REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For Representative in Congress from the First Congressional District of Maryland.

WILBUR F. JACKSON, of Dorchester County.

REPUBLICAN MASS - MEETING.

A Grand Mass Meeting will be held in Denton on

at 2 o'clock, p. m. Senator Wellington and other prominent speakers will be present and address the meeting. Let all voters, irrespective of party, be present and hear the issues of the day discussed.

EE silver advocates are increas- n this district. At first the ocratic party didn't know what truck it, but since the mist that surrounded it has cleared away and the cloven footed scheme has been exposed, true Democrats are showing their colors by rallying to the Willis wing of the party. As the rank and file of the party realize that Senator Gorman, not Mr. Vandiver, is the power behind the throne, the free silver party is asserting its rights, and well it may if it expects future recognition in this State. The politicians have sold the party out for less than a mess of pottage. It is already visible that the Willis faction is getting in its work, as shown by the Smith faction. When he was nominated all parties agreed that he practically stood on the Republican platform, which was right, he being a "gold bug Democrat." Fearing to publicly express himself he has gone over this district more than once sounding the voters before he dared write his letter of acceptance, clearly showing by the time since his nomination that he was afraid to commit himself to any issue. At last he has broken the silence he has been keeping for nearly a month and tells the public that he hardly knows where he stands. It may be all right for him to say so, but the voters will clearly show him on the eighth of next month where he lies. A candidate may play a dual game on intelligent people for a time, but it won't work on day of election any more. Seeing that the free silver wing of the party is here to stay, Mr. Smith thinks it wise to change front somewhat on the money question, and says I am going to straddle any and everything pertaining to the money question, by declaring myself in favor both gold and siver. The circus trick is a thin one and is transparent to the casual observer. Again, to show how careful Col. Smith is going to be with his campaign, it is reported that his wing of the party is not going to hold public meetings but is going to pursue the still hunt, showing that they have no live issue to present this fall. Again, he says the party is harmonious this fall and for that reason, coupled with the fact that it's normally Democratic, he builds his hope of election. Normally, that is without money, this district is Republican. Therefore looking at Col. Smith's position it is far from serene. The free silver wing alone is sufficient to defeat him, to say nothing about money. Take this from his wing and he is doubly sure of defeat.

IT is now no longer a question, but a fact that Col. Roosevelt didn't sacrifice his residence at any time in N. Y. and is therefore eligable to be governor of his state. Now it is all the more interesting to note that the Democratic candidate for governor is already accused of having dodged the payment of a petty tax on personal property. Candidate VanWyck has just resigned the position of justice of the Supreme Court of the state in order to make a canvass for Governor. Yet he is said to have evaded paying his taxes while drawing a salary of over $7,000 a year from the state. Col. Roosevelt is far ahead in the gubernatorial race.

THE oldest M. E. church in America, is said to be the quaint moss-covered Barrett's Chapel, near Frederica. It is termed by church historians as the cradle of Methodism, and its 114th anniversary will be celebrated on Sunday. The church still has the high back apartment pews, ulpit and whitewashed walls.

IT is encouraging to see the leaders of the two great parties talk of reform along vote traffic lines. This vote buying and selling business has become very common throughout the country and should be eliminated, and it is gratifying to see the political leaders in this district making a move in that direction. They have gotten together and seem to be in earnest. Col. W. F. Jackson and his friends are credited with the initiative in this matter, and it is hoped the masses will cooperate with them in suppressing this trafic. In order to perfect plans to suppress this evil, a meeting of the Republican and Democratic committees of the counties composing the First Congressional District has been called at Easton to-morrow to devise plans to remedy this evil. The movement was started first, it is said, in Wicomico county by Robt. P. Graham, chairman of the Republican central committee of that county. Mr. Graham had his own county in view at that time, but others thought if it would work in that county why wouldn't it work in the entire district, from which Col. Jackson proposes to work the plan in the entire district. All lovers of a pure ballot will watch the outcome of this move with interest.

COL. Jackson, the Republican candidate, is growing more popular as the campaign advances. The public is learning more of his sterling worth as a man and qualifications as a candidate. If he continues to grow in general favor in the future as in the past, his majority in this district will surpass the most liberal estimates of his friends. Why is the Colonel becoming so popular with the masses? is asked, while Col. Smith is retrograding as a standard bearer. The solution of this question is an easy one. Col. Jackson stands squarely on the Republican platform, it having been tested and tried, meets the requirements of the common people, while on the other hand the Smith wing platform can be better imagined than expressed. Already they are beginning to put new planks into the structure to bolster it up, some of those put in a few days ago being condemned by the public in toto. The contrast between the two platforms are so marked that a person with a glass eye can't fail to detect the difference.

