and John Roberts, who were all qualified in the presence of the Commissioners before Andrew Hamilton Esquire, Justice of the Peace and Recorder of the City of Philadelphia. "to do all such "Services as should be enjoin'd them in relation to running of the "temporary Limits between the two Provinces, justly, faithfully "and impartially to the best of his knowledge". And the Comm.rs adjourned 'till next Day.

Friday, April 13.th 1739.

The Commissioners with the Surveyors met at Israel Pem=-berton's Fence, before mentioon'd; and all Parties being satisfied by the Marks that were left on the Fence and on the Trees near it, that that was the Place where they left off on the 11.th day of December last; the Surveyors proceeded on the Line 'till Evening, and left off in the Land of Thomas Worth in Darby Township.

Saturday, April 14.th 1739.

The Commissioners met, and the Surveyors proceeded on the Line, to a Plantation belonging to Samuel Lewis in Springfield Township.

Munday, April 16.th 1739.

The Commissioners met, and the Surveyors proceeded on the Line, to the Plantation of John Warrel in Providence Townsh.

Tuesday, April 17.th 1739.

The Commissioners met, and the Surveyors proceeded on the Line, to the Widow Yarnall Plantation in Egmont Town=-ship. This day the Surveyors met with several Attracti=-ons; and it was concluded to return the next Day to the pl

(where