read it a year without cost to yourself, by a years advance subscription to the AMERICAN UNION.

Indebtedness Raised.—On Sunday morning last, after an interesting sermon by Rev. A. D. Davis, in the M. E. Church, the pastor proceeded to take advant age of the good feeling which generally prevailed, and asked the congregation for $200 to clear the church of its indebtedness. The request was quickly responded to. The church inside is now beautiful and attractive.

A Would-be Prophet.—An advance would-be prophet of the Wilmington Conference has arisen and revealed(?) wonders to Peninsula civilization. He assigns Rev. T. O. Ayres to Cambridge. Mr. Ayres has been at Denton only one year and his social and ministerial qualifications, coupled with his original ideas and expressions, induce our people to unanimously seek his return.

The Maryland State Farmers' Association held a meeting in Baltimore last week. Mr. John W. Kerr, of Caroline, is a member of the executive committee. The annual meeting will be held in Baltimore on January 12th, 1886, at which time prominent gentlemen of this State and others from abroad will make addresses and read articles on subjects of vital interest to farmers.

Assault.—On Friday last, Mr. Alva Dukes, a young man fourteen years of age, was brought before Squire G. G. Dixon, at Preston, on the charge of assault upon Ada Patchett, a young girl about twelve years of age. He was found guilty and sentenced to the county jail for four months. His time will expire on March 13th, 1886. Since writing the above, the young man has departed to parts unknown.

Progressive Colored People.—The colored people of Tuckahoe Neck deserve great praise for the advancement they are making in regard to their views of the necessity of an attractive and respectable building in which to worship. Messrs. Wilson & Roe are enlarging their church and making general repairs for them. The church will be nicely arranged inside and painted outside; after which it will be re-dedicated.

Remember, the chilling blasts of winter are coming upon us, and there are in our midst some poor, needy, worthy people who are dreading the cold weather which is rapidly approaching. Sickness and misfortunes may have overtaken them rendering them unable to provide for themselves or their little ones. Help them; "the Lord loveth a cheerful giver;" "he that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord;" "cast thy bread upon the waters and it shall be returned after many days."

Explanatory.—In last week's UNION, a correspondent from Greensboro, complained of not getting the UNION at the proper time, the week previous, after the mailing of the same and gently put the cause on the head of the Ridgely postoffice. Our papers were just a moment to late too be sent on the Thursday referred to, but should have been received in Greensboro on Friday morning. Upon examination, we take great pleasin exonerating Mr. T. A. Smith, postmaster at Ridgely.

Terribly Gored.—On Sunday morning last, Mr. Wm. Sisk, a highly respected farmer and citizen, near Preston, went out to attend to the feeding of his stock; on approaching a valuable bull which he had been fattening, it turned against him, attacking him in the abdomen with its horns, mashing him against the fence and ground in a horrible manner. It tossed him in the air, and mangled his body in almost a hopeless manner. Hosts of friends tender their sympathy and eager anxiety for his recovery.

A Card.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City.

.....At a lyceum held in Elkton, Cecil county last Monday night, the following question was discussed: "Which is the greater benefit to society, the Old Maid or the Old Bachelor?" After an animated discussion, the sympathetic judges decided in favor of the Old Maid.

James B. Hygnut, aged 73 years, and Clarissa Brose, who is said to be 72 years of age, both of Caroline county, Maryland, came to Seaford on Saturday last to be married by the Rev. J. E. Nicholson. The groom apologized for troubling the reverend gentleman on Saturday, and stated that so ardently did they love each other that they could not possibly wait a day longer. After the minister had performed the ceremony the groom said to him pleasantly: "We are much obliged to you for the accommodation," then tenderly lifting his bride into the wagon and seating himself by her side, he drove off toward their native county of Caroline. The bride weighs, she said, 90 pounds, and the groom balances the scales at a nominal 100 lbs. —News.

Legal Ethics.—A Rhinoceros, having run down a lawyer, stood over the Prostrate man for a Moment to gloat upon his Prize, when the Victim made an Earnest appeal for his Life, claiming that he would some day Return the great Favor. The Rhinoceros Deliberated a while and then Decided to let the Lawyer go. Several weeks afterward the Beast got into a Row with the Elephant and killed him, and fearing trouble he went to the Lawyer and said, "Now is your time to Return that Favor. I want you to Defend my Case." "Oh—ah—exactly," stammered the Lawyer, "but you are just too late. Only last night the Friends of the Elephant Retained me to help Persecute you. Sorry, you know, but first comes first Served." Moral: When you get a Lawyer on the Hip never let go.—Detroit Free Press.

Peninsular Items.

.....The Circuit Court for Talbot county is now in session.

.....Strawberries were for sale in the Dover market last week.

.....The gunning season for Delaware opened on Monday last.

.....A new Methodist parsonage is being constructed at Houston, Del.,

.....A 600 pound bell has been put in the M. E. Church at Pocomoke city.

.....W. S. Tane will take charge of Hart's hotel in Milton on January 1st 1886.

.....The finest ducking point on the Atlantic coast is said to be at Havre de Grace

.....Hon. Geo. Colten gives some amusing talk to the people of Trappe, this evening.

.....Rev. John Miller, of Pennsylvania, has accepted a call to Dover Baptist church.

.....Mr. H. Clay Hendrix has been appointed postmaster at Crumpton, vice E. Ryland removed.

.....An effort is being made to get a faster line of steamers to ply between Seaford and Baltimore.

.....The handsome public school building at Georgetown is finished and school opened on Monday last.

.....Wm. Hitch of Laurel is now 83 years old and is jolly, happy, good-looking and in as good health as ever.

.....The M. E. Church at Lincoln, Del. has just been repaired and repainted, and was reopened on Sunday last.

.....Johnny, a little son of John C. Bartlett, fell and broke his arm in two places, while playing foot-ball at the Academy, in Easton on Tuesday last.

.....Quite a number of divorce cases seem to have been recently instituted on the Eastern shore. Man that is born of a woman, and tied to another, is of few days and full of trouble. Selah.

.....Col. Wm. McKenney lost at Wilmington recently one of the pair of black horses he drove on his trip north. The animal was very valuable. The cause of its death has not been ascertained.

.....A photographer named Wm. McCarter at Still Pond was found dead on Friday of last week. He had been married three weeks to a young lady of nineteen summers who had recently left him. He is supposed to have killed himself on account of domestic intelicity.

.....Osco Johnson, colored, was buried Wednesday under a heavy bank of falling earth at Stoney Run, where he was digging. He was quickly taken out of his perilous position, apparently dead. He revived however and casting his eyes about, said: "This is the second time I've been buried. The rebels buried me once before in old Virginia, and I came out of the grave alive.—Balto. Co. Democrat.

.....Mr. Robert W. Mowbray, son of Mr. A. J. Mowbray, of Cambridge, a recent graduate of Washington College has accepted the position of assistant professor in a seminary in the city of Lima, Indiana, a thriving place of 15,000 inhabitants. He left for his new home on Wednesday. Mr. Mowbray is a staunch republican and rendered the party in that county good service during the last campaign.

.....Wm. Taylor of Worcester county aged 40 years, was married last Wednesday to Miss Emily Watson, a girl 18 years of age. On Thursday evening he "hired" a team at Snow Hill at the point of the pistol and took his bride for a ride that night. On his return to Snow Hill next morning he was lodged in jail. He claims to have been married under military orders. "He always was queer" they say.—Morning News.

.....James C. Davis, a lumber dealer of North East, son of James Davis, clerk of the Circuit Court, and Miss Emma Shepperd, daughter of Rev. C. F. Shepperd, a prominent Methodist minister, were married on Wednesday of last week in the M. E. Church at Zion by the father of the bride. The Rev. Dr. Dashiell, an uncle of the bride, offered a prayer, and Asher A. Scott, of Elkton, presided at the organ. The bridal couple will make an extended Northern tour.

.....The Chestertown Transcript says that Lemuel Pearce, colored, of Fairlee, Kent county, Md., at the late election voted a Democratic ticket openly, squarely and without hope of reward; that that same night his stable was maliciously fired and burned down and that it believes the fire was spite on the part of his late political and colored associates. The Democrats of the Fifth districts are rebuilding the stable and have sent Pearce grain and fodder, more even than he lost by the fire.

.....Paul Merrill, a son of Mr. Al. Merrill, formerly editor of the Pocomoke Record, has created a decided sensation in Philadelphia. He has eloped with a beautiful young girl named Miss Luhe Lauer, whom he chanced to meet at a Christian street skating rink. The lovely young blond's father has sworn vengeance, and it is by no means improbable, that should he catch the young gallant from the Eastern Shore, he will make him wish he had never seen either a skating rink, or the lovely Miss Lulie.

.....A joke was played upon a student of the Freshman Class of Deleware College by some of his chums on Sunday night the 8th inst. Darkness prevailed and all the air a solemn stillness held, when the victim, who had just left his dulcina and was returning to the college, was accosted by two apparently black ruffians. They forthwith placed a revolver at his head with the sang froid and suitable remark, "Your money or your life". The frightened student, thinking it sweet to live, acceded to their financial demand and handed over his watch, money and other valuables. He ran to the college at a lightening express speed and reach-there hatless, watchless, moneyless and breathless. The victim, who resides at Georgetown, received all his property back the next morning and declares he will get even.

Locals Personal.

AUTUMN!

We are admonished of the approach of this season by the appearance of all Nature. The beautiful groves which a few months ago were adorned with a lovely foliage of green, now have assumed a different garb, and present an aspect pleasant to behold, but full of warning. Mother earth with carpet of velvet, shows a care-worn appearance, and is slowly laying aside her summer covering, preparing for the chilly blasts of winter. Man is also admonished by the approach of winter to prepare himself to combat with the icy monster and must necessarily lay off his summer apparel, and cover himself with clothing necessary to preserve the required warmth of body and while doing this he is also admonished that Charles H. Leonard, two doors south of Dover Street, Easton, Md., has all the requisites for the comfort of man in this particular, and would most respectfully invite the citizens of Caroline when visiting Easton to call and see him. Clothing in all its branches and prices guaranteed to suit in every particular.
