[illegible] and proposed, and by reason in [illegible] out of the [illegible] which they [illegible] appear, you appointed not to be at all appropriated, as to the first [illegible] of reason. We further do think it very extraordinary, that any [illegible] appropriated to particular uses and purposes, should be otherwise applied [illegible] [illegible] and proposed were either already provided with, or should be provided, or [illegible]
and sufficiently provided for by the said many Acts, or by application [illegible] [illegible] works. But besides of that the disposing of those moneys by the application
[illegible] of a [illegible] significancy, which may or may not appear the [illegible]
[illegible] by this Act to be [illegible] with money.

As to the other part of the money which may be in the office, you will be pleased to consider, [illegible] [illegible] Your Royal Majesty [illegible] Royal Grant, that of the [illegible]
the money now deposited in the Exchequer should be taken away, and be disposed upon the security or fund of our Revenue; that all moneys to be [illegible] under the Royal Grant, or Gift and Allowance of the first Parliament, should be [illegible]
the office, or either of the moneys of making your Royal Revenue [illegible] [illegible] and consequently our Fund will be [illegible] of any Deficiency or [illegible] upon upon which the Royal Revenue is so much the better able to discharge and satisfy the Consideration, that of the Disappointment of the moneys have should be in good and [illegible] which good and [illegible] with the better hopes the [illegible] to discharge the Royal Revenue the Consideration of the [illegible] in either of the funds, the appropriation of the Royal Revenue will have better the reality and Expectations of having those [illegible] good [illegible] & [illegible] by your Subjects in the [illegible] Royal Revenue [illegible] the moneys, if none of the moneys are appropriated to particular [illegible]

or for [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] disposed, [illegible] Lawes: And although the [illegible] the Royal Revenue has been formerly very [illegible] of reality [illegible] of. And that the [illegible] can be [illegible] our further [illegible] with this Revenue, yet we are [illegible] ~~[illegible]~~
the Disposal of, which this [illegible] has not for the [illegible] provided for.

We must further take the liberty that the [illegible] Revenue [illegible] to the Royal Grant & Gift, which we [illegible]
[illegible] Royal Revenue [illegible] for such Gift. & [illegible] [illegible] of your Royal Revenue [illegible]

The Preamble to the [illegible] Clause
(Recognizance) which speaks of the punishment of those who shall [illegible]
Majesty's Stamps, [illegible] will be [illegible] authority [illegible] [illegible] of Parliament.

The Bill directs the Money to be paid on [illegible]