Annapolis Aug.t 14th 1746

My Lord

That Act Impowered Messrs Samt Hyde, Wm Hunt and Robert Cruikshank or any two of them to Act as Trustees for those Purposes in the Execution of that Act in London, But as the same placed the Conduct of those Trustees under your Lordships Inspection and direction, and further Impowered your Lordship to remove any Trustee and Nominate another as your Lordship should think proper.

Mr Cruikshank being by his Removal incapacitated to Execute the trust in that Act and Mr Hyde having declined this Trade We Apprehend, there is only Mr Hunt now remaining of the Trustees Named in the Act, to whom we can do no more than Apply ourselves as we could wish in Discharge of the duty required from us by that Act, and as Mr Hunt may dye, or it may be our Misfortune to lose your Lordship, We humbly hope your Lordship will be graciously pleased to make an Appointment of such persons for Trustees as may make up the full Number (which is originally designed by that Act. And that your Lordship would direct their names to be signified to us that we may conform Accordingly.

The first payment of the paper money by Bills of Exchange is to be made on the 29th Sept 1746, At which time Bills of the Bills Now Produced are to be discharged, and all the Bills to be burnt, and the Bills (to be burnt)
