DEATH'S DOING.

MRS. ELIZABETH E. WEBSTER.

Mrs. Elizabeth E. Webster, wife of Rev. Z. H. Webster, pastor of Denton M. E. Church circuit, died at the parsonage at this place, on Saturday morning last at 11:40 o'clock, aged, 39 years. Mrs. Webster had been ill for but a short time, many of her most intimate friends not knowing that her case was considered critical. But it was a very short time after she had passed away; the news quickly spread throughout the town and immediate vicinity, and the surprise it occasioned was only equaled by the shock that naturally followed it. Many were speechless when they were informed of the fact, while others seemed surprised and unable to accept it as the case. Dr. Hanna in his remarks at the funeral Monday afternoon expressed the true feeling of the town when he said "he saw by the countenances of the people that a great affliction had befallen the town, and if no one had told him he should have known that they had been sorely afflicted."

Four years ago Mr. Webster began his pastorate at this place and came here with his family an entire stranger. Mrs. Webster had not been here long before she felt herself drawn to the affection of the people and at once there was a reciprocal relation existing between Mrs. Webster and this people, which extended beyond her own denomination. In church work she was a devoted christian worked, never allowing anything to come in between her and her duty along this line. She was not only a friend among friends, but the poor loved her also and realize that they, too, have lost a friend. Wherever she thought she could say a good word or do a kind act that would lighten some burdened heart, was the place she liked to go. Although she had a large family that required a great deal of her time, she always found time for church duties and with words of encouragement was a great help to those whose spiritual conception was not as clear as that of her own.

Shortly after noon on Sunday the remains were placed in the casket with her dead baby on her arm, which made a very pathetic impression on those who saw it, which were many.

The funeral was held at the M. E. church, Monday afternoon at two o'clock, and was attended by a large concourse of people, the church being filled to overflowing with friends anxious to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased. Dr. J. D. C. Hanna, Revs. R. W. Todd and G. W. Hardesty, officiated at the funeral, and paid high tributes of respect to her after several years of personal acquaintance and dwelt at length on her many virtues and christian worth.

In the death of Mrs. Webster this community has lost a friend they had learned to highly prize; the church a leader and the home a devoted wife and mother. Mr. Webster and his family have the sympathy of the entire community in this time of sore affliction.

The pallbearers were selected from Mrs. Webster's Sunday School class, and were Messrs. H. L. Cooper, Fred N. Nishols, Howard Pastofield, E. B. Griffenberg, Wm. P. Draper and Arthur Fisher. The honorary bearers were members of the official board of the church. Interment was made in Choptank cemetery.

Resolutions from the official board of the M. E. Church, on the death of Mrs. Webster, were received too late for publication today, but will appear in the next issue.

The following resolutions were passed by the Fourth Quarterly Conference of the M. P. Church on Monday:

WHEREAS, Death has entered the home of our brother and fellow laborer in the Gospel, Rev. Z. H Webster, and bourne away a Christian wife and mother; and, whereas the Quarterly Conference of Caroline charge, M. P. Church is mindful of the worth to christianity of this now sainted woman, therefore

Resolved, That by the death of Sister Webster the community has sustained an irreparable loss and the cause of Christ is bereft of one of its most faithful and zealous advocates,

Resolved, That as representatives of a neighbor church, we cherish the memory of her consecrated life; that we commend our grief stricken brother and his motherless children to Him who hath said, "I will not leave you comfortless," and extend them our most fraternal love and sympathy in this their sore bereavement.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent our brother and also to the local press.

T. P. FISHER, Sec'y.

SYLVESTER SMITH.

Sylvester Smith, a highly respected and well known citizen of this county, a resident of Ridgely for several years past, died suddenly Mondays morning of paralysis, aged 76 years. He was at his home when stricken and lived about one hour after the stroke. Mr. Smith was born in Delaware, Feb. 22, '22 and belonged to a prominent family there. He came to this county at the age of 30, and purchased a farm near Ridgely, which he afterward made a fine farm. After age began to creep upon him and having accumulated considerable property, he concluded to take life more easy, he removed to Ridgely where he spent his declining years, not in idleness, but with work more suitable to his years. He married twice, his first wife being Miss Sarah Gullett, the second being Miss Mary Williams, who survives him. By his first marriage he leaves three children, T. W., Albert G. and Thos A. Smith, all prominent business men at Ridgely. By his second marriage he leaves J. H., C. F. and R. E. Smith, who also have large business interests at the same place, and Laura, the wife of Judge J. A. Seigler, another of Ridgely's leading business men. It is seldom that so large a family of children remain together and do so well as this family has done.

In politics Mr. Smith has always been true to the Democratic party. He never was known as a politician, although he served the county two terms as County Commissioner and was tax collector for two terms and when Ridgely was incorporated he was made one of the commissioners.

It seemed to make but little difference where you put Mr. Smith, his sound practical judgement, either on the farm or elsewhere was generally accepted as good. Interment took place at Choptank cemetery, Wednesday afternoon.

