May it please your Excellency 8th June 1758.

49

ARCHIVES
OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND.

Since We made our last Report to your Excellency concerning the Roman Catholicks We do not know or have heard of any Offence committed by them among us (except two very ignorant Persons of that persuasion who have been prosecuted for Words spoken, not concerning their Loyalty but against our most holy Religion for which We fined each of them one thousand pounds of Tobacco) or that they have behaved inconsistent with the Duty they owe to the best of Kings his present Majesty And we assure your Excellency that when we are informed they presume to act or say otherwise, we shall be diligent that they may not only be prosecuted but punished according to their Demerits

We are with all Regard

Your Excellcy Most Hble Serv.ts

Thos Cornish