American Union

THURSDAY, Dec. 10, 1885.

☞The Orphan's Court for Caroline county, will meet Tuesday, Dec. 15th.

Caroline County.

The next best thing to religion is phun.

The Gipsies have struck Greensborough.

The prospects are that we will have a cold winter.

People who wear pepper-and-salt suits are always in season.

Our merchants are making preparation for Christmas trade.

Mr. James Swann, See'y., gives notice that the colored public schools will open on Jan. 4th next.

Supper at Ridgely.—This evening, the ladies of St. Paul's Reformed Church will serve a chicken and waffle supper.

Miss Minnie Ridgley, daughter of W. S. Ridgely, Esq., is dead. She was an an admirable young lady and a devoted christian.

Re-opening.—The M. E. church at Ingleside was re-opened on Sunday last. Rev. C. W. Prettyman conducted the services.

A Grate Change.—"Meet me at the gate, love" has been changed to "meet me at the grate, love." Cold weather necessitated it.

Entertainment.—The Sunday School at Greensborough is making great preparations for an interesting entertainment to be given on Christmas Eve.

"Swear Off."—The time is near at hand when a fellow will again "Swear off," that he will never swear, cher or "smile." B good and you will B happy.

Remember.—Every drink of liquor, chew of tobacco, puff of smoke, or, in fact, any excess of indulgence is a draft upon old age, payable about forty years after da...

An exchange says, "Why is it that a ship is called a she? Because she is handsomest when well rigged." Wives should cut this out and show it to their husbands.

"Painted Red."—On Saturday night last, L. Kirby, colored, got too much bug-juice on board and completely demolished the whole stock of dishes and fixtures in Earle Cephus' oyster saloon.

Wife emphatically: "That dog of Smith's across the way bit mother again this morning, and I want to know what you propose doing about it." Husband, brutally: "I think I shall buy the dog."

Cantata.—On Wednesday evening of Christmas week, the M. E. Sabbath school will render in Masonic Hall, "St. Nicholas' Visit to the Sunday School." Quite a number of characters are represented.

A hungry, ragged tramp arrived in Denton on Friday night last and Sheriff Stevens gave him a night's protection and on further knowledge of the poor fellow, he was found to be honest and a most excellent penman.

Photographs.—It is impossible to find a more lifelike, well finished photograph from an infant up, all sizes, at the lowest figures, than can be had at D. S. Lewis, Dover st., Easton, Md. 12 photographs for $3. [nov5-6mos.

The Marriage Season has set in but it seems nobody will get married. There are a million more males than females in the United States and we suppose the girls have found it out and are not hurrying about snapping up a...us band.

New Advertisements.—Foutz's Horse and Cattle Powder. Wm. P. Flowers card—cigars and tobacco. Wm. F. Towers' sale on Dec. 18th. Jerry Maher's sale on Dec. 17th. Notice to creditors. Order Nisi. Royal Baking Powder.

Educate the Children.—Parents should not keep their children at home to work, when an opportunity is afforded every American child to receive a good education. Knowledge without money is far more valuable than ignorance with a large fortune.

Arrangements have been made with A. Thorndyke Rice, by which the diary kept by Gen. Grant during his tour around the world will be published in the North American Review. Colonel Fred Grant will devote some time in the arrangement of the same, preparatory to publishing it.

Mrs. Margaret H. Slaughter, wife of Thomas H. Slaughter Sr., and only sister of Col. R. C. Carter, died on Monday night last, at the age of 68 years. Mrs. Slaughter possessed a lovely and affectionate disposition, kind and gentle manners, and has been for many years a devoted christian. She was a consistant and influential member of the M. E. Church.

"We beg to call the attention of our readers to the very fortunate clubbing arrangement we have made with The American Rural Home. By it we are enabled to offer that sterling paper every week for one year together with the UNION, one year, for only $1.25. The Home is an eight-page, forty-eight column weekly, and the best paper of its class published. If you have never seen it, send your name to the Rural Home Co., limited, Rochester, N. Y., and receive a copy free, together with a list of over one hundred bound books which are offered as premiums.,,

The Union has received from the Emporia (Fla.) Gazette a sample of the Flordia mistletoe, concerning which the ...e American Encyclopedia says: "The mistletoe is much used in England among christmas times; and during the festivities if a gentleman discovers a lady beneath the mistletoe bough he has a right to kiss her." We wish to say that we prepose to hang over the door of the UNION office this piece of mistletoe on Christmas morning and will be there at an early hour. Any young ladies who wish to revive the old Feudal customs, and are desirous of be...ithout saying so, just call on ...d day. If the editor can't ..., the deed will.