THE executive committee of the Chicago platform democracy has issued a proclamation in which it says Hon. Wm. Willis, the nominee, and Col. Smith, the nominee for the single gold standard democracy, asks that these and the Republican party, of which Col. Jackson is the nominee, appoint two reputable citizens in each precinct to discover and prosecute every one trying to bribe a voter. The committee also says: "We all know that bribery has been rampant. The buyers and sellers are well known, but as the matter was a double-edged sword, nothing has been done." It also says if the committees of the single gold standard ticket, (meaning Smith) and the Republican ticket, do not heed this request, they are notified that the executive committee of the Chicago platform democracy, will have two firm and honest Democrats at every precinct and arrest every briber and bribe-taker, regardless of consequences. All lovers of pure government will say amen and respect the doings of this wing of the Democratic party.

TEXAS will have two elections next months, a special one on November 1st, and a regular one on the 8th. The special will be held for the purpose of voting on an amendment to the State Constitution which provides that pensions be granted to Confederate soldiers. There is considerable opposition among the Confederate vets themselves, many of them objecting to the policy of granting pensions. They wisely urge that the accommodations of the State Confederate Home be increased so that all worthy veterans may be properly taken care of.

IT is no longer a secret that Col. Smith realizes his situation as a candidate, and is much alarmed at the muddle in this district. Let him turn to the right or left, defeat seems to haunt him. He appreciates(?) the fact, also, that Mr. Willis, being in harmony with the democracy of the country, is entitled to more consideration from those who supported Bryan than is a candidate who refuses to say, or is afraid to say, where he stands on the great financial question. The people have no confidence in a candidate that is all things to all men.

THE public naturally expected the Democratic state convention at Dover a few days ago to offer resolutions of sympathy for Thos. F. Bayard and his family. It can't be that he is so soon forgotten by his old political friends?

LOST, strayed or stolen; our Board of Trade that started off so promisingly some months ago. A liberal reward will be paid by the Town Commissioners for its return; dead or alive.

THE investigation of the War Department is progressing satisfactorily to the public. The commissioners are not talking much, neither is the mongrel press. The former has been working along practical lines, while the latter's talk has been chaffy and foolish and has a tendency to rebound with telling results. If only ignorance and mental incapacity are revealed, that will end the matter, and all the investigation will disclose will be the fact that when the next war comes we may know better how to start in. The investigation however, will do no harm and may be the means of teaching the censorious press a lesson.

COL. Smith says he did not seek the nomination for congress, but as he is in the contest he is going to make a vigorous fight. We have been informed that Col. Smith has been a candidate for this position for several years, but has never been able to get the plum until this year; the reason he got it this time was that he was the only one under the tree when it fell. The other boys were off in the shade laughing at him and saying how he would get burnt this fall. The Colonel is beginning to size up the situation.

MOBS are always cowardly and irrational. The capital of our State was the scene last week of a deplorable exhibition of mob rule. The victim was taken from the jail and riddled with bullets. It is the custom of this as well as other States to make little or no resistance when a mob calls on the jail officials and demand their man. We need officials to say no to this turbulent clement and then stick to it. These mobs generally know their men before they tackle a jail.

OUR Democratic editors are versa tile men as they can adapt themselves to circumstances, no matter what the platform demands may be. Two years ago a man who voted the gold bug ticket was never to be forgiven for it, while now, according to the Smith wing, if he doesn't vote it he is a traitor and should be banished from the party. Isn't it strange how sensible men can be pulled around by such political tricksters? Truely some politics find strange bedfellows.

ROBT. Lane who was arrested and given a preliminary hearing over two months ago, was released from jail on Monday, by order of the court for lack of evidence to even give him a hearing; at the close of the poor man's season, he was turned out to get a living for this winter the best he can. If the court was able to see that the evidence was insufficient, why couldn't that fact have been discovered when he was committed to jail?

THE Democratic ratification meeting in Wilmington Saturday night, was a cold affair. There was no enthusiasm, and the boys were kept on the street until after 9, trying to get a crowd. The speakers were John Biggs, Irving Handy, Martin Smith. Big Handy Smith; quite a trump card, but it din't work that trip.

THE Oregon legislature has elected a United States Senator. The Republicans have sixty-eight members out of a total of ninety, and therefore another gold senator will help this nation on the upward grade. Republican legislation is the doctrine we need to continue the prosperity of this nation.

THE St. Paul and St. Louis will soon resume their passenger trips between New York and Southampton. Doubtless Uncle Sam made it profitable for the owners. They are great boats in war or peace and have a record to that effect.

WOULD it not be a wise move for our farmers to have a neat sign painted and put on their front gates, telling who lives there and the name of the farm? The cost would be small but the convenience and satisfaction to strangers great.

Trouble in a Church.

Zion M. E. Church, owned by a colored congregation at Camden, was the scene of serious trouble late Friday night. In consequence Charles Water and Edward Cooper are in a dangerous condition from bullet wounds while Samuel Jones and Isaac Fulman have fled to Maryland to avoid arrest.

It appears that Jones arose in the meeting and shouted: "I am the Lord and all who don't believe are liars!" Fulman then emptied his revolver promiscuously, and Charles Waters was shot in the breast. The crowd then attempted to stop Fulman and Jones, as they dashed for the door, and Edward Cooper was shot in the body.

