In the Name of God Amen. I William Pitt Ridgely being sick in body but of sound and disposing mind, being desirous to arrange all my Worldly concerns do constitute this to be my last Will and Testament in manner and form following: First. Whereas by the last Will and Testament of my late brother Samuel Ridgely I became possessed with all his real, personal and mixed property and Whereas I thereby became the proprietor of the proceeds of a sale of his farm in Allegany County State of Maryland consisting of monies and bonds for the whole amount of said sale and Whereas it was my said brother's wish that the proceeds of the said sale of land should be given to the present Children of my brother Philemon Dorsey Ridgely except the two eldest sons of our said brother, I hereby bequeath to the said Children of my brother, the two eldest sons excepted, the proceeds of the sale, share and share alike; but it is my wish that my executors, hereafter mentioned, shall hold the funds and proceeds of said sale, for the said Children of my brother Philemon, until they severally become of age; at which times, my said Executors are hereby directed to pay each, his or her proportion.

Item. I give and bequeath unto the three children of Beale and Amelia Warfield a tract of land in Anne Arundel County State of Maryland known by the name of Bite the Biter, containing twenty acres more or less, which said tract of land I hereby instruct my Executors to sell, the proceeds of which they shall pay to the said three children of the said Beale and Amelia Warfield in the following proportions as they become of age; to William Warfield I desire shall be paid the sum of three hundred dollars, and the balance remaining from said sale to be equally divided between Betty and George Warfield.

Item. I give and bequeath to my father during his natural life my servants Jack and his wife Betty, Isaac and Thomas, but it is my wish and desire that each and every of the said servants shall be free and liberated as follows.
