ine County.

at is looking remarkably well.

ristmas, a week from to-morrow.

ime is but the foam of the fathomss ocean of eternity.

Tailors may give you the fits, but it requires a lawyer to fix up a suit.

Adversity is just what young men need. It makes them show what they are.

The only thing that men like to lay up for a rainy day is somebody else's umbrella.

There seems to be a little displeasure attending the getting up of the Christmas cantata.

Denton National Bank has declared a dividend of 3 per cent for the last six months.

A jewelry store has been opened at Federalsburg in the room occupied by the late Eli C. Gullet.

Truth.—The open, bold, honest truth is always the wisest, always the safest, for anyone in any and all circumstancies.

When you are in need of sale bills, bill-heads, or any kind of job work, consult your own interest and come to this office.

Rev. J. E. Smith will lecture in Masonic Hall, Denton, on Thursday evening December 31, on "The lost truths of christianity".

Kneady man—the baker, Capt. Hemmons. He is prepared to bake cakes for the ladies of town. He is first-class at the business.

It is well enough to preach "peace on earth and good will to men," but it won't take root in a fellow when he's got a boil on his nose.

A New Book.—The latest thing out is a new book called "What is a Girl to do?" That is difficult to answer and we shall not waste time on it.

To Be Rebuilt.—Messrs. Stack & Jefferson, whose saw mill was burned last week, are going to proceed at once to rebuild on a much larger plan.

Snows.—Twenty-one snows are predicted far this winter. Young "bloods", who are gallant, but a little short of cash, had better gradually pull in their sails.

Larceny.—Some lay member of the M. P. church, at Harrington, has stolen e pulpit pitcher, and a reward of an conscience is offered for the return of.

d Roads.—The season for bad upon us, and we have the bad lmost every district in the ersecrs should not delay in at the early bird catches at is a mistake at pres- ound is frozen and they get out. This is an argument or lying in bed, boys.

A wife may often be cured of a lack of animation and general tedium vitæ with a few poker-chips and the photograph of a pretty actress carelessly worn in the vest pocket.

Maltby House.—On account of the desirable situation of the Maltby House, the excellent table and very reasonable rates, person will find it to their advantage to stop there when in Baltimore.

County Appointments.—At the last session of the county commissioners, R. K. Williams was appointed constable, and James Urry keeper of Denton bridge. The board will again be in session on Tuesday next.

Farmers who have left any of their implements out in the fields had better get them in at once. One winter's exposure to the weather will do them five times as much damage as one season's work.

For Small Mouths.—Girls who wish to have small, prettily shaped mouths should repeat, at frequent intervals during the day, "Fanny Finch fried five floundering fish for Francis Fowler's father.

Photographs.—It is impossible to find a more lifelike, well finished photograph from an infant up, all sizes, at the lowest figures, than can be had at D. S. Lewis, Dover st., Easton, Md. 12 photographs for $3. [nov5-6mos.

A band of gipsies are encamped near Federalsburg. This will afford the girls an opportunity to find out all about the coming events—how he looks, his age, style, &c., how many times she will be married and how many—well lots of things.

At Harris' Chapel, on Sunday next, 2.30 P. M. Rev. T. O. Ayres will preach from—Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my ...th faileth. Psalms LXXI. 9. Subhells and how to escape

Kriss Kringle has had his team geared up, and is loaded with good things on his way to Denton. Little boys and girls should be real good and on Christmas Eve, go up to Dunnock's and buy a pair of those long stockings. He bought them expressly for this purpose.

Seasonable Advice.—Before slaughtering an animal withhold all food from it for twenty-four hours, but allow all the water it will drink. This course empties the intestines, facilitates the cleaning of the carcasses and lessens the possibility of contamination of the meat.

He was losing his hair.—"What you want," said our barber, as he ran his fingers through the few remaining hairs on the head of a customer the other day "what you want is a bottle of my hair restorer." "What I want," replied the customer "is a divorce." And the barber said no morer

W. P. Flowers, who keeps a cigar and tobacco store, in Masonic building, has purchased of Squire Lowe a lot of land. Mr. Flowers keeps first-class tobacco and cigars, and he says, if he is encouraged in his business, he will in the spring erect on the lot referred to a handsome modern building.

Arabella—Now, do tell me, dear, why you broke your engagement with Mr. Golden. Julia—Well, I found he was to fond of drawing and painting. Arabella—Why, I should think that would just suit you with your artistic taste, Julia—But his tastes ran to drawing checks and painting the town.

The Newspaper.—The Oregon Sage-Bush says: "A well regulated newspaper man must have faith in his wood-pile, hope in a bright future, and charity that reaches out beyond delinquent subscribers. Faith, hope and charity comprise the most difficult tripartite alliance there is in this world to keep up with.

Unexpectedly Disappointed.—On Dec. 2 last, a marriage was to have taken place between Mr. Will Wright and Miss. Norah Stack, but on the appointed evening the bride's parents put a veto on the matter and locked her in her room. She thought they treated her wrong but she says she is going to Stack arms and forever hereafter do Wright.

