A much needed rain was enjoyed by the people of this section Saturday night and Sunday morning. For several hours the rain fell gently and gave mother earth a grand soaking, just the kind of a rain that was needed.

Our streets had very few people on them Tuesday when compared with other public days. Neither of the courts or school board were in session that day, together with wheat harvest, accounts for the scarcity of people in town.

Denton has had attractions for the past few days in the way of a medicine show in East Denton to entertain that section of the town, while the center has an Edison phonograph machine, and North Denton has a small camp of Gipsies; a variety for the various tastes.

Judge Russum has been appointed a member of the State Central Committee for Caroline County, to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Mr. Fred R. Owens. The committee now consists of Judges Sigler, Russum and J. B. Fletcher; these gentlemen are eminently qualified for the place.

The Baltimore Herald has been hunting in Caroline for some relics in the way of old towns, which have disappeared since a hundred years ago. For instance Bear Town and Mount Pleasant were known then, but the present generation knows nothing of them.

In Talbot the article refers to ...e-in-the-Wall and Hooktown as ...ng disappeared. Hole-in-the-... now known as Hambleton, ...ktown is not shown even on ...t map.

Todd for $40. The other tract was assessed to W. R. Busteed heirs in the 7th district, and was sold to Mrs Rachel Cooper for $39.

Messrs. A. E. Cooper and Brother who have been in the dry goods and grocery business in this town for a few years, sold out their store Tuesday to Mr. R. S. Crew, of Baltimore. The store is closed for the remainder of the week but will be reopened on Monday. Cooper Bros. have been popular merchants and the public regret their going out of business.

The strawberry crop for 1898 is now a thing of the past, and while it was the means of scattering considerable money around among the pickers, it did not reward the grower very heavy, the prices ruled too low. The crop was fine and the main trouble there were too few buyers, hence the cause. The raspberries are now on and prices are fair, if they will only remain so.

Closing the harbor of Baltimore, between sun-set and sun-rise, has been greatly modified, so as to allow all light draft steamers to return to Baltimore after dark. The channel used by all these Eastern Shore light draft boats, is that whole wide sheet of water lying north of Fort Carroll, and between it and Sparrow's Point. The stretch of water is shoal in comparison with the main ship channel lying south of Fort Carroll, and between it and Hawkin's Point, and it has not been mined at any time. The only mines are those lying in the deep water south of Fort Carroll, as stated above.

He was from up Caroline way, evidently. He walked into a store the other day and asked for a piece of string with which to tie up a bundle. The accommodating clerk gave him a piece. "Much obliged," said the Caroliner. "Don't mention it," the clerk replied. "Why not?" was the startling query of the Caroliner, in almost a whisper, as though he feared he had come by the string in some manner that would not meet with the approval of the proprietor. Easton Ledger.

The Caroliner, doubtless, was not accustomed to seeing such a fresh article as here refered to.

Crop Prospects.

This week finds the farmer in the midst of his wheat harvest, which is a little earlier than usual. It is rather early yet to predict with much acracy as to the yield for this county, yet it appears to be the general impression that there will be about two-thirds of a crop when compared with last year, while the acreage this is greater than last.

Corn, owing to the lateness of the season, and then followed by the wet weather, has made it late and puny looking when compared with other seasons. In some sections, we are told, it still has an enemy to contend with in the shape of bud worms, which is proving hurtful.

The June drop is playing havoc with the peach crop, as the fall is heavier than was expected a month ago.

Since the rain Sunday morning tomato plants have been in great demand, owing in part to the high price that prevails at present. They, too, like other growing crops, have their enemy, which is a small insect known as the "flee fly," which is damaging the young plants.

The potato crop is said to be a fair one, despite the potato bug, which we have always with us.

JUNE WEDDINGS.

At the Greensboro Methodist Episcopal Church Thursday evening at sunset Miss Lily Virginia Carter, daughter of John T. Carter, Sr., of Greensboro, and J. Kennard Jones, of Philadelphia, son of the Rev. Miller Jones, of Village Green, Pa., were married. The bridal couple marched up the aisle preceded by ushers and the bridesmaids. They were met at the chancel by the Rev Alysus Green and Rev. Miller Jones father of the groom, by whom the ceremony was preformed.

The bride was dressed in white satin duchesse, cut entraine, high neck and long sleeves, with bridal veil. Miss Elysabeth Jones, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, her costume being pure white. The bridesmaids were Miss Rosa Carter, sister of the bride, dressed in pink, Miss Nettie Porter, dressed in azure, Miss Lola Longfellow, niece of the bride, dressed in burnt orange, Miss Lida Porter, dressed in a beautiful shade of red. The best man was Mr. Edwin Jones, of Media, Pa., brother of the groom. The ushers were Mr. Wm. Jones, brother of the groom, Mr. Eugene Sullivan, Darby, Pa., and Messrs. Dr. F. R. Malone, Henry Jarman, Oscar Bernard and Clayton Carter, all of Greensboro. The bride was given away by her brother, Prof. John T. Carter, of Denton. Master Arthur Green, of Greensboro, acting as page and carried the ring on a silver plate.

