Mr. Norris is not on untried man in this capacity, but has served the county well and gave general satisfaction to the trustees who served at that time. The present board of trustees have made a good selection and will receive the approval of all fair minded men, irrespective of party.

Another Straw Ride.

A party of young people from town spent a very plesant evening at Plaindealing on Friday last. The early part of the evening passed off very plesant, several of the company participated in a social game of whist. Shorty after nine a straw-ride of fair maidens from Ridgely arrived. The latter part of the evening was made more enjoyable by the exceedingly well rendered recitations of Miss Dodge, of Baltimore, which were very entertaining. The straw-ride consisted of: Mrs. Yearly, the Misses Lucy Wheatley, Bertha Barry, Mamie Dodge, Gertrude Dempsey, Katherine McShane, Beulah Day, Jessie Jones, and Dr. Stone.

THAT CLERKSHIP.

The mandamus hearing that has been the talk of both parties for several days past was heard at Centreville on Monday before the Circuit Court. Mr. A. G. Towers, counsel for the Commissioners repersented them, while Lewis & West appeared in Treasurer Whitby's interests. The question involved was should Mr. Whitby act as Clerk to the Commissioners? This dispute grew out of a law passed at the last session of the legislature, the companion to which was killed at the time this one became a law. The one was no use without the other, but the Democrats put it through, thinking they saw a way they could bleed the county of a few hundred dollars by allowing it to become a law. The case was discussed at considerable length by both sides, Mr. Towers taking the view that Mr. Whitby should act as treasurer and clerk, while Mr. Lewis thought differently. After the Court had heard both sides of the case and the law, it sustained Mr. Towers and said Mr. Whitby must act as Clerk to the Commissioners on extra pay. The Court ignored the pet bill pushed through by the Democrats a few months ago which leaves the treasurer's office where it was heretofore. While the court recommends an increase of pay to the clerk, it states no amount and the Commissioners will use their discression as to the amount. Heretofore it has been customary to pay the treasurer and clerk $1800 a year at 25 cents for each new name added to the assesable list. This, we presume, will be what the commissioners will consider right in the future. Instead of paying the treasurer as heretofore, $18000 and 25 cents for each new name added, which amounts to $75 or $100 each year, the treasurer in the future will receive a fixed or stated salary. This has been a case where the Democrats have worked to squander the peoples' money at the expense of the Republicans, but the scheme has proved a dismal failure. Our Commissioners are schrewd, conscientious business men and can be relied on at all times to watch the county's fiances and see that the tax payer's interests are looked after. From the first this board has insisted that it was Mr. Whitby's place to act as clerk, and that without extra pay. This position has been well taken and ably sustained by the Court. This has been a case where right has pervailed and justice will be done the taxpayers of the county. It is victory for the Republicans who insisted on Mr. Whitby's acting as clerk and a saving financially for the taxpayer.

The Public Schools.

The papers of the State do not seem to be giving the Republican State officials full credit for the noble work they are doing, and for the effort they are making to keep the pledges made to the people in the reform campaign of 1895. Among the first of Comptroller Phillips Lee Goldsborough's acts was to familiarize himself with the conditions of the school fund, and arrange his policy so that it might, if possible, be increased. The recent distributions to the public show how effective his work has been in that direction, and the July apportionment will be the largest in amount that the schools have ever received at one time from the State Treasurer. Surely this splended effort to improve our public schools is worth a little more than mere mention, and the Republican papers ought to see that it is placed before the people in such a way as to be appreciated. It gives evidence of Republican sincerity and earnestness, and proves the capacity of the party to the public affairs honest and capably.—Annapolis Examiner.

We have repeatedly pointed out improvements the Republican party has made in the State since it come into power. None deserve more notice than the financial management, which increases our public school fund. The Democratic party have but little to say along this line of improvement.

At Chancellorsville, fought May 1-3, 1862, the Union losses was 1606 killed 9762 wounded, 5919 missing, a total of 17,287. There were 78,000 Union troops engaged, making the percentage of loss 22.