At Federnisburg.—On the evenings of Dec. 28th and 29th, the teachers and scholars of the academy will give a musical and literary entertainment.

Change of Time.—On Monday last, a new schedule went into effect. The trains going North now leave Ridgely at 7.22 A. M. and 3.35 P. M. Trains going South, leave Ridgely at 11.10 A. M. and 5.59 P. M.

Horticultural Society.—At the meeting to organize a Horticultural Society for Federalsburg and vicinity, held in the Masonic Hall, Saturday evening November 28, the following were chosen as officers of the society: President—John A Williams; First Vice-President—John S. Long; Second Vice-President and Treasurer—H. P. Chambers; Third Vice-President—D. B. Hubbard; Secretary—Edwin S. Heffron. The next meeting will be held at the Masonic Hall on Saturday, December 12th at 7 o'clock p. m. Subject for discussion. "What sorts of fruit are most profitable to plant for market in this locality?"—Courier.

Lodge Entertaiment.—On Friday evening last, the Fidelity Lodge of this place, gave its monthly entertainment. Considerable interest seems to be manifested, and it is hoped that the good cause will benefit the members intellectually, at least, if it fails to accomplish its prime motive for which the lodge was instituted. The exercises consisted of the reading of the paper and the debating of a question. The paper was read by Mrs. Laura Blackiston and the audience were well pleased. The debate, "Shall the right of suffrage be restricted," was entered into, Messrs. Byrn and Emerson for the affirmative and Messr. Ayres and Potter for the negative. The question was well argued and by request Messrs. Russum, Mutchler and Townsend addressed the audience on the question. Most of the speakers were in favor of letting the ladies vote, but at the same time thought that it would not do them any good, for they would never get old enough to exercise the right. The meeting then adjourned after spending a pleasant evening.

Peninsular Items.

.....A. Warren has been put in Dover jail for horse stealing.

.....Hog chorera is prevailing in several districts of Wicomico.

.....Chas. J. Littleton, of Dover, well known to many of our citizens, is dead.

.....L. A. Barr has been appointed postmaster at Canterberry, Del.

.....Oysters have been sold at Oxford this season as low as four cents a bushel.

.....Circuit Court for Cecil county will begin on Monday next. There will be a short term.

.....Dr. James Seth has been appointed School Commissioner of Talbot county.

....."Pard" Fowler, of Milton, a well-known well-digger, died on December 2 aged 71 years.

.....There is in the Delaware State House a bell cast in 1763, and a Latin Bible printed in 1532.

.....The Easton National Bank has declared a dividend of five per cent for the last six months.

.....Chas. W. Whitley, of Lewes, has been appointed Clerk of the Orphans' Court for Sussex county by Gov. Stockley.

.....The order of American Mechanics, of Havre de Grace, debated and decided last week that local option is not beneficial to the county.

.....Chas. Williams, recently convicted at the Dorchester court, of a felonious assault will be hung in Cambridge on Jan. 8th next.

.....Stephen Hill, Milbourne, Worcester county, met with the destruction of his house by fire on Thanksgiving day. Loss about $600.

.....The term of the Easton postmaster will expire on Dec. 27; that of the Cambridge postmaster will expire on December 16.

.....George W. T. Perkins, of Chestertown, Md., died suddenly on last Thursday evening of heart disease. The deceased was a prominent citizen and left an estate valued at $100,000.

.....A Philadelphia doctor was summoned by telegraph to Talbot county, Md., to remove a fish-bone from the throat of a valuable setter dog. He received a fee of $100 for the job.

.....I. T. Matthews, late Fusion candidate for clerk of the Circuit Court for Worcester county, who has been clerk for 18 years is going into the law practice.

.....The dead body of Wm. Jackson, a school teacher, was found in the woods a few miles from Salisbury, on Monday of last week. Another victim of strong drink.

