Articles of Peace and Amity concluded and

Proprietor of the Province of [illegible] and &c, and Bastobell John Wh[illegible]
Chiefs of the Assiteaques and Nanticoke Indians on Behalf of themse[illegible]

Imp.ds It is Agreed upon from this [illegible] forward to the Worlds End there shall be an [illegible]
Province and the Chiefs of the Nanticoke and Assiteaque Indians Servants Ag[illegible] and Damages whatsoever sustained shall be Buried in Perpetual Oblivion

2dly That if any Indian or Indians Subject to the said Chiefs shall hereafter [illegible]
English Inhabitants the said Chiefs shall be Obliged to deliver such Indians

3dly Forasmuch as the English cannot easily distinguish one Indian from anoth[illegible]
Indians shall be Bound to call aloud before they come within one Hundred Bows and Arrows or other Weapons and move a distance from them that case that no one Appears that they shall leave their said Arms if they co[illegible]
Approach and if any English Man shall kill an Indian that shall co[illegible] Dye for it aswell as an Indian that shall kill an English Man and in shall be bound immediately to Throw down his Arms upon call and mo[illegible] down his Arms upon Call as aforesaid he shall be deemed an Enemy and 4thly That the said Chiefs shall never Join with the Nanticoke Indians in the Suffer any Indian Subject to them to carry a Gun without License from ha[illegible] Gun without such License he shall Forfeit his Gun and be Treated as an

5thly The Priviledge of Crabbing Fowling Hunting and Fishing shall be preserv[illegible]

6thly That every Indian that Killeth or Stealeth an Hog Calf or other Beast or the like Offence

7thly If any Servants or Slaves runaway from their Masters to any of the Indian Apprehend the said Fugitives and convey them to the next English Ho[illegible] or Assist any such Fugitives in their Flight out of this Province he shal[illegible]
as an English Man Ought to do in the like Case