138

Sirs/ Baltimore Decem.br 1 – 1776

the Bearer Mrs Tregolet is Uneasy a Bout her Horses Tokken By Capt Ewin Smith & Ramsey Last Winter for Bar raks Hoses Troubeth you On the same a Count Once Before I Was Call'd On By the Cap.t to Vallew the horses when the Were Tokken and I Believe for that Reason the Widow Insists I Will Doo this was all settled she was Pd But since Sum thing for her the horses are Mu ch Abused and she think Will Bee Renqu.d the Are fitter for Barraks the Are in Town and I Believe the Abuses had Best Bee Reqaired the are Very Carles and she thinks the Will Burn hen and all she has By their Negle
I think she has Cautch them With Lang ings against the Walls On the Out Side
But what she Says I think May Bee Depended On and Must Leave you and hen to Settell it Please Excuse for the freedom it is for a Widdow Woman you Humbles Servant

Peter Mollingsh

ARCHIVES OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND