Sir,

I inclose to you by the Earl of Hillsborough's Directions, a Copy of the Speech of the Lords Commissioners to the new Parliament, which met on Tuesday last.

I am very sorry to inform you that His Majesty's Second Sister, the Princess Louisa, died yesterday, to the great Affliction of all His Majesty's Subjects; I most sincerely condole with you upon this Melancholy Occasion, and am with great Truth and Respect,

Sir,

Your most Obedient humble Servant,

R. Phelps