Gunning Accident.—On Friday last, Mr. J. M. Everngen went out gunning with a son of John Lare, and after enjoying the sport for some time, a squirrel was seen running down a tree immediately between them. Mr. Everngen fired his gun just as the squirrel had reached a parallel height with young Lare who received seven shot in his ear and quite a number in the side and back of his head. The wound is dangerous, but the physician does not consider it fatal. Gunners cannot use too much care.

Rev. T. O. Ayres, in his sermon last Sunday evening, said: "There are three places in Denton where whisky is sold by the drink." If the assertion be well founded, Bro. Ayres might render valuable service to the next grand jury. It has been currently reported and circulated, that on the same occasion a large portion of the sermon would read well under the text of "why should not Mr. James Swann be re-appointed county school examiner." We had not the pleasure of hearing the sermon, but unhestatingly consider the report a piece of injustice to both the gentlemen.

"It Pains Me."—One of the most prevalent by-words in this town is "It pains me." We don't want the originator to see this local; for, if he does, the following will pain him: On a moonlight night of November, while the mother of the young lady was non est, a certain young man named Samuel Payne, of Hog Creek, proceeded to the residence of one Charles and led away therefrom his only daughter, Miss Emma Charles and thence proceeded to the nearest minister who made them one. When the mother returned and was made known of the circumstances, a storm arose o'er the land which was one of the most Payne-ful affairs that ever happened in the vicinity.

Wesley Stack vs. Capt. Wheeler.—Some months ago, Mr. Stack instituted suit against Capt. Wheeler in the circuit court for Caroline county for damages, alleged to have been committed on him, on the day of the assault on Kate Brown who sued for damages and recently recovered $1,000. Mr. Stack has concluded to withdraw his suit from this court and have it entered on the docket of the United States court in Baltimore. He claims that on the memorable day, Capt. Wheeler unlawfully and maliciously beat and struck him with a cow-hide, and claims $30,000 damages. Mr. Stack was unmercifully attacked on that day and if witnesses are to be believed and admissions are of any weight, Capt. Wheeler would seem to have done the work.

Town Commissioners.—On Monday night last the town commissioners met at their office. Present, R. J. Jump, President, Wm. Stevens, treasurer, L. H. Gadd and Jonathan Evitts. Among the important matters transacted was an ordinance passed compelling property owners on Third street to pave the same from Market to Lowe street putting the the same upon the owners of the eet. They also gave the bailiff to Bixley Tharp, dec'd., presented. Inventory account, administrator's account and distribution passed by the court Mrs Julia E. Wright and Jas H. Horsey adms., of T. M. Wright presented final administration accounts which were passed by the court.

Holliday Whisperings.

POINTERS" IN REFERENCE TO DENTON MERCHANTS AND THE HOLIDAYS.

While it is true that Christmas is near at hand and is gradually approaching it is none the less true that our merchants are at present busier than ever before in laying in a large and appropriate stock, specially adapted for the annual occasion, to make glad the hearts of the young and arouse the dormant sentiments of the old.

As the holiday season approaches the boys and girls anxiously look forward with great curiosity for the night when Kriss Kringle shall come down the chimney and leave them the sleds, the dolls, the fancy articles, &c., while the fathers and mothers, the grown up manhood and womanhood revert back to their days of childhood, wondering and meditating as to what to present those who are near and dear to them in addition to the daily necessities of life.

All these gifts can be purchased at home; our merchants have taken unusual care in making appropriate selections.

H. BLACKISTON & SON

are enterprising, do a large business and are the Wanamakers of Denton. They have three floors packed full of goods and are making more room for the new goods which are coming in every day. They have extra facilities for conducting a large business. It is surprising to behold the stock of goods on exhibition on their second and third floors. Large and choice stock of dress goods, cloths, muslins and dry goods generally, fresh groceries, boots and shoes, crockery, queensware, &c. Persons will do well to call on them.

EVITTS & HOLBROOK

are up with the times and have taken great pains to make their stock favorably compare with any house on the shore. The many varities of stoves, harness, robes, blankets, guns of all kind, &c., present a pleasing appearance. They are enterprising and will be glad to show you around and help you make sellections should you favor them witth a call.

WM. E. DUNNOCK

keeps a full stock of goods and sells at rock-bottom prices. He is energetic and full of business, and his careful and polite attention to his customers has secured for him a large increase of trade. He has many fancy articles for holiday presents, a full stock of fresh confectionery, &c. His stock of dress-goods and ladies shoes is beyond competition. Visit Mr. Dunnock once and you will call on him again.

