insinuations o
endeavoured to disha
People of Maryla and sent a pri[illegible] to the Brooke to take upon [illegible] the Government during the Residence of [illegible] Lieutenant John Hart Esq[illegible] a Method We scorn to Rule by, and which [illegible] to change your Designe of Administring the Government by the Person first named in [illegible] Council, and place it as We have do[illegible] till such time as the Affairs of your Lord[illegible] Proprietarie will allow him to reside amo[illegible] you himself, or He shall otherwise dispose thereof. When He hopes to bury those Seeds of Rancour and Jealousie, which have too long prevailed among the People, and so to unite their Hearts and Minds that the misguided part of the Province dissenting from our Blessed Establishment both in Church and State will peaceably and quietly submit to the [illegible] Laws by his mild, yet due execution of them, and rest happy under the Indulgence permitted to them.

In the mean time 'tis our peculiar good Fortune that his Ma[illegible]ties faithfull Subjects of the Province have entrusted the Direction of their Affairs [illegible] the Care of Colonel Blackiston, a Person so constantly attached to the Protestant Interest, and of such