Jones and Fulman went to Hazletville, where they remained all night, but when officer went for them they had fled to Maryland. The two colored men who were shot are in a serious condition.

Owing to the accidental burning of the will of Charles E. Benson, St. Michael's M. E. Church will lose a bequest of $800. The destruction of the will renders it impossible for the beneficiaries to come into possession of the bequests, except that the law makes the daughter the sole heir.

Silver Meeting.

The Maryland "Loyal Democratic Association" opened its campaign in the first congressional district Saturday night, when a meeting was held at Preston. The meeting was one of the largest held here for a long time. A large stand was constructed and decorated with flags, from which the speaking took place. There were many buggies and traps from all around the surrounding country, loaded with people, arriving long before the meeting began. Bowman's Easton Band furnished music and played many of the most popular national airs.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Wm. T. Kelley, an old resident of Preston. In his remarks he said: "It is the duty of the farmers to vote of their kind instead of bankers, and the sooner they realize this the better for all the people." He then introduced Hon. William E. Willis, of St. Michael's, as the peoples candidate for Congress in the first district.

Farmer Willis said he had lived three score years without making speeches, and was, therefore not a speaker, but he thought that if elected to Congress he could vote with honesty and courageous conviction on the side of the people.

Major William E. Stewart, of Easton, said he had been a Democrat all his life and had always remained true to the principles of the national Democratic party, and at the present moment was as true to Democratic principles as ever, and, therefore, intended to vote and work for William Willis, the farmer, for Congress, instead of Mr. Smith, or Mr. Jackson, the bankers. Major Stewart related how, after coming back from the civil war, he had found his all ruined for the lost cause, and how he fought for his principles. He said he was fighting for principles now as well as then.

Rober E. Mattingly, of Washington, D. C., also addressed the meeting. He said he had been a delegate to the Chicago convention, which formed that second Declaration of Independence known as the Chicago platform, and had served on the committee on resolutions with William Jennings Bryan, and had often seen him on his knees writing and dictating clauses which he thought proper to be inserted into that glorious document for the benefit of the people.

William Toner, of Baltimore, strongly arraigned "the selfish banking interests of the county."

A letter from S. S. Field, of Baltimore, was read by Mr. Mattingly.

Arrangements have been made for an active campaign throughout the counties and towns of the first congressional district, which will be conducted largely under the management of Edwin A. Newman, the founder of Lakeland, in Prince George's county, Md. There will be five or six meetings each day on the same plan that Mr. Newman worked in the fifth and sixth districts in the campaign of 1896. Music, speakers and literature will be used freely throughout the first district.

MATTERS OF INTEREST.

Ten hogs owned by George A. Millington of Dover, died this week of Cholera.

Constable Clifton has released the racer Topsey Russell, which was owned by W. T. Moore, who was fatally injured at the Dover race track.

Howard Harper, of Dover, was shot on Tuesday by Zachariah Gibbs, both colored, and killed immediately. Harper was drunk and to blame for the murder.

Lewes people are pleased over the prospect of having a new industry. William Hooker of Philadelphia is reported to have been negotiating for a site for a tin box factory.

The Annual convention of Easton District League will be held at Middletown, Del., October 19-20, 1898. Each Chapter is entitled to three delegates.

Milton is enjoying a good sized building boom just now. Six houses are being erected here, and a new public hall is also being built. This is caused by the town now having railroad connection.

A steamboat line between Philadelphia and Dover, the first that has been in operation for many years, is running by way of St. Johns creek and the Delaware. Vineyard & Vineyard own the line.

An ice cream festival will be held at the hall, Wye Mills, on Saturday evening, for the benefit of the public schools of that place. Supper will also be served. The Wye Mills Band will furnish music for the occassion.

The telephone line is now an assured thing. The polls are being distributed between Bridgeville and Seaford. When the line is completed, Smyrna, Dover, Camden, Frederica, Milford, Georgetown, Lewes, Seaford and Bridgeville will be connected.

This completes the Republican Congressional nomination in Maryland, the list being as follows:

First District—Wilbur F. Jackson.
Second District—Wm. B. Baker.
Third District—F. C. Wachter.
Fourth District—William W. McIntire.
Fifth District—Sidney E. Mudd.
Sixth District—George A. Rearre.

Prohibition in Canada.

The general vote in Canada in favor of prohibition, says the Boston Herald, does not necessarily commit the Dominion to that form of social restriction, for it is merely an expression of public opinion to the effect that the people wish Parliament to enact a uniform restrictive law of this character. But, if a majority of the Canadian Parliament see fit to disregard this popular mandate, there is nothing in the vote itself to prevent them from so doing or to punish those who fail to obey this expression of the popular will. It will be urged, when the matter comes up for the legislature action, that this is not one of those cases in which silence gives consent; that, on the contrary, the fact that only a minority of the registered voters pronounced in favor of this radical legislation is a partial proof that a majority of the people did not wish for it.