JAMES A. TRAZZARE

deals in the general grocery business and perhaps keeps the best grocery store in town. His stock of confectionery, foreign fruits, toys and other novelties fairly makes the eyes sparkle. In the candy branch may be seen an assortment of the best candies ever made by mortal man, and have been selected to satisfy even the curious women. His store is always crowded and his pleasing attention to his customers has gained him quite a large trade. To mention all it his line of trade would be too great a task for a Caroline Journalist, just go and see for yourself.

WM. P. FLOWERS

keeps a respectable store where you can go and spend an evening pleasently, enjoy a game of pool, read the news, and smoke a good cigar. By this means, a fellow escapes the cry of the baby and the effects of the broom stick. Flowers has the best cigars ever known to mankind. There are so many eager purchasers that their feet stick through the transom. The tobacco from which these cigars are made is grown in conservatories, and the cigars are manufactured on mahogany tables by thorough bred Cubans in claw-hammer coats and white kids. When a man smokes one of these cigars, he walks on air, and dreams that he has a diamond scarf-pin, and an 880 suit of clothes, and has married rich. It makes the breath sweet and keeps the teeth white, and will force a mustache on the smoothest lip in five weeks. It improves and beautifies the complexion, eradicates tan, freckles and dandruff, and imparts to the oldest countenance the rosy freshness of youth. It permeates the house window curtains, closets and cloths, with the delicate odors and exquisite fragrance of heliotrope, frangi-palm, jockey club and white rose. It will fasten the front gate every night, carry in the morning paper, chase the hens off the garden, and blister the boy with the rubber gun. No family can properly keep house without it, for the man who smokes this cigar will never cut the wood too long for the stove, step on a trail, or go down to the club after supper.

Heavy Cold before Christmas.

Isaac Seligman, 117 Market Street, Camden, N. J., writes, Jan. 2, 1883: "I took a heavy cold just before Christmas, the cough was so incessant at night that I could hardly lay down and have rest. DuLacs 'Swiss Balsam was recommend to me. I used it and was relieved almost instantly, so much so that I rested the following

.....A stock company, with a capitol of $30,000, is soon to be formed in Smyrna for the manufacture of agricultural implements.

.....The convention of the Diocese of Easton meet at Cambridge yesterday to choose a successor to the lamented Bishop Lay, but we have not heard of the appointment.

.....Auntie" Jones, famous as being the oldest member of the W. C. T. U. in the United States, is lying very ill at her residence in Smyrna, and her friends fear that she will not recover.

.....The Jury in the case of Charles Robinson, whose trial for a felonious assaut on Mrs. Gardner, near Clayton, commenced in Wilmintgon on Monday of last week, brought in a verdict, Tuesday, of guilty.

.....A Lewes young man, in a rash moment told his girl that if she would hang up her stocking on Christmas Eve he would fill it to the brim with something nice. He has since seen her stocking, and is still undecided whether to get in it himself or to buy her a sewing machine.

.....Mr. Edwin A. Prado, veterinary surgeon, was found on the street in Centreville, last week in front of the Perry Building, lying in a pool of blood unconscious. He was taken home about 7 o'clock and Dr. James Bordley called in to examine his wounds. He found a fracture of the skull over the right eye, supposed to have been caused by a fall.

.....A character of Seaford is known by the name of "Car John" Allen, from the fact that he, with his wife and eight children, lived in an old car, which was originally used as a depot of the Delaware Railroad at Seaford. After being abandoned as a depot, Mr. Allen patched it up and occupied it as a dwelling. He is now well off, being the owner of ten thousand dollars in government bonds.

.....Mr. Kennely Wright, one of the oldest residents of Dorchester county, died on Tuesday of last week at Hurlocks. He was eighty-eight years of age, and was the direct ancestor of two hundred and eighty-five children, grandchildren and greatgrandchildren, to say nothing about a regiment of nephews, nieces, great-nieces, &c. He has thirteen children now living. Most of his descendants live on the Eastern Shore, but many are scattered about through the states.

.....About 12.15 o'clock on Saturday night the 5th inst., fire was discovered in the Capitol Hotel. The alarm was sounded and, before the fire had made much headway, the Robbins Hose Company had it under control. The fire is supposed to have originated from the heater, as it was found burning near it. The floor and rafters in the cellar were very much charred. This is the second time the Capitol Hotel has been on fire. In January, 1881, the east wing and main building were entirely destroyed leaving only the walls standing.

A Permanent Cure at Westminster, Md.

Mr. John Lucabaugh, Westminster, Md., writes: "At the suggestion of a friend I was induced to try 'ARMONIA' the Great dyspepsia Cure and Liver and Kidney Regulator, and it gave great satisfaction. My wife had a severe attack of Asthma, and was treated by one of our best physicians until we considered a cure was effected, but it soon made its appearance again. DuLac's 'Swiss Balsam' was recommended, we began its use and believe it made a permanent cure. We take great pleasure in recommended 'Aromanna' and 'Swiss Balsam,' believing them to be genuine. They are the only proprietary goods that we ever used that done what they claimed to do." Price 25 and 75 cents. Sold by
