Dear Sir,

Washington December 10th 1815

As I informed you, in my last letter, I went to Baltimore on last Monday to confer with Mr Williamson relative to the affairs of the late Mrs Pollock, I could not prevail on him to act, as he apprehends trouble on the part of Mr Pollock, he thought however perhaps act as Executor for the little boy Henry, as the property left him, can admit of no dispute, this he told me he would do if the first would decide, the business Mr Mitchell is perhaps the most proper person to move Mr Pollock in the other Court. (the Court I presume has already fixed the business) if not you can acquaint them of Mr.