An impresive marriage cermony took place at the Preston M. E. Church, Wednesday evening of last week. The contracting pasties were Miss Mary C. Fluharty, only daughter of Mr. T. H. Fluharty, of Preston, and Mr. James Henry Barrow, grandson of the late Mr. James H. Holmes. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. O. S. Walton, pastor of the church. The church was beatifully decorated with potted plants, ferns, lilies, magnolias, evergreen etc., the pulpit banked up and illuminated with piano lamps. Miss Ella Williams presided at the organ, and at the appointed time with the strains of Mendelsohn's Wedding March the party entered. The ushers were Dr. L. D. Kelley and Ovede Ledum, of Preston, Messrs. M. B. Stephens and Albert G. Towers, of Denton. Mr. C. Hicks Barrow, of Philadelphia, brother of the groom acted as best man; Miss Bertie Noble was maid of honor; Misses Helen and Mary Larrimore, of Easton, were flower girls. The bride was given away by her father. The bride wore white organdie over silk taffeta with lace and pearl trimmings, and carried bride roses. The maid of honor wore white organdie over pink and carried pink carnations. The flower girls carried baskets of sweet peas and strewed the blossoms in the path of the newly wedded couple. Following the church ceremony a very elaborate reception was given at the bride's home, which was richly decorated with rare flowers, ferns and evergreens. The approach to the dwelling was illuminated with Japanese lanterns. Those present from abroad at the reception were: Mrs. T. Dawson Larrimore, sister of the groom, and her daughters, Helen, and Mary, Misses Caroline and Elsie Burnite and Mr. O. L. Sturmer, of Easton, Misses Mary and Bertie Whiteley and brother, of Centreville, Mrs. George Wallace, Miss Leonora Valliant, Messrs. M. B. Stephens, and A. G. Towers, of Denton. Miss Bessie Collins, Mr. Edgar Collins, Miss Nettie Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bradley, of Hurlock. The presents were numerous and handsome. Miss Fluharty was first valedictorian of the grauates of Caroline County at the Commencement, at Denton, five years ago, graduating from the Preston Academy. Mr. and Mrs. Barrow will make Preston their home having secured a fine residence on Railroad Ave.

A Mad Dog Scare.

The southern part of Caroline county is undergoing a mad-dog panic, says the Sun correspondent. Solomon Love who removed from Talbot to Caroline a few years ago, was bitten by a dog about the 1st of April. The wound healed. About a week ago he was taken with violent pains in the arm and the limb began to swell. He is now reported to be raving with hydrophobia. There are many dogs running through the country attacking and biting other dogs and men, women and children and cattle.

Mr. Love resided near Grove and died from hydrophobia. He was bitten by his own dog some six weeks ago.

This week will about end the can pea season, which has been a very fair one all around.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

Sunday evening was observed as Children's Day at the M. P. Hall, where a spacially prepared program was rendered in a pretty manner. The main feature of the program was singing, nearly all of the pieces being written by Rev. R. L. Lewis, of Federalsburg, and were put to music by Rev. W. B. Judefind, of Grove. Both of these gentlemen are citizens of Caroline and were therefore of more than usual interest to the congregation. The pieces are neatly gotten up in book form and are used all over U. S. and Canada on this occasion. The following is the program: Opening Singing by the School; Prayer by Rev. C. E. Dryden. Music; Responsive reading by the School. Address of Welcome, by Roy Smith. Singing, We Owe It. Recitation, Children in Heathen Land, by Lizzie Townsend. Recitation, How I help Mama, by Dola Boyer. Singing, we must not grow weary. Recitation, In my little garden bed, by Annie Fisher. Dialogue, The lessons that flowers teach us, by Lillian Rice, Edna Hobbs, Nellie Shields and Myrtle Shields. Quartet, Over the waves, Mr T. P. Fisher, R. M. Collins Miss Angie Smith and Mrs. Maud Johnson. Recitation, It does'nt Cost Money, by Annie Jester. Music, Work to Day. Recitation, The Macedonian Cry, by Pearl Griffin. Recitation, the universal church by Lyda Moore. Music, Little Ones should serve God too. Recitation, Is it nothing to you? by Miss Nattie Moore. Recitation, a large beautiful world, Dukes Smith. Music, Glad Hossannas. Recitation, Flying out the Banner, by Blanche Hobbs. Music, Lift up the banner. Recilation, Growth in giving, Zora Collinson. Motion Song by the girls. Closing Song. Benediction, by the Pastor.

A Mission of Mercey.

Judge Geo. M. Russum and Col. Edwin H. Brown were before the Govenor a few days ago interceding with him for the remission of the fine and costs against B. Palmer Keating, at present confined in the Centreville jail under sentence for obtaining money under false pretenses. His sentence expired about the first of May. The fine against him is $500 in addition to the cost. There is no provision in the law for amounts exceeding $500 where the fine is not paid, hence the necessity of executive action.

