The Scientific American, which is considered the leading publication of the kind, came out last week with a Navy edition, and surpassed former efforts along this line, and must be seen to be appreciated. The illustrations and reading matter are just what the public want at this time. It not only gives an external illustration of each ship, but it takes the reader down below decks, and shows how the work is done there. This work is published by Munn & Co., 361 Broadway, N. Y., for 25 cents.

The public generally do not appear to favor a 4th of July celebration, if we can judge anything by the lack of interest shown by the call on Tuesday evening. The Junior Mechanics' at their meeting Monday evening voted $25 for a celebration fund, which was very liberal as well as commendable in the order. We thought we were becoming more like Greensboro, but, alas, it seems not.

Since the above was written Dr. J. R. F. Rochester started a subscription paper Wednesday morning and soon had over $80 pledged, including the Juniors' contribution.

Proposed Church Improvements

The Building Committee of the M. E. church submitted plans for remoddling the old church edifice and building a Sunday school room in the rear of the church. As the plans were not quite completed on the part of the committee, another meeting will be held Friday evening when it is thought the committee will make a complete report and recommend a line of improvements. The most feasible plan is to lower the ceiling and shorten the windows of the structure, substituting therefor an arched ceiling and other improvements along this line. In the rear of the church it is thought advisable to erect a Sunday school room. Both of these rooms, it is proposed, to be heated by steam. If the proposed plans are carried out, Denton will have one of the prettiest churches in this section.

Death of a Noble Christian Lady.

For the Union:

I have just heard of the death of Sister Annie Howard, who died on Thursday June 2nd. Having been her former pastor I am prompted to write of he beautiful life and character. It was my pleasure to know her while pastor of Laurel Grove M. E. Church South. In her home sister Howard was kind, gentle and unassuming, her greatest pleasure being to lighten the burdens and make life happier for those about her. Having consecrated herself to God and his cause, she lost no opportunity to sow the seed which in due time would bring forth that fruit which would be acceptable to her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She found great satisfaction, strength and comfort in the daily reading of her Bible, and so far as in her power imparted its truths to those with whom she came in contact. Ever useful in the Sunday School she worked earnestly that she might win the souls of the young to Him who hath said "suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

To her parents bowed down in grief at her departure from this life I would say bear up bravely, remembering that God works his wonders in mysterious ways, and though we do not know now we shall know hereafter. Let us praise God for the example in the life of Sister Annie Howard. Let us live the life God would have us live so that when summoned to the world beyond He will welcome us saying: "Well done good and faithful servants enter into the joys of thy Lord."

Yours in Christ,
REV. A. VONDERSMITH.

—The new board of Election Supervisors of Talbot county consist of Dr. Lewis Buffett and John Trax, Republicans and J. Harry Ratcliffe, Democrat. Dr. Buffett was made president, E. H. Lackinar clerk, and R. R. Walker, counsel.

Walcott of Dover. Mr. Biggs is a son of the late ex-Governor Benjamin T. Biggs He is also a son-in-law of George V. Massey, assistant solicitor for the company at Philadelphia, who was formerly the company's attorney in Delaware. Mr. Biggs was Attorney General of the state and president of the late Constitutional Convention and is exceedingly popular.

Beats The Klondike.

Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Texas, has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemorrhages: and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He declares that Gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's New Discoverey for Consumption. Trial bottles free at George & Redden's Drug Store. Regular sizes 50c and $1.00 Guaranteed to cure or price refunded. 2

To Be Hanged.

In the Circuit Court for Talbot County Judge Stump pronounced the sentence of death on Joseph Wright, colored, convicted of the murder of William Newcomb, in the Kent forest. He will be remanded to the Chestertown jail and hanged as the Govenor may appoint.

The following sentences were also imposed: For larceny, Lewis Cooper, five years in the penitentiary; Perry Cooper, five years in the penitentiary; John Warner, six years in the penitentiary; Thomas Miller, two years in the penitentiary. These are all negroes. The first three are members of the Trappe district gang of organized thieves.

For assault, Luke Watson, six months in House of Correction. For selling beer, George Dean, a white boy, three months in House of Correction.

In the case of George Henry Scott, for larceny, sentence was suspended for one year.

Motion for new trial in the case of Ramy vs. Vannort, where the verdict was for $2,000 damages, was denied.

Physical Geography.

John W. Gibson, principal of the public school at Fairbank, Tilghman's Island, one of the veteran teachers of Talbot county, teaches geography on a big-lesson scale. He has laid off about a quarter of an acre of the school yard, a map of the world on Mercator's projection, showing the continents and islands, the oceans, seas, lakes and rivers, the mountain and the valleys. The water for the waterways is mechanically conveyed from the overflow of a semi-artesian well near by. The natural lay off of the land gives the the plane surface, the mountains are built up with oyster shells, gravel and earth, and sand from the river shore has been spread to show the deserts. The work is done to a scale, Mr. Gibson being a surveyor and civil engineer of no mean capacity. His pupils help enthusiastically in the work. The various mineral and vegetable products are assigned to their respective places. Mr. Gibson does not claim the idea of a school-yard map is original with him, but the work, probably, has never been done on so large a scale before nor with such attention to accuracy of detail.

There is large enough scope to show the progress of the naval side of the Spanish war; constructing the warships of tin and the bark of the pine tree is not difficult, every country boy living on salt water can whittle a ship with his jackknife as easy as a factory can make a match, and when the daily newspapers come, what delight they take in changing the position of the squadrons, accordingly as the news warrants it. This is both constructive and applied geography, and makes the maps and the letter press of the text-book much more interesting and more easy for comperhension. Principal Gibson's novel schoolyard attracts many visitors.

Regular size 25c. per box. George & Redden Druggists. 2

The Peach Prospect.

H. F. Rowley, a repersenative of J. F. Hobson & Co., Philadelphia fruit dealer's has been traveling through Talbot, Caroline and Queen Anne's counties, looking up and estimating the peach crop of the Delaware Peninsula. Mr. Rowley estimates that there will not be over a forth of a crop, owing, he thinks, to the late frosts, hail and the sting of of insects chiefly, the curculio, These three factors, Mr. Rowley thinks, will cause the "June Fall" to be heavy. He also thinks that good fruit, well handled and culled, will bring fair prices. Mr. Rowley's investigation in this county could not have been very thorough as peach growers are estimating half a crop at least from present indications.

Let's celebrate the 4th.

Talbot County Court.

The new form of oath prescribed by an act of the last General Assembly was put into practice in the courtroom at Easton. The uplifted hand is substituted for the Bible. There was but little awkwardness noticeable in the change. One of the judges pathetically remarked: "The last Legislature banished the Holy Bible from the courtroom."

"That might be its price in the Klondyke," said Major Stewart, the prisoner's counsel, "but here it's not worth ten cents."

The case of Lily Crew vs. Dr. Reed, president of Washington College, removed from Kent, was down for trial at this term, but has been prospond to the next. In the oyster cases the traversers have been acquitted or the cases settled. In the local option cases the defendants have been acquitted, contrary to the usual custom.
