Republican Primaries.

The Republicans of Caroline County are requested to meet at the usual places of holding elections in the several Election Districts on SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 3rd, 1898,

for the purpose of selecting five delegates to meet in County Convention at Denton, on

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6th, 1898, to select three delegates to represent Caroline County in the Republican Congressional Convention at Ocean City on to nominate a Candidate for Congress from the first Congressional District.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 15th, 1898,

JOHN A. SIGLER,
GEO. M. RUSSUM,
J. B. FLETCHER.
State Central Committee for Caroline county.

SOME of our exchanges in sizing up the Congressional candidates in this State, think they will be gold-standard men this fall. The gentlemen spoken of generally throughout the State have never been free-silver men at heart, although they have been partially allied with them. Of course, this exchange goes on to say, it would be suicidal for any candidate to offer himself in Maryland on an out-and-out free-silver platform this fall, and the determination to shelve the question is an eminently wise move on the part of the leaders. No one can study the figures of the election of '96 without recognizing this fact. The big majority Maryland gave McKinley, and the solid Republican delegation in the House, testify very eloquently to the havoc free-silver played with the Democracy in Maryland. And in view of all that has happened since, that cause would now fare incomparably worse than it did two years ago.

The UNION told our readers some weeks ago that the free-silver issue was a thing of the past. Those who couldn't see their fate then was was indeed blind. Our city contemporary, however, is only admitting that which it was forced to. It is also inclined to think that the character of the candidates will cut a figure in the coming campaign as much as any thing. The House of Representatives, from present appearances, promises to be overwhelmingly Republican. So far as it goes, the money issue will unquestionably operate in favor of the Republicans; and it will be a good policy for them to come out aggressively for the gold standard as it will be for the Democrats to keep the money issue out of sight. The two free-silver papers of this county are on the fence waiting for an issue. A few weeks ago they were out-spoken in the interest of the white metal and publishing editorials under the caption of "the silver flag is flying," etc. Isn't it a little strange how quickly some papers can set their sails to a favorable breeze?

THE new war-revenue law as revealed in the financial returns of revenues for July, are highly gratifying to this country, particularly to those who had charge of framing the measure and enforcing the law. The aggregate receipts for July was $26,170,697, while the receipts from the same source for the corresponding month of '97 was $14,169,620; a gain of over twelve million dollars. At this rate it would be $144,000,000 a year. Chairman Dingley's estimate was that the new law would produce about $138,000,000 additional revenue annually, and it will thus be seen that he was not far out of the way. The showing is very satisfactory to the Government as it affords an insight into the vast resources of this country, and a proof of our national capacity to raise large sums of money. It will be well for us to note that the total war and navy expenditures for July, '98 were $43,288,000, against $13,735,000 for July, '97; a difference of $30,000,000. This shows the outlays on account of war with Spain have averaged during that period $1,000,000 per day.

THOS. Clark, of Dover, has been appointed gate keeper at the Trenton penitentiary, is the way a Delaware Democratic exchange puts it. It is surprising that it didn't say he was rusticating at a favorite resort in New Jersey where two Delawarians are stopping and others are soon expected.

SPAIN should draw some consolation from the fact that after the war is over she will have no colonial possessions and therefore will have no need to spend money on a navy.

OUR contemporaries have little to say in regard to that great revenue getter, the Dingley act, which in time of peace was making deficits and in time of war with the increased receipts from internal revenue, allows the government to fall in arrears about $30,000,000 each month. —Lewes Pilot.

Whether Lewes Pilot is in any way related to Pontius Pilate, we know not, but this we do know, one was about as far from right as the other, the difference being that the senior meant well but didn't know better, while the junior knows better but doesn't mean so well. The Republican press has been very good in keeping their readers posted on the excellent work this measure has accomplished. In fact the UNION has been so much pleased with the exellent workings of the Dingley act that some of our Democratic readers have indirectly sent us word to please give them a rest along that line. It has proven to be such a good thing in this county the UNION has had its own say and that without any rebuttal for several months past from the Democratic papers of this county. But war has upset most all calculations, but the lesson that figures teach us by treasury experts is that the high tariff of '97 is producing enough revenue to pay all the ordinary expenses of the Government in times of peace. When Mr. Cleveland was in the saddle the deficit was over $260,000,000. The Dingley law is now yielding about $60,000,000 of revenue a year more than the Wilson law. In spite of the decreased imports on account of the war, the law has produced a surplus in the last few months, if we do not take into account the extraordinary war expenditures. The daily receits are now over a million dollars a day, and in ordinary times would be laying up a surplus. Democrats who know what the Dingley law is doing are mum on the subject. Those who neither know or care what they say can keep on talking.

IN response to an inquiry of the Treasury Department, Attorney-General Griggs has given an opinion that vessels under the Hawaiian flag do not require American registry in consequence of annexation, and to trade with Hawaii is not coastwise trade until Congress so orders. Precedents, it is said, justify this opinion. Florida ports were treated as foreign ports after we had acquired the peninsula from Spain until Congress legislated on the subject. The laws of the United States are not automatically extended to annex territory. Regulations are being prepared for the admission of Poto Rico in this way. The minimum rates of the Spanish tariff will be exacted from Americans sending goods thither, as from foreigners, until Congress acts. The relations of acquired territory to the United States are to be decided by Congress.

THERE will be no extra session of Congress, though the Senate will have to be called together for prompt ratification of the treaty of peace according to the present plans of the President. It is said that unless there should be some extriordinary development the House will not meet until it convenes in regular session in December. The people of this country are breathing freely now and want no extra session of both Houses if it can be averted. The work of the last extra session proved to be such a God-send to the laboring people in particular, we can get along nicely without another for the present. The Dingley bill is a dandy as a revenue producer.

THE $200,000,000 in gold which President McKinley holds in the Treasury while he is selling bonds for the Rothschilds, helps English buyers to force down the price of all American products. No wonder we are having printed picture of the stars and stripes quartered on the Union Jack.—Milford Herald.

The money raised by these bonds are for war purposes only and their issuance is sanctioned by thinking people of all parties. This is a different case from that of Mr. Cleveland when he borrowed over two-hundred and sixty millions in time of peace. Such newspaper talk is nothing less than veritable rot.

THERE are rumors of an ugly defalcation in Queen Anne's. The amount lost to the county is said to be several thousand dollars! The official in question is said to have given bond for only $500. How can such looseness be possible? For the credit of our sister county we hope it is untrue.—Kent News.

It is not surprising that such defalcations should exisit in that county and it is more than likely there are others that have never come to light. Queen Anne's, you know, is Democratic from way back.

PRESIDENT McKinley is entitled to the sympathy of everybody. He has a Secretary of War who is credited with more official blunders than any other man in authority. If Secretary Alger would resign much might be forgiven.—Morning News.

With a President like the one we have in the chair an inefficient member of the cabinet can't do a great deal of harm but can be lots of bother to those in authority.

WHERE is that patriotic Cleveland, Palmer and Buckner crowd? Isn't it about time they had called a meeting of their State committee.—Dem. Ex.

They are still enjoying the joke? they played on the free silverites a few months ago. The silverites are evidently concerned about them before putting another ticket before the people, and well they may be. If they pulse public sentiment they will crawl into a hole and then pull it in after them.

THE Democrats didn't have any trouble to carry Alabama this year. —Dem. Ex.

No, neither have the Dutch any throuble in holding Holland.
