A Message from the Six Nation
Indians at Ohio delivered to the Governor
by Indian Messenger

[illegible] Lose your [illegible]

The Twigh[illegible]

[illegible] admitted
[illegible] into the alliance of [illegible] English [illegible] treat[illegible]
[illegible] sent three [illegible] to [illegible] Onoh[illegible]
the six Nations [illegible] the Governor [illegible] with the Twigh[illegible]

ARCHIVES OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND.

The Mes[illegible]
[illegible]

Brethren [illegible]

[illegible] Road which has lately
[illegible] been rough, cloud and not well c[illegible]
every thing which may hinder the Safety [illegible] we pray leave no least Obstruction [illegible]
for as future years, but before you [illegible] from the English [illegible] That their Indian [illegible] desire [illegible] to deal with us for the future [illegible] peace and [illegible]

Brethren

We are yet young and [illegible] you the six [illegible] Brethren, and can advise us what to do and occasion [illegible]
the [illegible] your Care, and regard that you will look upon [illegible] with your Council and we promise to follow whatever advice you give us for the [illegible] before our God; Our Father Onontio has left us poor and blind, but thro your means we begin to open our Eyes and to see things at a great distance; We assure you by this String of Wampum that We the Twightwees have entirely laid Onontio aside and will no more be Governed by his Voice, nor any longer hearken to what He shall say.

This