for payment of Small Sums; and the Ballance due from him is £ 60-15-3. You will please to take Notice we have not any Bills in our hands that are unpaid. The above mentioned Sum of £3299-1-4 is the Ballance of the Cash Account in the Bank Books in our joint Names; and next month half a year Dividend to the 5th will be paid on the £19,500 Capital Stock. You may remember as the Law lying read that we have not Invested it or Some part thereof as we have from time to time [illegible] But as the times lately and Still are so Precarious, we th[illegible] Notwithstanding the loss of the Interest, the Pro[illegible] Shortly be London, We Shall act to the best of our Judgment [illegible]

And are Gentlemen

Your Very Humble Servts

[illegible]

J Hanbury

To the Commissioners of the Paper Currency of Maryland

Your Committee for the Considering the Irregularity of the Books and Accounts of the said Office Humbly Offer it as their Opinion, that unless the said Books and Accounts are reduced to [illegible] it will be Extremely difficult if not Impossible for any

All which is Submitted [illegible]

this 8th Day of May 1758

Sam Chamberlaine

[illegible] Dulany

No 7

Commit Chamberlaine Dulany