.....An interesting ejectment suit has been instituted in the Talbot Court. Joseph Lowe et al. vs. Edward Lowe et al. Messrs Thomas & Bateman are counsel for Plantiff and the title goes way back to colonial times.

.....A Delmar wife forewarns the public, by announcement in the Salisbury Advertiser, against giving, selling, loaning or procuring for her husband intoxicating liquors. She has suffered fifteen years with a drinking husband.

.....A charcoal burner from Sussex county recently stopped at a Milford hotel and ate so heartily as to amuse his fellows at table. It is said by one who counted, that he drank eight cups of coffee, and ate 23 buckwheat cakes and a yard and a half of sausage.

.....Carroll Chance, a youth living near Easton, at the home of William Cole, was on Monday of last week kicked on the forehead by a horse. His injuries are of a serious nature, the frontal bone being fractured. Dr. Anderson has charge of the case.

.....A Maryland widow and widower were married last week on their third meeting. No foolishness about old stagers. They do not have to burn out all the coal, break the furniture and wear out the carpets. They just say what they mean and call on the preacher, and the thing is done.—Dover Sentinel.

At Smyrna last week, a pretty country girl and her lover, who had come to town to see the water-works, were promenading the principal street, when a bundle of fodder fell at the heels of the young lady. She colored slightly and kicked the bundle into the gutter. It was her hastily-improvised bustle.

.....A man giving his name as Conrad Congo was last week arrested at Worton Station, by constable Thos. J. Parsons believing that the man answered very closely to the description of the supposed murderer of the late Chas. Sharpless of Chester, Pa. He is now in Chestertown jail.

.....Sarah Cousins, of Sussex, concealed the birth of her child twenty years. On opening the box the police found the dried body wrapped it a weekly newspaper dated January 1, 1865. She said that twenty years ago it was born without any other person's knowledge. It did not cry, and she thought it was dead. She put it in a box and carried it from place to place about the country with her for ten years, when she took it to the house where it was found.

Federalsburg Item.

The steam Grist and Saw Mill of Stack & Jefferson was burned early Sunday morning. The mill was entirely new, substantially built and thoroughly equipped with improved machinery. Messrs. Stack & Jefferson lose about $6000. The loss also falls heavily upon Mr. G. T. Bell, the young, industrious and accommodating miller who had considerable grain stored in the mill. The fire is supposed to have originated from a spark escaping from the fire box, during the night. The mill was built to be run by water power and was insured until a steam engine was added when the Insurance Company refused to carry the risk. Much regret is felt by the citizens of this town and vicinity, at the loss that falls upon those who are interested.

Locals—Personal.

Miss Linnie Bryant, who has been spending a few weeks in Philadelphia, returned home last week.

Miss Lizzie Temple, daughter of the late Jno. W. Temple, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. Byrn.

Messrs. Geo. M. Russum, L. H. Gadd, Jas. N. Todd, and others have in attendance, this week, at the damage suit in the U. S. court, Baltimore, against Capt. C. C. Wheeler. Col. J. W. Bryant represents the plaintiff.

Rev. T. O. Ayres, on Sunday morning last, preached quite an intetesting sermon; a portion of it bearing upon intemperance generally and Saturday night intemperance specially.

What is it?—Everyone likes it. It is chuck full of practical ideas. Every man, woman and child who believes in progress needs it. It is always entertaining and comes to us regular every month It is the Farm Guide we are talking about, New Yorks great newspaper. Just read it a year without cost to yourself, by a years advance subscription to the AMERICAN UNION.

A Card.

AUTUMN!

We are admonished of the approach of this season by the appearance of all Nature. The beautiful groves which a few months ago were adorned with a lovely foliage of green, now have assumed a different garb, and present an aspect pleasant to behold, but full of warning. Mother earth with carpet of velvet, shows a care-worn appearance, and is slowly laying aside her summer covering, preparing for the chilly blasts of winter. Man is also admonished by the approach of winter to prepare himself to combat with the icy monster and must necessarily lay off his summer apparel, and cover himself with clothing necessary to preserve the required warmth of body and while doing this he is also admonished that Charles H. Leonard, two doors south of Dover Street, Easton, Md., has all the requisites for the comfort of man in this particular, and would most respectfully invite the citizens of Caroline when visiting Easton to call and see him. Clothing in all its branches and prices guaranteed to suit in every particular.