Col. Brown presented the case of Mr. Keating, disclosing the urgency of remitting the fine. His position was approved by Judge Russum, who was judge on the bench at the time of the indictment, and drew the grand jury that found the true bill. In addition to these gentlemen, a strong petition was filed signed by leading business men, professional men and ministers of the Gospel in Centreville.

Killed by a Bull.

Mr. Harry Hooper was killed by a bull Monday morning at his home, near Centreville, at Spencer's wharf where his farm is situated. He had gone to attend the cattle, and having remained an unusually long time, his brother went to look for him, and found him in an unconscious condition, evidently having been attacked by the bull. He was carried to the house, and Dr. James Corkran summoned. Mr. Hooper soon regained consciousness, and stated that the bull rushed at him struck him twice, and it was the second blow that inflicted the injuries which resulted in death. Dr. Corkran found that four ribs on the right side were broken in two places, and the ends forced into the lung. Mr. Hooper's body was badly bruised, showing that the bull had continued his attacks after Mr. Hooper became unconscious. The animal had previously given evidence of viciousness, and his horns had been sawed off close to the head. Mr. Hooper was about forty years of age, and, with his older brother, Mr. Frank Hooper, had been engaged in farming for a number of years.

Quarterly Distribution.

Comptroller Goldsborough has made the quarterly distribution of the public school tax to white and colored schools in the State, the amounts being payable on and after Saturday. It is said that this is the largest distribution made since the Coptroller's office was established in 1852, the increase being over $100,000. It is not necessary, of course, for the Republicans to say why it is so, as it goes without saying. The total distribution for white schools of the State are $282,429.84. For colored schools, $49,500.00. Caroline's apportionment for the white schools is $4,161.53; colored schools $997.13.

Flag Day.

On June 14th, one hundred and twenty-one years ago, Congress declared "the flag of the thirteen United States to be thirteen stripes, alternately red and white, that the Union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, repersenting a new constellation." This action marked the birth of the most beautiful emblem the world knows today.

The first flag hoisted at Fort Stanwix was a crude affair. It was made of a red flannel shirt, an old army overcoat and white flannel petticoat. However, it answered the purpose then.

Yellow Jaundice Cured.

Suffering humanity should be supplied with every means possible for its relief. It is with pleasure we publish the following: "This is to certify that I was a terrible sufferer from Yellw Jaundice for over six months, and was treated by some of the best physicians in city and all to no avail. Dr. Bell, our druggist, recommended Electric Bitters; and after taking two bottles, I was entirely cured. I now take great pleasure in recommending them to any person suffering from this terrible malady. I am gratefully yours, M. A. Hogarty, Lexington, Ky." Sold by George & Redden, Druggists. 4

Interment was made Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Todd's Chapel Cemetery.

Children's Day services were held in the church here on Sunday evening last. The program which was called Heroic Methodist was well rendered. Although the church was crowded and a great many had to stay out side, it was thought by some to be the best children's day service ever held in this place. The most important feature of the evening's service was the collection which amounted to $18.

While returning from church on Sunday evening Mr. Clinton Gootee's horse, became frightened and ran away. The horse became loosed from the carriage throwing Mr. Gootee and the lady that was with him to the ground; but fortunatety neither of them were hurt. An Early Fire.

At 1.30 a. m. Friday morning a fire broke out near the bridge on Railroad avenue, Greensboro. The fire department responded quickly and did everything in their power, but the wind was blowing strong and blew the fire from one house to the other. The houses, with one exception, were old and burned quickly. Four houses in all were burned before the fire was gotten under control. The loss was about $1,500, and partly insured. The property belonged to the estate of the late W. C. Satterfield. The tenants saved their household goods.

Easton and the Curfew Law.

Easton wants the town commissioners to require the children to be off the streets after night. A petition will shortly be presented to the Commissioners signed by resident parents of the town, asking them to make it unlawful for children under 14 years of ago to be on the street later than 8 o'clock p. m., in winter, and 9 p. m., in summer, unattended by proper chaperon or without reasonable excuse.

This step, it is thought will be a means towards lessening vice, as most of the criminals and lawless people of the country look back to having received there schooling in vice upon the streets after nightfall and during the tender years when they should have been guarded.

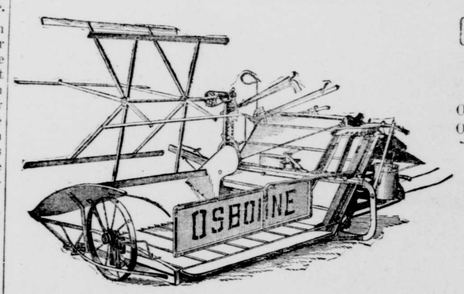

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that to, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severe tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discoved a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hammick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at George & Redden's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. 4
