Sir

I am further Ordered to tell [illegible] a Message received from the Shawanoes just before I left Allegheny, [illegible] ging the receipt of their Ma[illegible] Answer, and returning their thanks, [illegible] rance that they would [illegible] continue true to their new Engagements, and [illegible] receive the Answer of the [illegible] Governor [illegible]

Sir

I have finished what I [illegible] on Ohio with respect to the Shawanoes, but I have still some [illegible] municate to the Governor [illegible] the other Governments [illegible] continent which was [illegible] ated to be in the Cove[illegible] the Somerset by [illegible] India in conjunction with the [illegible] the Indians [illegible] therefore [illegible] a Message [illegible]

Brethren the Governor of New York [illegible]

[illegible] to strike [illegible] you have [illegible] ted that We w[illegible] in that [illegible] the French are always threatning us, an[illegible] so much fear [illegible] their Menaces that We dare not suffer our[illegible] the hunting places at a distance from us least We should mak[illegible] ch; this was the Case all last Summer, and We have [illegible] rom the Six Nations that the French on Canada a[illegible] tary Preparations and intend to attack us this Summer.

Brethren

You ought to have [illegible] ded w in y[illegible] Peace, but since you did not, We now request that the Engli[illegible] vernor would gently [illegible] Lines w[illegible] included in the Peace, that We may not be subject to the [illegible] ions [illegible] Some and [illegible] ment of the French [illegible] be in quiet as well [illegible] you [illegible]

A true copy of a Message delivered by Andrew Montour Indian Interpreter at Ohio to the Governor on the 5th day of September 1750 examined by

Richard Peters Secry