hereby constitute and appoint my beloved Son Jacob Basford to be sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament revoking and annulling all former Wills by me heretofore made ratifying and confirming this and none other to be my last Will and Testament. In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my Seal this Second day of November 1810.

Signed Sealed and declared by John Basford the above named Testator as and for his last Will and Testament in the presence of us who at his request in his presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as Witnesses thereto.

Leonard Sellman
John W. Watkins
Joseph Hall.

The Deposition of Doctor Joseph Hall taken in open Court by consent of parties on the 5th day of January Anno Domini 1819. who being sworn on the holy Evangely of Almighty God, deposeth and saith as follows: That on or about the 2d day of November in the year 1810, he, this deponent, was desired by the late John Basford, of Anne Arundel County, deceased, to sign his name as one of the Witnesses to the paper, now shewn to this deponent, purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of the said John Basford, which he did, and which Leonard Selman and John W. Watkins the other Witnesses also did, all in the presence of the said John Basford, and in presence of each other - that he, this deponent, saw the said John Basford sign his name and affix his seal to the said paper, and heard him pronounce, publish and declare the same to be his Last Will and Testament - and that he the said John Basford, at the time of so doing, was to the best of this deponents apprehension and belief of sound and disposing mind memory and understanding. That the Execution of the said paper as the last Will and Testament of said Basford took place at the Dwelling House of said Basford - and that the said paper was then put into the possession of Mr Leonard Sellman by said Basford for safe keeping, but how long it remained in his possession this Deponent does not know - neither does he know how, when or by whom the name and seal of said John Basford, the Testator, were cut off and removed from the said paper. But this deponent saith that the said John Basford, about two or three years after the execution of said paper, purporting to be his last Will and Testament, did in conversation with this Deponent mention that it was his the said Basford's, Intention to make a very different Disposition of his property from what he had done in his Will but he did not inform this deponent what that disposition was to be - nor did this Deponent ever read the paper executed in his presence by said Basford previous to the death of said Basford. That this Deponent does not recollect that he observed any interlineations or erasures in the paper executed by said Basford as his Last Will and Testament - and further this Deponent saith not - Sworn to in open Court before Horatio Ridout and Lewis Neth Justices of the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel County.
