4. [illegible] Upon Peal from this Day forward to the [illegible] there shall be an Inviolable Peace and Amity between the [illegible] Honourable the Lord Proprietary of this Province and the Chiefs of Broad Creek Indian Towns Upon Articles hereafter in this Treaty agreed upon and that all former Acts of Hostility and Damages whatsoever sustained shall be buried in Perpetual Oblivion 2dly That if any Indian or Indians subject to the said Chiefs shall be a fault boat or kill an English Man or Plot or conspire to make Warr with the English Inhabitants the said Chiefs shall be Obliged to deliver such Indians up to the Governor of this Province to suffer as the English should do for the like Offence 3dly For as much as the English cannot Easily distinguish one Indian from Another that no Indian shall come into any English Plant[illegible] shall be bound to call aloud be [illegible] Any English [illegible] clear Gu [illegible] Arms whether Guns Bows and [illegible] or other move a distance from them that any English Man that shall upon their Call may take them up and in case that no one Appears that they shall leave their said Arms if they come nearer and afterwards call aloud to give notice to the English of their no[illegible] Approach and if any English Man shall kill an Indian that shall come up and and give notice & deliver up his Arms as aforesaid he shall dye for it as (well)

[illegible] Choice of an [illegible] Them nor shall they suffer any [illegible] Subject to them to carry a Gun without licence from his Excellency the Governor of Maryland and if any Indian shall be found with a Gun without such Licence he shall forfeit his Gun and be treated as an Enemy 5th ly The Privilege of Crabbing fowling Hunting and Fishing shall be [illegible] to the [illegible] Inviolably