beforementioned Run, & found the said Indians Gun his powder horn & Shot Bag lying under a Log about two hundred Yards from the Road aforesaid. That they thereupon were confirmed in their former Suspicions that the said Jacobs was the Murderer of the said Indian and immediately returned to the said Company with an intent to apprehend and carry him before a Justice of Peace to be dealt with according to Law, but to their great surprize were informed by the Company that the said Jacobs had followed him the said Jones & this Deponent into the Woods & that they had not seen him since. This deponent further saith that it was then Evening and too late to pursue him, & that the said Jacobs hath absconded & never made his appearance in that part of the Country since, but that he has been informed he was seen soon afterwards in the back parts of the Colony of Virginia, & further this Deponent saith not.