HORACE L. REDDEN.

Horace L. Redden, son of Mr. John W. Redden, a young farmer living near Ruthsburg, Queen Anne's county, died on Saturday after a lingering illness of several months with consumption, at the age of 26 years. Mr. Redden was born and brought up in Tuckahoe Neck, where he spent the most of his life, and therefore is well and favorably known to the people of this vicinity, and leaves many friends and relatives to mourn his early death. He had only been married about two years, and was just getting started at farming. Interment took place Monday morning at Choptank cemetery, Rev. C. E. Dryden, officiating.

SAMUEL N. DEAN.

Samuel N. Dean, one of the most highly respected young men of the lower part of Caroline county, died Wednesday night of last week. He had been in poor health for a long time, but was taken worse on the Friday previous to his death. He was 24 years old, and leaves a young wife and child and a father and mother to mourn his loss.

G. L. BUCKMASTER.

Mr. Geo. L. Buckmaster, an aged and highly respected citizen of Greensboro, died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs G. A. Case, on Main street, at 11 o'clock Thursday night aged eighty two years. Mr. Buckmaster was born in Kent county Del., where he spent the greater part of his life. He removed to this county in 1877, where he has since resided. He leaves seven daughters, all grown.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that to, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severe tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discoved a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at George & Redden's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. 4

A Gift to Architect Bernard.

On Thursday afternoon a number of the citizens of Denton, while Mr. Joseph H. Bernard, of Greensboro, was in town, embraced the opportunity to present that gentleman with a memento of their appreiation for his excellent work and judgment shown in the planning and erection of the new County Court House. After two years of trial, there are no objections, and very few suggestions that could be offered for the erection of a more convenient or handsome building. The gift was a handsone solid gold watch charm, engraved upon one side with a likeness of the Court House and the name of the architect, J. H. Bernard, and on the other, the presentation inscription. Prof. M. B. Stephens made the presentation speech which was supplemented by a few well chosen remarks by Hon. H. R. Lewis. Mr. Bernard thanked his friends for their kind remembrance and assured them he was unable to form words that would fittingly express his appreciation.

Assaulted his Sister-in-Law.

Constable M. W. Wright a well known citizen in this town, was arrested Monday night and lodged in jail charged with assaulting Miss Mary E. Stack, the 16-year-old sister of his wife. The crime is said to have been committed at his home on Friday morning of last week, his wife being in Baltimore that day, and her sister who attends the high school, was asked to stay and attend to the children. Mrs. Wright was informed of the affair on her return from the city, and the three were brought face to face. When Wright was charged with the crime, it is said he claimed it was with the consent of his sister-in-law. She emphatically denies the truth of his statement. Mr. Wright is a barber in this place, a deputy sheriff and constable. His father resides in the Fouth district and is a highly respected citizen. Miss Stack's home is at Preston, but is attending the Denton high school at this time. She is said to be a general favorite with the people at this place and Preston, and has their sympathy, as well as Mrs. Wright and her family.

Attorney A. G. Towers has been engaged as counsel for Mr. Wright, and will be assisted by Judge Russum. State's Attorney Deweese will prosecute the case. There will be no hearing until it is brought up at the April term of court.

Old Aunt Mabel Young, so well known to many who will attend Court, desires to announce that she will have a cosy little lunch room on Third street, three doors from the corner, where she will serve oysters in all styles during Court week. A full dinner for 40 cents.

LEVY COURT.

At a special meeting of the County Commisioners on Thursday last, Col. J. C. Mullikin and Clerk C. F. Stewart, met with our board, Attorney A. G. Towers and Treasurer T. R. Green, also being present, to consider plans for a new bridge at Dover Bridge. Civil Engineer McIlvain, of Chambersburg, Pa., represented an iron bridge company. The Commissioners have been investigating the cost for repairs on this bridge for the past twenty years and find the average cost for that time to have been $1,500 a year. Mr. McIlvain told the board that an iron truss bridge of 324 feet, in three spans, would cost from $7,000 to $9,000. The fourth span on the Talbot side is in good condition and need not be removed. The engineer's plans were favorably received and the result has been that the commissioners of the two counties have in this issue of the UNION advertised the plans and specifications of the proposed bridge, and ask for bids on the same. Sealed proposals will be received by the Talbot Commissioners until May 12. It is thought the new bridge can be completed by September.

Right at Last.

For several weeks past the Democratic press of the Eastern Shore has been greatly exercised in Judge Russum's behalf as regards his having an office, and has kindly named and appointed him to almost every one in the gift of the Republicon party. This being an "off year" for the Democrats and they having no appointments of their own to attend to, we are sure the Judge will excuse this little inconsistency in them. As he has recently been appointed a commissioner to represent the State of Maryland at the Trans-Mississippi and International Exposition, to be held at Omaha, Nebraska, from June 1 to November 1, this should give the press a beathing spell.
