I Henry Margaret Ogle of the City of Annapolis, Widow of Benjamin Ogle Esquire, make and ordain this Codicil to my last Will and Testament, in order to compensate some of my slaves for their faithful services.
In the first place I hereby manumit and set free my negro man Cesar, commonly called Cesar Peterson, and allow him out of my Estate an annuity of twenty dollars a year during his natural life. I also hereby manumit and set free my negro Man Orson and my negro Woman Cook called Nan Bowser, and devise to each of them an annuity of ten dollars a year during their respective lives. And I also hereby manumit and set free my negro Girl Nance commonly called Nance Pimmins, who has waited on me in my illness with great duty and affection; her Freedom to commence and take place from and after the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and eighteen; and I request these devises to be Tenpulously carried into effect. In Witness whereof I have hereto set my hand & seal this 23d. day of June one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

Signed Sealed and delivered by the Testatrix in presence of us who signed the same in her presence and at her request & in presence of each other.
