killing

[illegible] Indians subject to them and [illegible] next and if [illegible] killing an English Man

[illegible] neither the said Chief or any of the Indians under their Subjection

Foreign or Strange Indians or know or discover any such to appear the Governor or some Colony Magistrate of Note by whom the same Time being for his Direction [illegible] and if such Strange Indian shall

Apprehend and deliver such Strange Indian to the English

That if any Disputes [illegible] between the said Chiefs or their Subjects

[illegible] it shall be [illegible] the Governor and Council

[illegible] That the English and Indians shall hereafter be as one People and if [illegible] either of them and if [illegible] all hear that any Persons intend to [illegible] as a further Testimony of their League Peace and Friendship from him and his Government here the said Indian Chiefs and their Sachems

Proprietor his Heirs and Successors two Bows and two Dozen of Arrows

Dominion seven Years and a Pledge of Peace also In Confirmation

Witness [illegible] Lordship and Bart. Bell John Watts on behalf of themselves [illegible]

Lordship's Witness [illegible] Witness [illegible] Indians

[illegible]