I Barney Curran of the City of Annapolis, being being in perfect health, but of sound mind and understanding and being uncertain at what hour I may be called from this to a better world, think it necessary and expedient to settle & adjust my temporal affairs by making my last Will and Testament which I do in the following manner

Item. I give & devise to my Sister Elizabeth McCaffety of Philadelphia one thousand Dollars of the said fund at the death of my said father William Curran, which my said Executors or either of them them are directed to transfer to her as the Case may be. And the residue of the said fund of two thousand Dollars I devise and bequeath to my Nephew Daniel Williamson to be paid or transferred to him by my Executors at the death of my said Father William Curran, or at his Arrival at the age of twenty One years Should my said Father William Curran die before the said Daniel shall arrive at that age.

To wit the interest arising therefrom to be paid to my Brother Philip Curran, Julia Curran his Wife or the survivor of them during their lives in the life of the survivor of them and at the death of the said Philip Curran & Wife the said fund to be distributed among such of their Children, as shall then be living, share and share alike.
