The Least Appearance of Danger Treat themselves to the utmost for the „preservation of their Rights„ And that your Behaviour at the last meeting In May 1739 was not very Different from this, your own printed Votes will shew where it appears that shew when you first Voted the Bill for Arms & for the Defence of the province to Continue for three years but And In the very next moment you Voted the Bill should not pass at all; Nor Could the Upper House then prevail with you to Revive that Act, And pray were we not then under Reasonable Apprehensions of a Dangerous war! or Had we Arms or Money Sufficient
It is Time Wise Money ~~was applied~~ Also it is generally ~~to be thought~~ ^ ~~and~~ raised so little ~~annually and~~ ~~to supply the Expenses of the Time~~ ~~that will be sufficient at time~~ ^ We Doubt not but that on a fair Examination ~~for such Expenses~~ ~~Time~~ of the Conduct of the ~~Three~~ Gentlemen in our House, their Transactions Bill-Made and Actions will Appear in Every other Instance equally as this to Calculate with the Good of the province in a Much more reasonable manner than The Behaviour of Some who Seem to think a Sure way to Merit is Some Unbecoming Expressions,
We are Exceedingly Surprized at the Language you Express on Occasion of what we mentioned relating to the Roman Catholicks
Sir
