have formed an Opinion of them being bailable, or not, nor can they with Precision, until the General Assembly first determine, whether they are entitled to the Benefit of the Proclamation. –

With regard to the Reverend Mr. Rowe, the Council of Safety were equally divided in Opinion on the Point of Bailment,

All which is submitted to the Consideration of the Honorable the Senate, and Delegates in Assembly. –

Order

Dan. of St. Thos. Jenifer P.